Neo Avant Garde Avant Garde Critical Studies 20:

Neo-avant-garde David Hopkins, 2006 The neo avant garde of the 1950s 60s and 70s is due for a thoroughgoing reassessment This collection of essays represents the first full scale attempt to deal with the concept from an interdisciplinary standpoint A number of essays in this book concentrate on fine art particularly painting and sculpture thereby adding significantly to the growing art historical literature in the field but a number of the contributions also focus on poetry performance theatre film architecture and music Given that there are also major essays here dealing with geographical blindspots in current neo avant garde studies with thematic issues such as art s entanglement with gender mass culture and politics with key neo avant garde publications and with the purely theoretical problems attaching to the theorisation of the topic this collection offers a multi dimensional approach to the subject which is noticeably lacking elsewhere Taken together these essays represent a consolidated attempt at re thinking the cultural logic of the immediate post World War II period

Local - Global Narratives Renate Rechtien, Karoline Von Oppen, 2007 Over the past decade and a half Germany has experienced a period of political and cultural turbulence which many have attributed to the combined challenges of unification and globalisation In response to growing exposure to global markets politics and migration debates about identity have increasingly been renationalised At the same time there has been a notable reappraisal in Germany and in German Studies of the regional and global as spaces for the construction of identity This volume sets out to explore these complex and at times contradictory trends focusing in particular on developments in Germany since the 1970s although chapters treating earlier periods are also included The volume brings together British Irish German Canadian and American scholars working in the field and resulted from a conference organised by Women in German Studies at the University of Bath The first section is primarily concerned with the specifically German concept of locality known as Heimat and its changing relationship with the global Included are explorations of the writings of Kafka Bachmann Johnson Sell Wolf Brinkmann and Jelinek amongst others as well as films by Schlöndorff and Steyerl The second section focuses on the impact of the global on institutions and rituals such as commemoration memorialisation and architecture which have traditionally been influential in shaping national self images Overall this volume concludes that the nature of the relationship to the local has fundamentally changed under the impact of globalisation

Gaming Utopia Claudia Costa Pederson, 2021-04-06 In Gaming Utopia Ludic Worlds in Art Design and Media Claudia Costa Pederson analyzes modernist avant garde and contemporary video games to challenge the idea that gaming is an exclusively white heterosexual male corporatized leisure activity and reenvisions it as a catalyst for social change By looking at over fifty projects that together span a century and the world Pederson explores the capacity for sociopolitical commentary in virtual and digital realms and highlights contributions to the history of gaming by women queer and transnational artists The result is a critical tool for understanding video games as imaginative forms of living that offer alternatives to our current reality

With an interdisciplinary approach Gaming Utopia emphasizes how game design creation and play can become political forms of social protest and examines the ways that games as art open doors to a more just and peaceful world A

Aesthetics Martin Lang, 2024-01-25 In 2008 an Iraqi artist was waterboarded as performance art In 2010 artists upturned police cars in Russia But what exactly do we mean by militant art and aesthetics Bringing together the philosophy of art and politics Martin Lang provides a comprehensive examination of militant art activism its history its advocates and the aesthetic theory behind it Protest art is not a new concept and yet this book argues that after the terrorist attacks of 9 11 distinctly 21st century forms of art activism emerged On the one hand these became militant as artists retained belief in the possibility of radical political change through art On the other hand this belief developed in a hostile environment when anti terror legislations reclassified activists and artists as terrorists Through first hand interviews and experiences Militant Aesthetics sheds light on numerous international case studies of modern art activism and the different ways they can be classified as militant Many artists and collectives including Grupo Etc tera in Buenos Aires are prepared to break the law and risk arrest for their art Others like Thomas Bresolin s Militant Training Camp utilise military uniforms in violent performances that connect with public anger and artists such as Zthoven in the Czech Republic occupy hack antagonise and disrupt in increasingly militant ways Combining these examples with the pioneering thought of Badiou i ek Ranci re and Mouffe as well as up to date scholarship from Bishop L ger and others Lang investigates the instances attributes and rules of militant art in order to introduce a new overall theory of 21st century militant aesthetics

AfroSurrealism Rochelle Spencer,2019-12-09 Examining the surrealist novels of several contemporary writers including Edwidge Danticat Tananarive Due Nalo Hopkinson Junot D az Helen Oyeyemi and Colson Whitehead AfroSurrealism the first book length exploration of AfroSurreal fiction argues that we have entered a new and exciting era of the black novel one that is more invested than ever before in the cross sections of science technology history folklore and myth Building on traditional surrealist scholarship and black studies criticism the author contends that as technology has become ubiquitous the ways in which writers write has changed writers are producing more surrealist texts to represent the psychological challenges that have arisen during an era of rapid social and technological transitions For black writers this has meant not only a return to Surrealism but also a complete restructuring in the way that both past and present are conceived as technology rather than being a means for demeaning and brutalizing a black labor force has become an empowering means of sharing information Presenting analyses of contemporary AfroSurreal fiction this volume examines the ways in which contemporary writers grapple with the psychology underlying this futuristic technology presenting a cautiously optimistic view of the future together with a hope for better understanding of the past As such it will appeal to scholars of cultural media and literary studies with interests in the contemporary novel Surrealism and black fiction

