NGOs in China and Europe Yuwen Li, 2016-05-06 This volume presents a comparison of the experiences of NGOs in China and Europe The chapters on China contain the most comprehensive and up to date analysis of various types of NGOs currently active in the country The contributions on foreign NGOs in China non governmental think tanks public interest legal organizations labour related NGOs and charity organizations are the first in English to discuss successful experiences as well as the difficulties they face in the post Mao era The European studies draw examples from countries where the experiences of NGOs are at various stages of development The section on NGOs in Central and Eastern Europe examines the rapid expansion of civil society and their pivotal role in promoting political change and building democracy in a transitional society as well as the challenges they confront in advancing a strong civil society Those chapters on NGOs experiences in Western European countries especially in the Netherlands and the UK provide insightful information and examination of the most contentious issues concerning NGOs accountability governance and relationship with the government NGOs in China's Foreign Policy Anja Ketels, 2023-07-31 In recent years China has not only expanded its economic presence worldwide but has also actively pursued initiatives to enhance its global leadership promote international cooperation and provide humanitarian aid Concurrently Chinese NGOs have played an increasingly active role in China s international diplomacy initiating projects overseas and establishing offices in Belt and Road Initiative countries This book delves into this trend by examining China s global strategy the role of NGOs and exploring the perspectives of these organizations themselves on their functions and roles in international politics It presents a typology of NGOs within China s foreign policy summarizing the diverse factors that influence their multifaceted involvement The book reveals the divergence between Chinese and Western understandings of global governance and highlights the significance of the international engagement of Chinese NGOs as a new and noteworthy phenomenon in the fields of international relations and global governance Government-NGO Relationships in Africa, Asia, Europe and MENA Raffaele Marchetti, 2018-04-27 This volume brings together some of the most recent scholarship on government and civil society It examines the axis of the relationship between national governments and civil society organisations NGOs by highlighting commonalities as well as differences among four key regions in the world Using the stability vs instability framework the book explores a range of pertinent issues including human rights development foreign policy state building regime change governance frameworks wars and civil liberties It studies diverse situations from those entailing comprehensive cooperation to those involving politically contentious and revolutionary activities With case studies from Africa Asia Europe and the Middle East and North Africa MENA this volume will be useful to scholars and researchers of political science global politics international relations sociology development studies global governance and public policy as well as to those in the development sector and NGOs European Climate Diplomacy in the USA and China Katrin Buchmann, 2022-08-22 Buchmann analyses the work of UK German Danish and Swedish embassies in the USA and China on climate change in the late 2000s and early 2010s She relates which coalitions and narratives embassies sought to develop to convince China and the United States that a more progressive climate policy was possible to achieve gains supporting an agreement under the UNFCCC This book shows that a key interpretation of climate diplomacy was selling trade Europe selling technology solutions to solve climate change In this narrative Europe has already done what needs to be done and outsourcing of production to China e g is ignored In the USA embassies entered coalitions with states faith groups and the military arguing that a more progressive climate policy was mandated by either God or security concerns State politicians including Democrats often actually didn't implement any climate policies Any gains were reversed through climate denial lobbying funded by corporations Embassies did not address this China and EU Jing Men, Annika Linck, 2017-05-12 Reform and governance are of vital interest to both the People's Republic of China and the European Union EU China is facing demographic and environmental challenges and has been experiencing a rapid economic transition The social tensions arising from these challenges call for a governance system that will allow the Chinese leadership to alleviate social tensions without putting at risk their leadership A society which is becoming more diverse and facing problems of a global scale that also cause turmoil at the grass roots may be difficult to govern top down Notwithstanding the Communist Party of China's CPC grip on Chinese society there may be ways to integrate public opinion and civil society organisations in governmental decision making through reforms that do not challenge the current leadership The EU on the other hand faces the same global challenges with a very different and complex governance system EU foreign and security policy thus including EU policy towards China are governed by the EU's foreign policy principles which contain among others the promotion of democracy the rule of law and the universality and indivisibility of human rights and fundamental freedoms How successful can the EU be in advancing these principles when engaging with China while respecting the Chinese political system How can the EU and China find common grounds in their governance systems so as to enhance their strategic partnership in order to tackle global issues that need a coordinated approach NGO Governance and Management in China Reza Hasmath, Jennifer Y. J. Hsu, 2015-07-16 As China becomes increasingly integrated into the global system there will be continuing pressure to acknowledge and engage with non governmental organizations NGOs Suffice to say without a clear understanding of the state's interaction with NGOs and vice versa any political economic and social analysis of China will be incomplete This book provides an urgent insight into contemporary state NGO relations It brings together the most recent research covering three broad themes namely the conceptualizations and subsequent functions of NGOs state NGO engagement and NGOs as a mediator between state and society in contemporary China The book provides a future glimpse into the challenges of state NGO interactions in China's rapidly developing regions which will aid NGOs strategic planning in both the short and long term In addition it allows a measure of predictability in our assessment of Chinese NGOs behaviour notably when they eventually move their areas of operation from the domestic sphere to an international one The salient themes concepts theories and practice discussed in this book will be of acute interest to students scholars and practitioners in development studies public administration and Chinese and Asian politics Reza Hasmath is a Lecturer in Chinese Politics at the University of Oxford UK and an Associate Professor in Political Science at the University of Alberta Canada His research looks at state society relationships the labour market experiences of ethnic minorities and development theories and practices Jennifer Y J Hsu is an Assistant Professor in Political Science at the University of Alberta Canada Her recent publications include a co authored book HIV AIDS in China The Economic and Social Determinants Routledge 2011 and a co edited book The Chinese Corporatist State Adaption Survival and Resistance Routledge 2012

