Distinctions in the

Flesh Dieter Vandebroek, 2016-08-12 The past decades have witnessed a surge of sociological interest in the body From the focal point of aesthetic investment political regulation and moral anxiety to a means of redefining traditional conceptions of agency and identity the body has been cast in a wide variety of sociological roles However there is one topic that proves conspicuously absent from this burgeoning literature on the body namely its role in the everyday re production of class boundaries Distinctions in the Flesh aims to fill that void by showing that the way individuals perceive use and manage their bodies is fundamentally intertwined with their social position and trajectory Drawing on a wide array of survey data from food preferences to sporting practices and from weight concern to tastes in clothing this book shows how bodies not only function as key markers of class differences but also help to naturalize and legitimize such differences Along the way it scrutinizes popular notions like the obesity epidemic questions the role of the media in shaping the way people judge their bodies and sheds doubt on sociological narratives that cast the body as a malleable object that is increasingly open to individual control and reflexive management This book will be of interest to scholars of class lifestyle and identity but also to social epidemiologists health professionals and anyone interested in the way that social inequalities become quite literally inscribed in the body

The Routledge Companion to the Geography of International Business Gary Cook, Jennifer Johns, Frank McDonald, Jonathan Beaverstock, Naresh Pandit, 2018-05-08 The fields of Economic Geography and International Business share an interest in the same phenomena whilst each provides both a differing perspective and different research methods in attempting to understand those phenomena The Routledge Companion to the Geography of International Business explores the nature and scope of inter disciplinary work between Economic Geography and International Business in explaining the central issues in the international economy Contributions written by leading specialists in each field including some chapters written by inter disciplinary teams focus on the nature of multinational firms and their strategies where they choose to locate their activities how they create and manage international networks and the key relationships between multinationals and the places where they place their operations Topics covered include the internationalisation of service industries the influence of location on the competitiveness of firms and the economic dynamism of regions and where economic activity takes place and how knowledge goods and services flow between locations The book examines the areas for fruitful inter disciplinary work between International Business and Economic Geography and sets out a road map for future joint research and is an essential resource for students and practitioners of International Business and Economic Development

Roads Penny Harvey, Hannah Knox, 2015-11-06 Roads matter to people This claim is central to the work of Penny Harvey and Hannah Knox who in this book use the example of highway building in South America to explore what large public infrastructural projects can tell us about contemporary state formation social relations and emerging political economies Roads focuses on two main sites the interoceanic highway currently under construction between Brazil and Peru a major public private collaboration that is being realized within new internationally ratified regulatory standards and a recently completed one hundred kilometer stretch of highway between Iquitos the largest city in the Peruvian Amazon and a small town called Nauta one of the earliest colonial settlements in the Amazon The Iquitos Nauta highway is one of the most expensive roads per kilometer on the planet Combining ethnographic and historical research Harvey and Knox shed light on the work of engineers and scientists bureaucrats and construction company officials They describe how local populations anticipated each of the road projects even getting deeply involved in questions of exact routing as worries arose that the road would benefit some more than others Connectivity was a key recurring theme as people imagined the prosperity that will come by being connected to other parts of the country and with other parts of the world Sweeping in scope and conceptually ambitious Roads tells a story of global flows of money goods and people and of attempts to stabilize inherently unstable physical and social environments

Dyeing with the Earth Charlotte Linton, 2025-09-19 Charlotte Linton explores the intersection of small scale traditional craft production with contemporary sustainability practices in a textile dyeing workshop in southern Japan within the context of the global fashion industry
