Made Up: A History of Identity and Gender Expression Through Makeup and Style Charli Butterfield, 2024-12-17

This book explores historical and modern uses of makeup for self expression with a focus on gender. The book begins by exploring the historical influences in the origins and development of makeup across genders providing a whistle stop tour of gendered adornment through time. The chapters that follow explore more specific topics that provide context for a range of influences on self expression: Sex gender and identity including introductory gender theory and terminology relevant to the topic; Restrictions and resistance faced by the queer community regarding expression with a historical look at pioneers of the movement; Gendered cosmetic advertisements through time; Subcultures and coded expression; Beauty and identity in the digital age; The impact of global ideals on the cosmetics market with a focus on South Korea exploring historical and modern influences and trends. The book can be explored in a sequential or non sequential order as each chapter provides a standalone approach to a topic and concludes with questions to encourage further contemplation and research. This book is written for anyone interested in the history of makeup as a vehicle for self expression and how gender comes into play: students and teachers of Theatrical makeup and Fashion courses; makeup artists; makeup enthusiasts; and those curious to discover what Ancient Egyptians and emos may have in common. Spoiler: it's not snakebites.