Europe, China, and the Limits of Normative Power Zsuzsa Anna Ferenczy, 2019 Europe China and the Limits of Normative Power is a groundbreaking book offering insights into European influence regarding China s development during a period when Europe confronts its most serious political social and economic crises of the post war period Considering Europe s identity and its future international relevance this book examines the extent to which Europe s multi layered governance structure the normative divergence overshadowing EU China relations and Europe s crises continue to shape and often limit Europe s capacity to inspire China s development

Freedom of Association in China and Europe Yuwen Li, 2005-11-01 Understanding and exercising the right to freedom of association in a modern sense is a relatively new phenomenon in China The reform of old social organizations and the emergence of new privately initiated non profit organizations only began to occur in the 1980s and such organizations continued to expand throughout the 1990s Within a short period these new organizations have become a vibrant force in Chinese society This unique volume the first book in English to offer systematic and critical research in this field is the outcome of a three year research project on the Legal Aspects of Social Organisations in China The main aim of the project was to encourage Chinese researchers to deepen their knowledge and understanding of the current status of social organizations in China and to allow them to explore possible ways of creating a friendly legal environment conducive to the exercise of the right to freedom of association The book contains some of the best results of the Chinese researchers work and papers presented by European experts at two international seminars organized jointly by the Institute of Law of Chinese Academy of Social Sciences and Law Faculty of Utrecht University The Netherlands The contributions of the European experts explore different systems of regulation that have developed and which are accommodated within the legal framework and traditions of each particular country The aim of the volume is to stimulate international understanding of the progress made by China and the dilemmas it still faces with respect to its emerging new civil society organizations

China-eu: Green Cooperation Etienne Reuter, Jing Men, 2014-08-08 This book offers a selection of views from Chinese and European experts and scholars on the most pressing environmental challenges air quality global warming climate change energy security urbanisation faced by Europe and China in 2014 The contributors also discuss possibilities of technical cooperation between the two sides on remedies for the domestic scene as well as contributions to international negotiations These problems top the agenda of the new leadership in China and also feature prominently on the EU China agenda for EU s efforts to mitigate climate change Europe and China Roland Vogt,2012-03-01 This edited volume analyzes the changing nature of the relationship between China and Europe This relationship has been subject to significant shifts and transformations not least because of the enormity of China s social and economic development since1978 and the political consequences this has brought about in international politics The global financial crisis of 2008 09 and the subsequent sovereign debt emergency in Europe have also altered the nature of the interactions between the two regions China has become a more assertive confident and active player on the global stage Its economic development is now a major pillar of the global economy and its growth has been conducive for a fragile economic recovery to take place in Europe and beyond China's Rise - Threat Or Opportunity? Herbert S. Yee,2010-10-15 This book presents a comprehensive overview of how China s rise is perceived in a wide range of countries and regions these include China s neighbours other world powers the parts of China not part of mainland China Taiwan Hong Kong and Macau and regions of the world where China is having an unexpected impact such as the Middle East China, the EU and International Investment Law Yuwen Li,Tong Qi,Cheng Bian,2019-11-11 This book provides an original and critical analysis of the most contentious subjects being negotiated in the China EU Comprehensive Agreement on Investment CAI It focuses on the pathway of reforming investor state dispute settlement ISDS from both Chinese and European perspectives in the context of the China EU CAI and beyond The book is divided into three parts Part I examines key and controversial issues of the China EU CAI negotiations including market access sustainable development and human rights as well as comparing distinct features between the China EU CAI and the China US BIT Part II concentrates on the institutional reform of investor state arbitration with an extensive analysis of the EU s approach to replacing the private nature of investment arbitration with the public nature of an investment court Part III addresses the core substantive and procedural issues concerning ISDS such as the role of domestic courts in investment dispute settlement the status of state owned enterprises SOEs as investors transparency and the protection of victims in investment dispute resolution This book will be of interest to scholars and practitioners in the field of international investment and trade law particularly investment dispute settlement

