New Visions For The Americas Religious Engagement And Social Transformation:

Postmodernity Paul Lakeland, 2010 More than a guidebook to the postmodernity debate Paul Lakeland's lively and novel volume clarifies the critical impulses behind the cultural intellectual and scientific expressions of postmodern thought He identifies the issues it presents for religion and for Christian theology Concentrating on God Church and Christ Lakeland outlines the church's mission to the postmodern world including a constructive theological apologetics New Visions for the Americas David B. Batstone, 1993 At the approach of a new millennium profound economic social and geopolitical changes have transformed the global map and shaken the contours of liberation thinking North and South Although the overarching hemispheric issue remains justice it is more likely now to erupt in contexts of environment basic economic rights systems of adjudication the survival of indigenous peoples and the liberation of women worldwide To address this new context of liberation especially around structural issues of race class and gender this volume presents the views of fourteen of today's most incisive religious leaders and thinkers male and female North and South black and white theologians and activists La Cosecha Eduardo C. Fernández, 2000 marks a new stage in the development of U S Hispanic Latino theology

The Spirit over the Earth Green et al, 2016 Though the global center of Christianity has been shifting south and east over the past few decades very few theological resources have dealt with the seismic changes afoot The Majority World Theology series seeks to remedy that lack by gathering well regarded Christian thinkers from around the world to discuss the significance of Christian teaching in their respective contexts The contributors to this volume reflect deeply on the role of the Holy Spirit in both the church and the world in dialogue with their respective contexts and cultures Taking African Asian and Latin American cultural contexts into account gives rise to fresh questions and insights regarding the Spirit's work as witnessed in the world and demonstrates how the theological heritage of the West is not adequate alone to address the theological necessities of communities worldwide Injustice and the Care of Souls, Second Edition Sheryl A.

Conceiving Peace and Violence Philip L. Tite, 2004 In this book Philip Tite explores the role of biblical texts in the promotion of peace and violence He begins by exploring the function of religious texts as ideological elements recognizing that the New Testament affects the social construction of realities or cultures within which people read and apply authoritative writings to ethical discussions Arguing that an engaged reading of these texts is central within moral discourse Dr Tite explores such issues as feminist challenges to biblical ethics Jewish Christian relations and gay and lesbian ethical disputes in Christianity Beyond Control Shirley Paré, Vern Neufeld Redekop, 2010-02-05 This book is available as open access through the Bloomsbury Open Access programme and is available on www.bloomsburycollections.com What is refreshing about Beyond Control is the vision for the kind of society in which protestors and police recognize their mutual humanity as well as how both are needed for a democratic society to function well From the Foreword by Archbishop Desmond Tutu How can large protest crowds be better and more respectfully managed by police This topical book applies the principles of community based conflict resolution to the policing of large crowds suggesting a completely new approach that moves away from the discourse of rabble rousing mobs towards negotiated management and a paradigm of mutual respect for protesters as principled dissenters and for police as non repressive agents of public order Both are needed the authors argue in order for democracy to flourish Changing Conversations Sheila Davaney,Dwight N.

Hopkins,2014-04-04 Changing Conversations defines the crucial role of cultural studies in the articulation and practice of religious studies disciplines A decisive turn in the development of religious reflection this volume seeks to redefine disciplinary self understanding and to promote religion as an integral component of cultural studies Emphasizing a commitment to the marginalized perspectives i e those communities lacking the resources to determine a new vision of society and so struggle to carve out their own space which more clearly embodies their own idiom Changing Conversations presents insightful authoritative contributions which show how religion is both embedded in and expressive of concrete social relationships and local realities Featuring detailed cultural and political analyses flavored with historical and feminist theory Changing Conversations will inform every reader seeking to explore theology as a vital component of cultural studies

Plenty Good Room Marcia Y. Riggs,2008-12-01 I offer this book as an outgrowth of my faith journey in the African American Church and as an ethicist who is deeply concerned about the distorted relationship between the professed theological and ethical beliefs and moral practices with respect to gender in that church I am concerned with the way that we interpret our beliefs about justice in particular in order to match our sexual gender oppressive practices while maintaining that we received such interpretation by way of the Bible and or church tradition Marcia Y Riggs In Plenty Good Room Women Versus Male Power in the Black Church Riggs discusses African American church life as a case study for ethical reflection about sexual ethics and clergy ethics the prevailing silence about sexuality in the black church as well as the fact that sexuality is generally a taboo in the Christian tradition The author feels that sexism has been perpetrated by misuse of the Scriptures and by circumscribing the role of women and seeks to transform current discourse about sexual behavior and clergy misconduct from a concentration on formulating policy to re train Riggs offers both descriptive analysis and normative proposals for transforming the moral life of the African American church the way of being and doing characteristic of the African American church in the areas of Sexual gender relations Clergy ethics Ministerial ethics Ecclesial practices Riggs begins each chapter with a scenario and ends each chapter with dialogue questions for further group reflection Applied Spirituality and Sustainable Development Policy Naresh Singh,Divya
