Johann Michael Wansleben's Travels in the Levant, 1671-1674 Alastair Hamilton, 2018-04-03 Johann Michael Wansleben's Travels in the Levant 1671-1674 is a hitherto unpublished version of a remarkable description of Egypt and the Levant by the German scholar traveller Wansleben or Vansleb as he was known in France. He set out for the East in 1671 to collect manuscripts and antiquities for the French king and also produced the best study of the Copts to have appeared to date. This book recounts his travels in Syria, Turkey and Egypt, his everyday life in Cairo and his anthropological and archaeological discoveries which include the Graeco-Roman abbatism cemetery in Alexandria, the Roman city of Antinopolis on the Nile, the Coptic monastery of St Anthony on the Red Sea and the Red and White monasteries in Upper Egypt.

Reform before the Reformation: Vincenzo Querini and the Religious Renaissance in Italy Stephen David Bowd, 2021-10-11 An important aspect of the Italian Renaissance was church reform. This book examines the nature of that reform, especially in Venice, Florence and Rome, as viewed through the unpublished manuscripts of a Venetian nobleman who became a Camaldolese hermit, Vincenzo Querini, 1478-1514. This book sets Querini's personal journey to reform in the context of Venetian society as well as against the backdrop of political crisis, cultural revival and monastic renaissance in Italy. Generally, Querini's attempt to reform himself, the Roman Catholic Church and the whole of Christendom are of interest to historians seeking to revise the chronology of early modern church reform, since he employed a range of scriptural, humanist, conciliar, monastic and mystical methods that had medieval antecedents but were also imitated by reformers after the Reformation.

Raffaello Santi Da Urbino Vilhelm Wanscher, 1926

Reason and Experience in Renaissance Italy Christine Shaw, 2021-11-25 Political life in Renaissance Italy was held together by political principles which underlay or were used to justify political proposals and decisions in practice. This wide-ranging comparative survey examines these political principles as expressed in sources such as council debates, preambles to legislation and official correspondence in the mid-fifteenth to the mid-sixteenth century Italy. Focusing especially on the five republics, Florence, Venice, Genoa, Siena and Lucca, the book also considers princes and signori and the principles underlying relations between states, particularly relations between major and minor powers. Many of the ideas articulated by those confronting practical political problems ranged beyond the questions dealt with in formal treatises of political thought and philosophy. Drawing on extensive archival research, Christine Shaw explores the relationship between reason and experience in the conduct of political affairs in Renaissance Italy and the gap between theory and practice.

Michelangelo Barbara A. Somervill, 2005 Profiles the life of Italian artist and sculptor Michelangelo, well known for his marble statue of David and his painting of the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel.
