

The background of the cover is a painting of a woman with long, dark, wavy hair and striking blue eyes. She is looking down at a glowing, blue, spherical object she is holding in her hands. The object has a textured, crystalline appearance. The background behind her is a soft, hazy landscape with rolling hills and a warm, golden light, suggesting a sunset or sunrise. The overall tone is ethereal and magical.

Ming Erotic Novellas Richard G Wang, 2011-03-13 Richard Wang's Ming Erotic Novellas is path breaking in its attention to a virtually ignored body of literature that certainly influenced the writing of the Jin Ping Mei the Sanyan vernacular stories and most likely Li Yu's fiction Compared to other titles in the field this is the first scholarly monograph in any language to contextualize the erotic novellas of late imperial China Moreover existing studies in this area have tended to concentrate on a limited number of works of Chinese erotic fiction or have only brushed up against these works tangentially during more general discussion of Ming and Qing literature Ming Erotic Novellas adopts a provocative approach to fiction moving beyond the traditional textual analyses of gender politics and the qing cult and examining these erotic novellas as a new genre within the contexts of print culture readership consumption patterns as well as religious dimensions Ming Erotic Novellas focuses on a group of mid to late Ming literary wenyan novellas which are all stories of erotic romance These novellas include a profusion of poems mixed with prose narratives that are characterized by simple literary Chinese with a tendency toward the vernacular Their plots are complex with some running 20 000 characters or more allowing for nuanced character development rich dialogue and psychological description Circulated widely during the Ming the novellas had a significant impact on later erotic and scholarbeauty caizi jiaren novels This particular group of novellas was of great importance in the development of Chinese fiction functioning as a transitional link between the classical tale to the vernacular novel By approaching these works through the lens of a cultural study Wang is able to explore the social functions of the novellas as well as their significance in the development of Chinese fiction in the Ming cultural context      The Washington Post Index , 1989      Tangible Whispers, Neglected Encounters Marco Musillo, 2019-02-01 T00:00:00+01:00 The relationship between East and West remains a topic of burning timeliness particularly in its political dimension Yet we can gain a complete understanding of the current tensions only if we consider them within a broader historical framework spanning from art to diplomacy from religion to ethnography The present volume tackles precisely this complex task offering its reader a rich mosaic of case studies and scholarly research relating to the mutual approaches between the Euro American West and the Sino Japanese East In the first part of the book art historian Marco Musillo uses the depictions of Tartars in fourteenth century Italian frescoes as the starting point of a trajectory leading to eighteenth century European literature on China In the second part the reader is introduced to two cases of diplomatic encounter one in sixteenth century Italy between

Japanese subjects and local courts and the other one between Qing China and twentieth century United States in the space of the universal exhibition in St Louis Finally the last section proposes three interconnected art historical explorations the screen design of Chinese origin in colonial Mexico Medieval Christian tombstones in China and early modern Filipino sacred sculpture
