Advance Information Systems Engineering CAiSE turns 25 Initially launched in 1989 for all these years the conference has provided a broad forum for researchers working in the area of Information Systems Engineering To reflect on the work done so far and to examine prospects for future work the CAiSE Steering Committee decided to present a selection of seminal papers published for the conference during these years and to ask their authors all prominent researchers in the field to comment on their work and how it has developed over the years The scope of the papers selected covers a broad range of topics related to modeling and designing information systems collecting and managing requirements and with special attention to how information systems are engineered towards their final development and deployment as software components With this approach the book provides not only a historical analysis on how information systems engineering evolved over the years but also a fascinating social network analysis of the research community Additionally many inspiring ideas for future research and new perspectives in this area are sparked by the intriguing comments of the renowned authors

In particular the annual general meetings of the DGOR, the GMOOR and the WG7.4 took place during the conference. The Symposium had 527 participants from 32 countries around the world including 92 participants from Eastern Europe. The Symposium obviously attracts an international audience of workers fully covering the broad spectrum of Operations Research and related areas in economics, mathematics and computer science. The importance of a highly interdisciplinary field as Operations Research is increasing owing to the growth in applications in related disciplines. Technological advances in computer science and algorithmic mathematics are crucial for attacking the great challenges waiting in the areas of applications of Operations Research effectively. As a participant of SOR 96 one could well observe the current pace of achievements. Many of these results are in these proceedings. The program consisted of two plenary, 17 semi-plenary and 335 contributed lectures in 18 sections. Research and Development in Intelligent Systems XXIX Max Bramer, Miltos Petridis, 2012-10-30.