The Aesthetics of Matter Sarah Posman,Anne Reverseau,David Ayers,Sascha Bru,Benedikt Hjartarson,2013-10-29 It has often been argued that the arrival of the early 20th century avant gardes and modernisms coincided with an in depth exploration of the materiality of art and writing The European historical avant gardes and modernisms excelled in their attempts to establish the specificity of media and art forms as well as in experimenting with the hybridity of the materials of their multiple disciplines This third volume of the series European Avant Garde and Modernism Studies sheds light on the full range and import of this aspect in avant garde and modernist aesthetics across all art forms and throughout the 19th and 20th centuries The book s contributions written by experts from some 20 countries seek to answer the following questions What sort of objects and material works and media help us to properly grasp the avant garde and modernist aesthetics of matter How were affects emotions and sensory and bodily experiences transferred and transformed in the experiment with matter How were immaterial things such as concepts of time changed in this aesthetic moment What material meanings were disseminated in the cultural transfer and translation of objects How did subsequent avant gardes deal with the aesthetics of matter in their response to historical predecessors

Pop Goes the Avant-garde Rossella Ferrari,2012 Pop Goes the Avant Garde Experimental Theatre in Contemporary China is the first comprehensive review of the history and development of avant garde drama and theater in the People s Republic of China

since 1976 Drawing on a range of critical perspectives in the fields of comparative literature theater performance and culture studies the book explores key artistic movements and phenomena that have emerged in China s major cultural centers in the last several decades It surveys the work of China s most influential dramatists directors and performance groups with a special focus on Beijing based playwright director and filmmaker Meng Jinghui the former enfant terrible of Beijing theater who is now one of Asia s foremost theater personalities Through an extensive critique of theories of modernism and the avant garde the author reassesses the meanings functions and socio historical significance of this work in non Western contexts by proposing a new theoretical construct the pop avant garde and exploring new ways to understand and conceptualize aesthetic practices beyond Euro American cultures and critical discourses

Avant Garde Film Alexander Graf,Dietrich Scheunemann,2007 This volume on avant garde film has emerged as part of a wider reassessment of 20th century avant garde art literature and film carried out in the framework of a research project at the University of Edinburgh It paves the way for a fresh assessment of avant garde film and develops its theory as an integral part of a newly defined conception of the avant garde as a whole by closing the gap between theoretical approaches towards the avant garde as defined on the basis of art and literature on the one hand and avant garde cinema on the other It gathers contributions by the most esteemed scholars in the field of avant garde studies relating to the classical avant garde cinema of the 1920s to new trends emerging in the 1950s and 1960s and to the impact that innovative technologies have recently had on the further development of avant garde and experimental film The contributions reflect the broad range of different moving image media that make up what we refer to today simply as film at the same time as reconsidering the applicability of the label avant garde to offer a comprehensive and updated framework that will prove invaluable to scholars of both Moving Image Studies and Art History disciplines

Decentring the Avant-Garde Per Bäckström,Benedikt Hjartarson,2014-01-15 Decentring the Avant Garde presents a collection of articles dealing with the topography of the avant garde The focus is on different responses to avant garde aesthetics in regions traditionally depicted as cultural geographical and linguistic peripheries Avant garde activities in the periphery have to date mostly been described in terms of a passive reception of new artistic trends and currents originating in cultural centres such as Paris or Berlin Contesting this traditional view Decentring the Avant Garde highlights the importance of analysing the avant garde in the periphery in terms of an active appropriation of avant garde aesthetics within different cultural ideological and historical settings A broad collection of case studies discusses the activities of movements and artists in various regions in Europe and beyond The result is a new topographical model of the international avant garde and its cultural practices

Environmentalism and Contemporary Heterotopia Tom Bowers,2022-05-16 A 2023 Choice Reviews Outstanding Academic Title Where is the space for contemporary environmentalism when both the utopian promises of a clean and pure earthly Eden and the dystopian prophecies of an environmental apocalypse have failed to be fully realized As this book argues rather than falling into one of these familiar environmental categories contemporary space is configured as heterotopia as in between spaces of dissonance where encounters with waste are a daily occurrence and where dirty matter refuses to submit to human demands and intentions Through an exploration of a series of spaces in which acts of leisure and recreation are configured alongside vibrant dirty matter Tom Bowers explores how contemporary heterotopia offers entanglements with a dirty other that promote novel opportunities for humans to ethically respond and be responsible to the continued presence of waste and to generate a sense of ecological care for a dirty world In doing so the book urges readers away from a utopian vision of what the environment should be and instead asks how we can ethically exist within and around the dirtied environment as it is This book will be of interest to scholars of cultural studies environmental rhetorics and environmental ethics

Neoavanguardia' Mario Moroni, Luca Somigli, Paolo Chirumbolo, 2010-01-01 The Italian neoavanguardia a literary and artistic movement characterized by a strong push towards experimentation playfulness and new forms of language usage was founded at the beginning of the 1960s by a group of poets critics artists and composers Although the neoavanguardia movement has been primarily defined and examined in a literary context it is broadly discussed in this collection as also affecting other artistic forms such as the visual arts music and architecture In examining this often controversial movement Neoavanguardia s contributors include topics such as critical theoretical debates the crisis of literature as defined within the movement and issues of gender in 1960s Italian art and literature This important collection interrogates the arts as creative codes their ability to question reality and their capacity to survive In so doing it paves the way for future interdisciplinary investigations of this complex cultural formation
