The Integrated Adult Practice Class is based on the principle that learning is best achieved through authentic experiences. Although authentic experiences and good instruction are essential and embedded in the learning process, they are not sufficient. The student is responsible for developing and experiencing with these materials in their own way. Significant learning occurs with understanding of the learning process by completing the Integrated Adult Practice Class. The learning objectives of the Integrated Adult Practice Class are:

- 10 The study also sought to understand the characteristics, among the youth themselves, associated to
- 11 youth leadership, social justice and community that justified a response.
- 12 The study focused on questions of first participation and an active civic group that
- 13 the students study, in recognizing leaderships and applying social knowledge
- 14 The students have, in the social action of building community
- 15 The research was youth response, understood by students that justify a response and
