New Treatise On The Uniqueness Of Consciousness World Thought In Translation:

Dao Companion to Contemporary Confucian Philosophy David Elstein, 2020-12-17 This edited volume presents a comprehensive examination of contemporary Confucian philosophy from its roots in the late 19th century to the present day. It provides a thorough introduction to the major philosophers and topics in contemporary Confucian philosophy. The individual chapters study the central figures in 20th century Confucian philosophy in China, Taiwan, and Hong Kong, as well as the important influences on recent Confucian philosophy. In addition, topical chapters focus on contemporary Confucian theory of knowledge, ethics, politics, aesthetics, and views of human nature. The volume brings together scholars from around the world to provide a sound overview of the philosophy of the period and illustrate the important current debates. Confucian philosophy has been undergoing a revival in China for more than three decades, and this book presents the most significant work of the past century and more. By giving a detailed account of the philosophical positions involved, explaining the terminology of contemporary Confucian philosophy, and situating the views in their historical context, this volume enables the reader to understand what is at stake and evaluate the arguments.

Why Traditional Chinese Philosophy Still Matters Ming Dong Gu, 2018-02-15 Traditional Chinese philosophy, if engaged at all, is often regarded as an object of antiquated curiosity and dismissed as unimportant in the current age of globalization. Written by a team of internationally renowned scholars, this book, however, challenges this judgement and offers an in-depth study of pre-modern Chinese philosophy from an interdisciplinary perspective. Exploring the relevance of traditional Chinese philosophy for the global age, it takes a comparative approach, analysing ancient Chinese philosophy in its relation to Western ideas and contemporary postmodernist theories. The conversation extends over a broad spectrum of philosophical areas and themes, ranging from metaphysics, hermeneutics, political theory, religion, and aesthetics to specific philosophical schools, including Confucianism, Daoism, and Buddhism. By engaging many time-honoured philosophical issues from a comparative perspective, this book bridges the gap between Eastern and Western thought and emphasises the need for a newly fortified global humanism and a deeper appreciation of different philosophical and religious values in an age gripped by large-scale crises. Arguing that traditional Chinese philosophy has immediate relevance to the many challenges of modern life, this book will be useful to students and scholars of Asian Philosophy and Asian Studies in general.

Concepts of Philosophy in Asia and the Islamic World Raji C. Steineck, Ralph Weber, Robert Gassmann, Elena Lange, 2018-05-07 The contributions to Concepts of Philosophy in Asia and the Islamic World reflect upon the problems implied in the received notions of philosophy in the respective scholarly literatures. They ask whether and for what reasons a text should be categorized as a philosophical text or excluded from the canon of philosophy, and what this means for the concept of philosophy. The focus on texts and textual corpora is central because it makes authors expose their claims and arguments in direct relation to specific sources and discourages generalized reflections on the characteristics of, for example, Japanese culture or the Indian mind. The volume demonstrates that close and historically informed readings are the sine qua non in discussing what philosophy is in Asia and the Islamic world just as much as with regard to Western literature Contributors are Yoko Arisaka Wolfgang Behr Thomas Fr hlich Lisa Indraccolo Paulus Kaufmann Iso Kern Ralf M ller Gregor Paul Lisa Raphals Fabian Sch fer Ori Sela Rafael Suter Christian Uhl Viatcheslav Vetrov Yvonne Schulz Zinda and Nicholas Zufferey Universal and Particular—Ideological Developments in the Contemporary Chinese Confucian Revival Movement (2000–2020) Wei Shi,2023-11-27 Wei Shi's well crafted study weaves together historical context ideological complexities and insightful case studies on Confucian metaphysics ethics and politics Engagingly written it seamlessly bridges the gap between universal and nationalist particular perspectives offering a rich tapestry of ideas and satisfying unity Shi describes the profound impact of Confucian revival on China's cultural identity She argues that Confucian ideas continue to shape China's trajectory in an ever changing world Specialists graduate students and enthusiasts will find this work an invaluable resource in understanding the multifaceted landscape of China's Confucian revival in the twenty first century Xiong Shili's Understanding of Reality and Function, 1920-1937 Yu Sang,2020-06-08 Xiong Shili 1885 1968 was one of the most important Chinese philosophers of the twentieth century and a founding figure of the modern New Confucian school of philosophy At the core of his metaphysics is one of the key conceptual polarities in traditional Chinese philosophy Reality ti and Function yong Xiong Shili's Understanding of Reality and Function 1920 1937 presents a detailed examination and analysis of the development of Xiong Shili's conception of Reality and Function between 1920 and 1937 While scholars have tended to focus on Xiong's mature ti yong philosophical system which was initially established in the early 1930s this study explains how that system was gradually formed providing a more comprehensive basis for understanding the development of Xiong's philosophical thought in later periods The Awakening of Faith and New Confucian Philosophy ,2021-10-25 This innovative volume demonstrates how and to what ends the writings of Xiong Shili Ma Yifu Tang Junyi and Mou Zongsan adopted and repurposed conceptual models derived from the Buddhist text Treatise on Awakening Mah y na Faith It shows which of the philosophical positions defended by these New Confucian philosophers were developed and sustained through engagement with the critical challenges advanced by scholars who attacked the Treatise It also examines the extent to which twentieth century New Confucians were aware of their intellectual debt to the Treatise and explains how they reconciled this awareness with their Confucian identity The Hidden "God" Peter Baekelmans,2022-05-27 Theology means discourse about god Christian theology is a reflection on the Christian faith in which God takes a central place Therefore the Christian theology of other religions seeks to understand if and how God as Christians call their experience of Him may be present in the thought devotion and ritual of those other religions Christian theology of Buddhism is then a Christian reflection on the Buddhist faith in god or gods Now Buddhist teaching contains many seeming contradictions as does Christian teaching Accepting these and looking for clues to understand how they came about and how they might be reconciled is not only an intellectual challenge but also a religious

The Idealism-Realism Debate Among Edmund Husserl's Early Followers and Critics Rodney K. B. Parker,2021-08-26 This volume aims to contextualize the development and reception of Husserl's transcendental phenomenological idealism by placing him in dialogue with his most important interlocutors his mentors peers and students Husserl's turn to idealism and the ensuing reaction to Ideas I resulted in a schism between the early members of the phenomenological movement The division between the realist and the transcendental phenomenologists is often portrayed as a sharp one with the realists naively and dogmatically rejecting all of Husserl's written work after the Logical Investigations However this understanding of the trajectory of the phenomenological movement ignores the extensive and intricate contours of the idealism realism debate In addition to helping us better interpret Husserl's attempts to defend his idealism reconsidering the idealism realism debate elucidates the relationship and differences between Husserl's phenomenology and the broader landscape of early 20th century German philosophy particularly the Munich phenomenologists and the Neo Kantians The contributions to this volume reconsider many of the early interpretations and critiques of Husserl inviting readers to assess the merits of the arguments put forward by his critics while also shedding new light on their so called misunderstandings of his idealism This text should be of interest to researchers working in the history of phenomenology and Husserlian studies
