Steven A. Hunt, 2012-09-18 More than simply a Festschrift this book encompasses a uniquely broad range of traditions having to do with Abraham It also succeeds in the task that Wilson has always encouraged bringing Jews and Christians together in fruitful dialogue Jacket , Foundations and Futures in the Sociology of Religion Luke Doggett, Alp Arat, 2017-12-14

Since the sociology of religion became recognised as a distinct sub discipline over the last century the dominance of approaches taking their inspiration from the sociological classics has increasingly been challenged Empirical findings have brought the notion of secularisation into question and theorists have sought to deconstruct how we think of religion This collection appraises the continuing influence of the foundational approaches and places these in relation to newly emerging directions in the field The book is divided into four sections each section containing one foundational chapter written by an established academic followed by two futures chapters contributed by emerging scholars in the sub discipline These chapters complement one another by placing the overview of future directions in the context of a survey of the development of the sociology of religion over the last century Topics discussed in these chapters include lived religion sexuality ritual religion and the media Combining erudite examinations of the British Sociological Association Sociology of Religion Study Group s work so far with explorations of the future directions its research might take this book is vital reading for any scholar whose work combines religious studies and sociology Mindful America Jeff Wilson, 2014 Jeff Wilson explores the diverse ways in which the Buddhist derived practice of mindfulness meditation has been applied in American culture Prayer Shawl

Ministries and Women's Theological Imagination Donna Bowman, 2015-10-30 Based on personal interviews Prayer Shawl Ministries and Women s Theological Imagination uncovers the theological creativity of Christian lay women quietly stitching their own sacred fabric From the origins of prayer shawl ministry in feminist and ecumenical thought the movement has grown to hundreds of groups composed mostly of women over 60 in denominations across the political and doctrinal spectrum Through participation in handcrafting ministries participants reflect on themes that sometimes complement and sometimes challenge the public stances of their communities Women in prayer shawl ministries develop commitments to broad inclusion reject the intrusion of market forces and realize their productive power Out of their traditional roles as caretakers they craft compassion into a conscious theologically rich practice Out of their historical subordination they cultivate trust in divine providence and hope for the preservation of their legacy Listening to their ideas convictions and concerns and connecting them to findings from multiple scholarly fields this book seeks to disclose the convergences and complexity of ordinary women s theological thinking and behavior Compassionate Knitting Tara Jon Manning,2011-10-25 Compassionate Knitting Finding Basic Goodness in the Work of Our Hands is a knitting book unlike any other The 20 original design projects included in this book range from small accessory items and gifts to wearable garments all of which include personal ritual in their creation or use Each project is inspired by an element of the world around us based on a contemplative theme drawn from Shambhala Buddhism and Eastern arts or in some cases Western notions of the magical and mindful Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas,2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville s The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day s Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett s Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson s Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan s Spider Cup 1990 embroidery
