

The background of the cover is a photograph of a vast, paved plaza, likely the Tiananmen Square in Beijing. The perspective is from a low angle, looking down the length of the square, with the lines of the paving stones converging towards the horizon. In the far distance, two figures are visible on the plaza, one with arms outstretched. The sky is a pale, overcast blue.

Eastern European Youth Cultures in a Global Context Matthias Schwartz, Heike Winkel, 2016-04-29 The demise of state Socialisms caused radical social cultural and economic changes in Eastern Europe Since then young people have been confronted with fundamental disruptions and transformations to their daily environment while an unsettling globalized world substantially reshapes local belongings and conventional values In times of multiple instabilities and uncertainties this volume argues young people prefer to try to adjust to given circumstances than to adopt the behaviour of potential rebellious adolescent role models dissident counter cultures or artistic breakings of taboo Eastern European Youth Cultures in a Global Context takes this situation as a starting point for an examination of generational change cultural belongings political activism and everyday practices of young people in different Eastern European countries from an interdisciplinary perspective It argues that the conditions of global change not only call for a differentiated evaluation of youth cultures but also for a revision of our understanding of youth itself in Eastern Europe and beyond Handbook of Human Resource Management in the Middle East Pawan S. Budhwar, Kamel Mellahi, 2016-11-25 This Handbook provides evidence based information to the reader regarding the dynamics of HRM in this important region The book is developed into three parts contextual and functional issues such as societal and cultural perspectives performance management and talent management country specific HRM covering the GCC Levant and North African nations and emerging themes such as HR issues related to domestic workers labour localisation expatriate management CSR Wasta foreign and public sector firms Covered under 23 chapters the systematic analysis highlights the main forces determining HRM systems in the region Global Trends in Human Resource Management E. Parry, E. Stavrou, M. Lazarova, 2013-02-05 Provides an understanding of how HRM policies and practices differ across countries and how the development of management practice may be affected by different institutional and cultural contexts Containing contributions from a range of well respected HRM scholars across the world this collection is based upon data from a unique research project Globalizing Eastern Europe Gilad Ben-Nun, Katja Castryck-Naumann, Lena Dallywater, 2025-08-21 For far too long views of Eastern Europe as a negligible and peripheral region have shaped popular perceptions of this part of the world Presenting new research Globalizing Eastern Europe Politics Culture and Economics from the 18th to the 21st Century offers refreshing arguments to counter such misconceptions Global politics and international law have been profoundly shaped by the experiences and expertise that emanated from this region Migration to and from Eastern Europe has fostered deep ties with neighbouring and distant societies as have this area's literature and music The importance of its agricultural development has reverberated in the global economy This volume recasts Eastern Europe as a global region It shows how people from this part of the world shaped the global and how in turn the global shaped them Authors from a range of disciplines chart century long traditions of entanglements and contemporary interactions In doing so this book further enriches the perennial debates regarding this region's spatial boundaries

Roma Minority Youth Across Cultural Contexts Radosveta Dimitrova, David L. Sam, Laura Ferrer-Wreder, 2021 Roma ethnic minority also called the Romani people and sometimes as gypsies usually in derogatory way have one of the most dramatic histories in Europe and worldwide The Indian origin of Roma as advocated by linguists since the 18th century based on similarities between the Romany language referred also as Romanes or Romani and the Sanskrit Achim 2004 is now widely accepted Although the precise region of the Indian sub continent which Roma originated and migrated from to Europe remains elusive genetic linguistic historical and anthropological findings suggest that their migration started from Central India to the Northern India then transiting Persia and Armenia and travelled towards the Byzantine Empire and Asia Minor and finally to Greece Kenrick 2007 The precise time when the journey started is also uncertain Historical records indicate that Roma first came to work in Persia sometime between 224-241 and were either brought or deported to the Arab Empire at the start of 661 reach Constantinople in 1050 and then were in Greece in 1290 They then continued to Eastern Europe and Balkans arriving in Serbia in 1348 Croatia in 1362 Bulgaria in 1378 Romania in 1385 followed by Central and Western Europe arriving in Germany in 1407 France and Switzerland in 1418 Belgium in 1419 Holland in 1420 Italy in 1422 Spain in 1425 Hungary in 1489 and England in 1513 see Kenrick 2007 for a comprehensive chronology of Roma history

Occultism in a Global Perspective Henrik Bogdan, Gordan Djurdjevic, 2014-09-11 The study of the ideas and practices associated with occultism is a rapidly growing branch of contemporary scholarship However most research has focused on English and French speaking areas and has not addressed the wider spread and significance of occultism Occultism in a Global Perspective presents a broad international overview Essays range across the German magical order of the Fraternitas Saturni esoteric Satanism in Denmark sexual magic in Colombia and the reception of occultism in modern Turkey India and the former Yugoslavia As any other form of cultural practice the occult is not isolated from its social discursive religious and political environment By studying occultism in its global context the book offers insights into the reciprocal relationships that colour and shape regional occultism

Human Rights in Global Perspective Richard Wilson, Jon P. Mitchell, Richard A. Wilson, 2003-09-02 The aim of this volume is to understand from an anthropological perspective the consequences of the rise of rights discussions and institutions in both local and global politics

