Samara Godwin Djietror, 2021-11-03 This is the story of a Christian family whose life circumstances and experiences illustrate the will of God and the power of prayer. Walter Robertson affectionately called Walt and his wife Rebecca lived in Joshland, a prairie community. Walt strove to live his life as a devout Christian, but on occasion he doubted the existence of God, backslid, and questioned God's attributes. Rebecca, on the other hand, demonstrated unwavering faith in God. In 1945 a tornado tore down their riverfront home and carried off their baby girl, Samara. A woman found the infant and decided to keep it for herself. Growing up as Margaret and fatherless, Samara was told that her daddy had fallen off his sailboat in the Gulf of Mexico and drowned. In a miraculous twist of events, Rebecca and Walt ended up as the first clients in Margaret's retired couples housing facility. Eight months after moving in, Rebecca was seen in the ER for a voiding problem. A few days later she went with Walt to see her primary care physician to discuss the results of an investigative lab work. The doctor broke bad news: She had failing kidneys and required immediate transplant. She would be placed on the waiting list for a donor. The couple shared the unpleasant news with Margaret and asked for her support in prayers. Rebecca knew what she faced: too little time to wait for her turn on the deceased donor waiting list. Amid the seeming hopelessness, Margaret stunned the couple with her offer to donate a kidney. She said a prayer of gratitude in her heart for the privilege to help, little knowing that she was, in fact, thanking God for using her to save the life of her biological mother. The United States Government Internet Directory, 2014 Shana Hertz Hattis, 2014-07-29 The United States Government Internet Directory serves as a guide to the changing landscape of government information online.
