Online White Road Journey Into Obsession:

The White Road Edmund de Waal, 2015-11-10 An intimate narrative history of porcelain structured around five journeys through landscapes where porcelain was dreamed about fired refined collected and coveted Extraordinary new nonfiction a gripping blend of history and memoir by the author of the award winning and bestselling international sensation The Hare with the Amber Eyes In The White Road bestselling author and artist Edmund de Waal gives us an intimate narrative history of his lifelong obsession with porcelain or white gold A potter who has been working with porcelain for more than forty years de Waal describes how he set out on five journeys to places where porcelain was dreamed about refined collected and coveted and that would help him understand the clay's mysterious allure From his studio in London he starts by travelling to three white hills sites in China Germany and England that are key to porcelain's creation But his search eventually takes him around the globe and reveals more than a history of cups and figurines rather he is forced to confront some of the darkest moments of twentieth century history Part memoir part history part detective story The White Road chronicles a global obsession with alchemy art wealth craft and purity In a sweeping yet intimate style that recalls The Hare with the Amber Eyes de Waal gives us a singular understanding of the spectrum of porcelain and the mapping of desire

Hip-Hop, Art, and Visual Culture Jeffrey L. Broome, Lisa Munson, 2020-04-02 Visual art has been tied to hip hop culture since its emergence in the 1970s Commentary on these initial connections often emphasizes the importance of graffiti and fashion during hip hop's earliest days Forty years later hip hop music has grown into a billion dollar global industry and its influence on visual art and society has also expanded This book length printed edition of Arts collects essays by scholars who explore this evolving influence through their work in art education cultural theory and visual culture studies The topics covered by these authors include discussions on identity and cultural appropriation equity and access as represented in select works of art creativity and copyright in digital media and the use of fine art tropes within the sociocultural history of hip hop As a collected volume these essays make potentially important contributions to broadening the narrative on art education and hip hop beyond the topics of graffiti fashion and the use of cyphers in educational contexts

The Art of Colour Kelly Grovier, 2023-04-27 Did you know that the ultramarine that shimmers at the centre of Vermeers Milkmaid connects that masterpiece with 6th century Zoroastrian paintings found on the walls of cave temples in Bamiyan Afghanistan Or that the surging waves that crest and curl in Hokusai's Perilous Great Wave off Kanagawa owe their absorbing blue lustre to an alchemist who was born in Frankenstein's Castle in 1673 And were the Pre Raphaelites really obsessed with a murky brown hue derived from the pulverized remains of ancient mummies Spoiler they were Invented by prehistoric cave dwellers and medieval conjurers cunning conmen and savvy scientists the colours of art tell a riveting tale all their own Over ten scintillating chapters acclaimed author Kelly Grovier helps bring that tale vividly to life revealing the astonishing backstories of the pigments that define the greatest works in the history of art Interwoven between these chapters is a series of features focusing on key moments in the evolution of colour theory from the revelations of the Enlightenment to the radicalism of the Bauhaus while reproductions of carefully selected artworks help illuminate the narratives twists and turns The history of colour is an epic saga of human ingenuity and insatiable desire Read this book and you will never look at a work of art in quite the same way The Everyday Artefacts of World Politics Caitlin Hamilton,2021-09-23 This book examines everyday artefacts of world politics the things that everyday people make that tell stories about how the world works The author argues that people engage in a unique form of multimodal storytelling about the world their place in the world and the world they want to live in through the artefacts that they make Introducing a novel approach to artefactual analysis the book explores textiles jewellery and pottery and urges scholars of global politics to take these artefacts seriously Based on original research this book is inherently interdisciplinary drawing on concepts and approaches from across the humanities and social sciences including archaeology history sociology world politics anthropology and material studies It will therefore be of interest to a wide range of readers Net Works Xtine Burrough,2012 Offers an inside look into the process of successfully developing thoughtful innovative digital media Using websites as case studies each chapter introduces a different style of web project from formalist play to social activism to data visualization and then includes the artists or entrepreneurs reflections on the particular challenges and outcomes of developing that web project Combining practical skills for web authoring with critical perspectives on the web this book is ideal for courses in new media design art communication critical studies media and technology or popular digital internet culture A Generic History of Travel Writing in Anglophone and Polish Literature Grzegorz Moroz,2020-08-31 A Generic History of Travel Writing in Anglophone and Polish Literature offers a comprehensive comparative and generic analysis of developments of travel writing in Anglophone and Polish literature from the Late Medieval Period to the twenty first century These developments are depicted in a wider context of travel narratives written in other European languages Grzegorz Moroz convincingly argues that for all the similarities and cross cultural influences in the course of the nineteenth and twentieth century non fiction Anglophone and Polish travel writing have dynamically evolved different generic horizons of expectations While the Anglophone travel book developed relatively steadily in that period the Polish genre of the podr was first replaced by the listy kartki z podr y and then by the reporta podr niczy TLA Film, Video, and DVD Guide 2002-2003 David Bleiler,2001-11-03 A film video and DVD guide for the true lover of the cinema this volume focuses on independent and international films as well as the best of the mainstream 450 photos throughout American Photo ,1996-03 Almost All Aliens Paul Spickard,Francisco Beltrán,Laura Hooton,2022-09-15 Almost All Aliens offers a unique reinterpretation of immigration in the history of the United States Setting aside the European migrant centered melting pot model of immigrant assimilation Paul Spickard Francisco Beltrán and Laura Hooton put forward a fresh and provocative reconceptualization that embraces the multicultural racialized and colonially inflected reality of immigration that has always existed in the United States Their astute study illustrates the complex relationship between ethnic identity and race slavery and colonial expansion Examining the lives of those who crossed the Atlantic as well as those who crossed the Pacific the Caribbean and the North American Borderlands Almost All Aliens provides a distinct inclusive and critical analysis of immigration race and identity in the United States from 1600 until the present The second edition updates Almost All Aliens through the first two decades of the twenty first century recounting and analyzing the massive changes in immigration policy the reception of immigrants and immigrant experiences that whipsawed back and forth throughout the era It includes a new final chapter that brings the story up to the present day This book will appeal to students and researchers alike studying the history of immigration race and colonialism in the United States as well as those interested in American identity especially in the context of the early twenty first century