Modernism in a Global Context Peter Kalliney, 2015-12-17 Exploring the transnational dimension of literary modernism and its increasing centrality to our understanding of 20th century literary culture Modernism in a Global Context surveys the key issues and debates central to the global turn in contemporary Modernist Studies Topics covered include Transnational exchanges between Western and non Western literary cultures Imperialism and the Modernism Cosmopolitanism and postcolonial literatures Global literary institutions from the Little Magazine to the Nobel Prize Mass media photography cinema and radio broadcasting in the modernist age Exploring the work of writers such as T S Eliot Virginia Woolf Jean Rhys Wole Soyinka Salman Rushdie and critics such as Edward Said Pascale Casanova Paul Gilroy and

Gayatri Spivak amongst many others the book also includes a comprehensive annotated guide to further reading and online resources Consumption and Advertising in Eastern Europe and Russia in the Twentieth Century Magdalena

Eriksroed-Burger, Heidi Hein-Kircher, Julia Malitska, 2023-02-27 This book explores Eastern European consumer cultures in the twentieth century taking a comparative perspective and conceptualizing the peculiarities of consumption in the region Contributions cover lifestyles and marketing strategies in imperial contexts in the late nineteenth and early twentieth centuries urban consumer cultures in the Interwar Period and consumer and advertising cultures in the Soviet Union and its satellite republics It traces the development of marketing throughout the century and the changes in society brought about by democratization and the Americanization of consumption Taken together the essays gathered here make a valuable contribution to our understanding of consumption and advertising in the region The Media Systems in Europe

Stylianos Papathanassopoulos, Andrea Miconi, 2023-08-17 This open access book traces the evolution of the European media landscape in the last 30 years from 1990 to 2020 It is based on the theoretical classical hypotheses of regional media systems provided by Hallin and Mancini and at the same time puts them to test The book further defines the proportions between geocultural patterns national regional European and global to outline evolutionary trends in media landscapes It analyzes to which degree European media have become more European in the historical course of administrative unification and breaks the results down into concrete indexes and indicators The book discusses the media systems of the member states of the European Union through a regional perspective identifying similarities differences as well as their convergence in the digital age It sheds light on the evolution of media systems in Europe introduces existing relevant theoretical perspectives and offers an overview of the new developments in European media The book will appeal to students researchers and scholars of political science communication media cultural and policy studies as well as practitioners and professionals interested in a better understanding of the European media landscape s evolution Global Media and National Policies Terry Flew, Petros

Iosifidis, Jeanette Steemers, 2016-04-08 Conventional wisdom views globalization as a process that heralds the diminishing role or even death of the state and the rise of transnational media and transnational consumption Global Media and National Policies questions those assumptions and shows not only that the nation state never left but that it is still a force to be reckoned with With contributions that look at global developments and developments in specific parts of the world it demonstrates how nation states have adapted to globalization and how they still retain key policy instruments to achieve many of their policy objectives This book argues that the phenomenon of media globalization has been overstated and that national governments remain key players in shaping the media environment with media corporations responding to the legal and policy frameworks they deal with at a national level Europeans and the Media Andrea Miconi, 2024-08-13 This book investigates the relationship between the process of Europeanization the expected rise of a common culture and the role played by the media in the different regions Drawing on a comparative model the analysis is structured around frameworks related to the action of the media in shaping national identities to the world system theory based on the hierarchization of geographical spaces and to the regional patterns identified in scientific literature The analysis draws on data collected from numerous markets and across a variety of media formats to detect the geographical pattern that results from the diffusion of different technologies and cultural contents the national the regional the European and the global This nuanced and insightful volume will interest students and scholars in the field of communication studies European studies and comparative media studies The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial CC BY NC 4.0 license

