It brings together a collection of select research articles that were published over a period of nearly two decades (2003-2021) in the International Journal of Children's Spirituality (IJCS) to celebrate the journal's 25th anniversary. Featuring contributions by leading international scholars from U.K., U.S., Canada, Finland, Australia, Hong Kong, and China, this edited volume focuses on different and complementary perspectives on children's spirituality in diverse and changing contexts. Chapters cover topics such as the study of children's spirituality as a natural form of human awareness, a proposed pluricultural approach, the potential contributions of psychoanalytic tradition and cognitive psychology, possible influences of tradition's multidisciplinary and perceptions on understanding children's spiritual experiences, Christian perspectives on children's spirituality in relation to living and dying in Quebec, Canada, Finnish pre-adolescents' perceptions of religion and spirituality using technology, specifically tablets as a component for understanding children's spirituality and cyber spirituality. Drawn from a sermon that has electrified listeners, here is a concise, powerful meditation on the nature of creativity from Episcopal priest and radical theologian Matthew Fox. Creativity is Fox at his most dynamic. It is immensely practical and leaves the reader with a message to put into action in life. Fox tantalizingly suggests that the most prayerful, most spiritually powerful act a person can undertake is to create at his or her own level with a consciousness of the place from which that gift arises. Story, Formation, and Culture Benjamin D. Espinoza, 2018-10-15 Story Formation and Culture brings together a myriad of scholars, researchers, and ministry leaders into conversation about how we can effectively nurture the spirituality of children.
