Nursing College Mafikeng:

Baragwanath Hospital, Soweto Simonne Horwitz, 2013-09-01 Baragwanath Hospital Soweto illustrates how this rapidly growing underfunded but surprisingly effective institution found the niche that allowed it to exist to provide medical care to a massive patient body and at times even to flourish in the apartheid state The book offers new ways of exploring the history of apartheid apartheid medicine and health care The long history of Chris Hani Baragwanath Hospital its full current name or Bara as it is popularly known has been shaped by a complex set of conditions Established in the early 1940s Bara stands on land purchased by the Cornish immigrant John Albert Baragwanath in the late nineteenth century He set up a refreshment post trading store and hotel on the site in what is now Soweto which was a one day journey by ox wagon from Johannesburg The hotel became affectionately known as Baragwanath Place the surname is Welsh from bara meaning bread and gwenith meaning wheat The land was then bought by Corner House Mining Group and later taken over by Crown Mines Ltd but was never mined The British government bought the land in the early 1940s to build a military hospital but by 1947 Baragwanath ceased to operate as a military hospital and under the auspices of the Transvaal Provincial Administration a civilian hospital was opened with 480 beds Patients were transferred from the non European wing of the Johannesburg General Hospital in the white area of Johannesburg Links were immediately forged with the University of the Witwatersrand and Bara would over time become one of its largest teaching centres This link brought medical students and their teachers into direct contact with apartheid in the medical sphere This book will contribute to studies of the history of apartheid that have begun to provide a more nuanced account of its workings The history of Baragwanath and of the doctors and nurses who worked there tells us much about apartheid ideology and practice as well as resistance to it in the realm of health care My career ,1996

Universities Yearbook ,2007 North West Province ,1999 Working with indigenous knowledge Fhumulani M. Mulaudzi, Rachel T. Lebesse, 2022 The aim of the book is to assist both local and international scholars in articulating the scholarly discourse on indigenous health attitudes practices and experiences The indigenous lens that was used to generate and disseminate indigenous knowledge in this book will strengthen indigenous scholarship thus making it accessible to a wider audience In addition the information shared in this book will add value for scholars and assist them with the indigenous knowledge needed to address sustainable development goals This book is timely and topical as the discourse on the decolonisation of the curriculum is widely debated in the higher education space The discourse on the scholarship of indigenous knowledge as the tacit local knowledge that stems from cultural practices within communities has not been well articulated in the current health science education milieu Indigenous knowledge has remained overlooked and undermined for a very long time and the information remains untapped in local communities The scholars who conducted the research on which this book is based unearthed a wealth of knowledge which was tacit in nature and translated it into implicit knowledge that can be documented and shared with other scholars globally This knowledge will assist health care scholars in benefiting from knowledge practices and cultural beliefs that will assist them in health care planning teaching evidence based practice and further research     Learn and Teach ,1988     North West Province White & Yellow Pages ,2000     Braby's Commercial Directory of Southern Africa ,1994     Annual Report Bophuthatswana (South Africa).