Alluring Monsters Rosalind Galt, 2021-11-16 The pontianak a terrifying female vampire ghost is a powerful figure in Malay cultures as loved and feared in Southeast Asia as Dracula is in the West In animist tradition she is a woman who has died in childbirth and her vengeful return upsets gender norms and social hierarchies The pontianak first appeared on screen in late colonial Singapore in a series of popular films that combine indigenous animism and transnational production with the cultural and political force of the horror genre In Alluring Monsters Rosalind Galt explores how and why the pontianak found new life in postcolonial Southeast Asian film and society She argues that the figure speaks to a series of intersecting anxieties about femininity and modernity globalization and indigeneity racial and national identities the relationship of Islam to animism and heritage and environmental destruction The pontianak offers abundant feminist potential but her disruptive gender politics also unsettle queer and feminist film theories by putting them in dialogue with Malay epistemologies Reading the pontianak as a precolonial figure of disturbance within postcolonial cultures Galt reveals the importance of cinema to histories and theories of decolonization From the horror films made by Cathay Keris and Shaw Studios in the 1950s and 1960s to contemporary film television art and fiction in Malaysia and Singapore the pontianak in all her media forms sheds light on how postcolonial identities are both developed and contested In tracing the entanglements of Malay feminist animisms with postcolonial visual cultures Alluring Monsters reveals how a pontianak theory can reshape understandings of anticolonial aesthetics and world cinema Gun Crime in Global Contexts Peter Squires, 2014-06-27 Every year around three quarters of a million people die directly or indirectly as a result of gun violence with most deaths occurring in the poorest yet also most highly weaponized parts of the world Firearm proliferation 875 million global firearms is a direct contributor to both regional conflicts and to crime This book attempts to understand the inter related dynamics of supply and demand which are weaponizing the world Now over ten years after Peter Squires's Gun Culture or Gun Control the issues pertaining to gun violence and gun control have developed dramatically With Gun Crime in Global Contexts Peter Squires offers a cutting edge account of contemporary developments in the politics of gun crime and the social and theoretical issues that surround the problem This book contains an innovative political analysis of neo liberal globalization and weapon proliferation an overview of recent gun control debates and gang strategies in the UK an updated analysis of US gun politics self defence race and the culture war a critical analysis of US school and rampage shootings how they have impacted the gun debate and how different societies have responded to mass shootings an examination of the UN's development of an Arms Trade Treaty 2001 13 a discussion of weapon trafficking discussions about youth gangs around the world including those in Brazil Kenya West Africa Mexico and South Africa With its interdisciplinary perspective and global reach this book will be important reading for academics and students interested in youth and gang crime violent crime and comparative criminal justice as well as peace and security studies and international relations New German Cinema and Its Global Contexts Marco Abel, Jaimey Fisher, 2025-01-14 Contributors explore these films transnational circuits of production distribution and exhibition as well as how the films were made and received thereby inviting us to reexamine the roots of what New German Cinema was and imagine what it might yet become

China's Peaceful Rise in a Global Context Jinghao Zhou, 2010-04-02 China's rise has become inevitable but there is no agreement about whether China will rise peacefully or pose a threat to the United States The author asserts that both theories of China threat and peaceful rise failed to address China's central domestic problem Thus both theories are not convincing This book attempts to develop a third view of China's rise from a domestic perspective and contends that China's potential threat to the existing global order is not derived from her rapid economic growth and military expansion but from her potential domestic chaos A strong democratic China will contribute to the global peace but the collapse of China will gravely threaten Western societies The current Chinese political system directly contributes to this social instability and could possibly cause China's social crash China's democratization is the key to ensure China's peaceful rise in a global context However the Party is still in power and any attempt to dissolve the one party system in present day China has poor prospects China must take a two step gradual reform approach to complete the transition from an authoritarian regime to a democratic one In the two step theory the first phase for promoting China's democratization includes exercising freedom of media increasing the consciousness of citizen participation and enacting religious rights Through all these democratic exercises China will gradually be able to achieve a fully democratic society This two step theory is crucial for the United States if it is to enact effective foreign policy toward China and for China to develop a democratic harmonious society

Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom Raluca Goleşteanu-Jacobs,2023-12-01 This comparative attempt intended for postgraduates and scholars of Eastern Central Europe investigates the political economic and cultural landscape of Habsburg Galicia and the Romanian Kingdom in the second half of the 19th century Often in historiography and in the public sphere alike the two cases under study have been separately regarded as contexts that provided atypical answers to modernity and parts of a region that has been regarded as atypical in itself Recently efforts have been made to integrate each of the cases in a post imperial paradigm identifying the complex interactions between their socio political modernisation and historical memory This book continues this trend by investigating for the first time the two cases together as parts of a space of alterity as labs of shifting ideologies and labels The public figures and the institutions depicted in the book are physically located in Central and in Eastern Europe but by sometimes competing experiences they are illustrative for several identities and historical realms local regional and continental Secondly the current work addresses dilemmas related to Nationalism and nation building for the sake of separating those discourses which reflected on civic nationalism from those which directed the public mind to the values of ethnic nationalism

Laws and Societies in Global Contexts Eve Darian-Smith,2013-01-31 This text promotes a more global sociolegal perspective that engages with multiple laws and societies and diverse sociolegal systems based on very different historical and cultural traditions interacting on multiple local national and global levels The approach to global legal pluralism seeks to provide a framework for envisioning new global governance regimes that move beyond state based solutions to deal with trenchant transnational challenges

Queer Sites in Global Contexts Regner Ramos,Sharif Mowlabocus,2020-12-29 Queer Sites in Global Contexts showcases a variety of cross cultural perspectives that foreground the physical and online experiences of LGBTQ people living in the Caribbean South and North America the Middle East Europe and Asia The individual chapters a collection of research based texts by scholars around the world provide twelve compelling case studies queer sites that include buildings digital networks natural landscapes urban spaces and non normative bodies By prioritizing divergent histories and practices of queer life in geographies that are often othered by dominant queer studies in the West female sex workers people of color indigenous populations Latinx communities trans identities migrants the book constructs thoroughly situated nuanced discussions on queerness through a variety of research methods The book presents tangible examples of empirical research and practice based work in the fields of queer and gender studies geography architectural and urban theory and media and digital culture Responding to the critical absence surrounding experiences of non White queer folk in Western academia Queer Sites in Global Contexts acts as a timely resource for scholars activists and thinkers interested in queer placemaking practices both
