Motherprayer Barbara Mahany, 2017-03-28 Barbara Mahany writes Mothering was my crash course in love Love of the sort I call Divine Love in the way we yearn to be loved Without end Without question Without giving in to exhaustion Love with a big and boundless heart Love with eyes and ears and soul wide open Love even when it's not so easy In Motherprayer Mahany generously shares personal love letters on the mysteries and gifts of mothering interspersed with family recipes and gentle essays all offering beautiful lessons in how to love and how to love well In her bracingly honest style she captures the ephemeral moments of motherhood the hard the glorious the laughter and the tears and invites readers to pay attention cradle our loved ones in prayer and see the sacred lessons in loving These stirring meditations bring into sharp focus one essential question How do we love breathtakingly Edges & Fray Danielle Vogel, 2019-12-20 Poetry prose and photographs explore the edges of language Edges Fray is an embodied meditation that cultivates receptivity and deep listening to the ways we inhabit language and its ethereal resilience Combining close observation of birds nests and the writing process Danielle Vogel brings the reader into communion with language as a mode of presence The frayed edges of consciousness are carefully arranged to suggest how writing and the book can serve as a site of radical transformation Experimental and deeply grounded this work is lyrical and patient The text creates overlapping ecological fields wherein each field is a system always in a state of becoming Finding its strength in fragility Edges Fray is personal without feeling private experimental without feeling programmatic Its construction is intuitive and masterful its many threads interwoven and intrinsically linked This is a beautiful and inspiring book at the intersection of poetry somatics ecology and divination
