The WPA Oklahoma Slave Narratives T. Lindsay Baker, Julie Philips Baker, 1996 I never talk to nobody bout this was the response of one aged African American when asked by a Works Project Administration field worker to share memories of his life in slavery and after emancipation He and other ex slaves were uncomfortable with the memories of a time when black and white lives were interwoven through human bondage Yet the WPA field workers overcame the old people's reticence and American West scholars T Lindsay Baker and Julie P Baker have collected all the known WPA Oklahoma slave narratives in this volume for the first time including fourteen never published before Their careful editorial notes detail what is known about the interviewers and the process of preparing the narratives The interviews were made in the late 1930s in Oklahoma Although many African Americans had relocated there after emancipation in 1865 some interviewees had been slaves of Cherokees Chickasaws Choctaws or Creeks in the Indian Territory Their narratives constitute important primary sources on the foodways agricultural practices and home life of Oklahoma Indians This definitive indexed edition will be an important resource for Oklahoma and Southwest historians as well as those interested in the history of African Americans slavery and Oklahoma's Five Tribes For those studying the generation of African American men and women who over a century ago initiated black life in Oklahoma the slave narratives are a major source of collective memory THE VOICES FROM THE MARGINS: Authentic Recorded Life Stories by Former Slaves from 17 American States Work Projects

Recorded Life Stories by Former Slaves Work Projects Administration, 2023-12-23 In The Voices From The Margins Authentic Recorded Life Stories by Former Slaves the Work Projects Administration presents an invaluable oral history that captures the raw and poignant narratives of formerly enslaved individuals in the United States This collection embodies a unique literary style marked by an authentic and unfiltered voice inviting readers into the lived experiences of those who navigated the deep traumas of slavery and the complexities of freedom Contextually situated within the New Deal era this work serves as a vital historical document reflecting both the social and political climate of the time while also spotlighting the resilience of human spirit through personal testimonies The Work Projects Administration established to provide jobs during the Great Depression commissioned this profound project to document American life particularly the experiences of marginalized communities This undertaking was motivated by a desire to preserve the voices of individuals who had been systematically silenced and forgotten within historical narratives The meticulous effort to record their stories generated a wealth of material that highlights not just the horrors of their past but their hopes and aspirations in the face of adversity Voices From The Margins is highly recommended for readers interested in history sociology and African American literature Engaging with this book means immersing oneself in the once silenced voices that illuminate the dark corners of America's past while enriching our understanding of resilience and identity This collection not only contributes to historical discourse but also invites reflection on broader themes of liberation and humanity

The Horrors of Slavery in America Work Projects Administration, 2022-11-13 In The Horrors of Slavery in America the Work Projects Administration presents a poignant and unflinching documentation of the brutal realities faced by enslaved individuals in the antebellum United States This comprehensive compilation encompasses firsthand narratives historical accounts and vivid testimonials skillfully employing a blend of oral histories and archival research to paint a harrowing picture of the inhumanity of slavery The literary style is grounded in realism utilizing rich evocative language that immerses readers in the lived experiences of those who endured servitude and oppression positioned within the broader socio political context of 20th century America The Work Projects Administration WPA established during the New Deal aimed to provide jobs and stimulate the economy through the arts and humanities Through this project American writers and historians compelled by the ethical urgency of documenting marginalized voices sought to confront the legacy of slavery and its lingering impact on American society Their commitment to preserving these stories reflects a crucial moment in American history and literature where rediscovered histories were brought to the fore This book is essential for readers interested in American history social justice and the complex narratives surrounding slavery It serves as both an educational resource and a powerful statement against the atrocities of the past encouraging a deep reflection on the enduring scars of slavery in contemporary society

Prison and Slavery - A Surprising Comparison John Dewar Gleissner, 2010-11-17 This historically accurate and thoroughly researched book compares the modern American prison system to antebellum slavery The surprising comparison proves that antebellum slavery was not as bad as many believe while modern mass incarceration is an unrealized social and financial disaster of mammoth proportions

Arkansas Slave Narratives Federal Writers Project, 1938-01-01 From 1936 to 1938 the Works Projects Administration WPA commissioned writers to collect the life histories of former slaves This work was compiled under the Franklin Roosevelt administration during the New Deal and economic relief and recovery program Each entry represents an oral history of a former slave or a descendant of a former slave and his or her personal account of life during slavery and emancipation These interviews were published as type written records that were difficult to read This new edition has been enlarged and enhanced for greater legibility No library collection in Arkansas would be complete without a copy of Arkansas Slave Narratives