Non-Governmental Organizations in Contemporary China Qiusha Ma,2005-11-16 Based on documentary materials including interviews with key players in China this book charts the development of non governmental and non profit organizations in China from the late 1970s to the present day It recounts how in the aftermath of the 1978 reforms that created a market economy and diversified interests and social life new institutions and organizations outside of the state system increased dramatically in number size and influence These organizations which barely existed before the reforms began in the late 1970s carry out many social economic and cultural tasks neglected by the government Qiusha Ma examines two key questions crucial to understanding the development of NGOs in China First is it possible under China s one party state for non governmental organizations to thrive and play important economic social and political functions And secondly are NGOs facilitating the formation of a civil society in China

The EU's Human Rights Dialogue with China Katrin Kinzelbach,2014-10-03 The European Union uses a confidential institutionalized Dialogue to raise human rights concerns with China but little is publicly known about its set up its substance its development over time and its impact This book provides the first detailed reconstruction and assessment of the EU s responses to human rights violations in China from 1995 to the present day Using classified documents in the EU s historical archives and interviews with diplomats officials and human rights experts in Europe China and the United States Kinzelbach lifts the veil of secrecy on the EU China Human Rights Dialogue and provides a rare insight into how the European Union and China conduct quiet diplomacy on human rights The book reconstructs the evolution of the Dialogue and the EU s internal debate on the merits of quiet diplomacy and draws comparisons with the approach of other actors notably that of the United States In doing so the EU s relative impact is concluded to be tenuous if not counter productive The book also chronicles and analyzes numerous human rights concerns that were raised in the period ranging from structural issues to individual cases This ground breaking in depth case study will be of interest to students and scholars of international politics human rights international law EU politics especially the EU s Common Foreign and Security Policy and Chinese politics

Germany and China Andreas Fulda,2024-05-30 As Europe finds itself once again caught between two superpowers the USA and a rising China little has been written about a relationship that will have a profound influence on the international order the relationship between the People s Republic of China and Germany In Germany and China leading international relations expert Andreas Fulda looks critically at the increasingly interdependent relationship between the two countries Drawing on examples from politics industry development aid and technology sectors and academia the book explores how successive governments from Helmut Kohl to Angela Merkel have pursued ever closer ties to China in the interests of short term economic gain Fulda explores the danger of this increasing entanglement not just for Germany but for Europe and the international world order

China and Europe Since 1978 Richard L. Edmonds,2002-08-29 Considering the development of Chinese European relations since China embarked on its open policy these papers suggest that political relations have not significantly modified Europe s relations with China They imply that Europe and China tend to view their relations with each other in terms of their relationships with the U S Articles include Human Rights Europe and the People s Republic of China Diplomatic Relations and Mutual Strategic Perceptions China and the European Union Economic Relations between Taiwan and Europe and Cultural Relations between China and the Member States of the European Union

Global Constitutionalism from European and East Asian Perspectives Takao Suami,Anne Peters,Dimitri Vanoverbeke,Mattias Kumm,2018-11-29 Examines and compares East Asian and European perspectives of Global Constitutionalism

Foreign Aid in China Hong Zhou,Jun Zhang,Min Zhang,2014-10-16 Foreign aid has connected China and the international community through many channels and created new types of strong partnerships throughout the world As a recipient country China and donors have engaged in an unprecedentedly deep level of cooperation on development related issues China s development experience has resulted in key changes to the relationships and partnerships between China and donors from receiving foreign aid to entering into development cooperation China has provided valuable experiences for other developing countries experiences that are all the more relevant because they have revealed key factors at work in developing recipient countries This has also led China to form closer cooperative relationships with other developing countries with regard to development issues In short foreign aid has changed China

Civil Society Contributions to Policy Innovation in the PR China A. Fulda, 2015-04-29 This book focuses on the question of whether and how civil society may contribute to policy innovation As the focus of civil society research is often more on the constraints on civil society by the state and less on the agency and effects of civil society organisations the authors provide a fresh and fruitful perspective

The Impossibilities of the Circular Economy Harry Lehmann, Christoph Hinske, Victoire de Margerie, Aneta Slaveikova Nikolova, 2022-11-23 The fifth Factor X publication from the Federal Environment Agency Umweltbundesamt UBA The Impossibilities of the Circular Economy provides an overview of the limits to the circular economy emphasising the relationship between integrated resource use and more systemic leadership management approaches On a European level the book ties into the recent European Green Deal and aims to empower actors across sectors and EU member countries to transition from existing linear models of value capture and expression to more systemic circular solutions of value capture and expression The volume provides a hands on contribution towards building the knowledge and skill sets of current and future decision makers who face these complex systemic crises in their day to day business The book further provides access to best practices from cutting edge research and development findings which will empower decision makers to develop a more sustainable and equitable economy Providing solutions for a more sustainable economy this book is essential reading for scholars and students of natural resource use sustainable business environmental economics and sustainable development as well as decision makers and experts from the fields of policy development industry and civil society The Open Access version of this book available at www.taylorfrancis.com has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license
