'For Their Rock is not as Our Rock' Daniel Strange, 2015-05-08 The reality of our post Christendom post colonial post Holocaust post 9/11 multi ethnic and multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians are acutely aware of the questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is still alive and well then seemingly so too is society's sacralization Hence the theology of religions is arguably the issue for mission in the twenty first century However there has been little evangelical theology that offers a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis that deals with not only the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of practical issues pertaining to apologetics and contextualization In this ambitious interdisciplinary study which synthesizes close exegesis biblical theology systematics and insights from the social sciences Daniel Strange examines the origins development and idolatry of the religious Other and explores how the gospel of Jesus Christ is its subversive fulfilment He concludes with a missiological postscript and some pastoral perspectives on the purpose of other religions in God's providence Their Rock Is Not Like Our Rock Daniel Strange, 2015-02-03 The reality of the West's post Christendom multiethnic multicultural context has meant that more than ever Christians face questions posed not simply by the existence of other religions but also by their apparent flourishing If secularization is alive and well then so too is society's sacralization Hence a theology of religions is arguably the most significant concern confronting Christian mission and apologetics in the twenty first century There has been little evangelical theology offering a detailed comprehensive and biblically faithful analysis not only of the question of salvation but also questions of truth the nature and history of human religiosity and a host of other issues pertaining to Christian apologetics and contextualization amid religious pluralism In Their Rock is Not Like Our Rock lecturer and vice principal of Oak Hill College in London Daniel Strange explores these issues and offers the beginning of a theology of other religions Out of Context Richard L. Schultz, 2012-11-01 Although 92% of American households own at least one Bible their use of the Bible varies significantly Only 59% of Americans read the Bible at least occasionally and an even smaller percentage go beyond merely reading the Bible and actually study it It is no wonder that even those who say they read the Scriptures often don't understand them Veteran Bible professor Richard L. Schultz believes the misinterpretation and misapplication of biblical texts amounts to a crisis of interpretive malpractice In Out of Context he seeks to explain how biblical interpretation goes wrong and how to get it right He introduces readers to the important concepts of context word meaning genre and the differences between the world of the Bible and our own Readers who delve into the fascinating world of biblical interpretation found in this book will find their Scripture reading enhanced and be enlightened by Schultz's powerful and ultimately positive message American Book Publishing Record, 2007 □□ □□□□ □□ □□□ L. □□ □, □□□ □, 2014-03-19 L The Turnings of Darkness and Light Kenneth Surin, 2007-12-03 This collection of essays written between 1975 and 1987 covers the doctrine of analogy the Trinity theological realism the problems of evil and suffering the doctrine of God tragedy and Christian life the doctrine of the atonement christology the theology of religions ecclesiology discipleship and the so-called theistic proofs CHRISTIAN APOLOGETICS Francis Beattie, 2022-06-07 Originally written in 1903 by Francis Beattie Christian Apologetics is a comprehensive examination of the rational foundations of the Christian faith This treatise delves into the philosophical historical and theological underpinnings of Christianity offering a robust defense against various critiques and alternative worldviews This updated edition has been carefully revised to make Beattie's profound work accessible to contemporary readers The original text rich in depth but laden with archaic language and complex structures has been modernized for clarity and readability Outdated scientific and philosophical references have been updated to reflect current understanding and spelling grammar and syntax errors have been corrected Moreover we have replaced the archaic Bible translations with the Updated American Standard Version UASV to maintain the integrity of Beattie's arguments while ensuring accuracy and readability In this volume readers will find a systematic exploration of key apologetic themes including the nature and scope of apologetics the philosophical foundations of theism the psychological aspects of religious belief and the critical examination of antitheistic theories such as atheism materialism and agnosticism Each chapter is designed to build upon the last creating a cohesive and compelling case for the rationality and necessity of the Christian faith This edition retains the scholarly rigor of the original work while making it more accessible to today's readers It is an essential resource for students scholars and anyone interested in the intellectual defense of Christianity By bridging the gap between historical and contemporary thought this revised edition of Christian Apologetics ensures that Beattie's invaluable insights continue to enlighten and inspire World Religions Through a Christian Worldview Pat Zukeran, 2008-08 Do Jews Muslims and Christians worship the same God Should Christians participate in Yoga or the martial arts Christians today are constantly interacting with individuals concepts and

Rausch, 2016-03-24 What is Catholicism And where is the Catholic Church headed in the third millennium These two questions provide the structure for Thomas Rausch's Catholicism in the Third Millennium Here Rausch combines a faithful presentation of the tradition with a critical theological reflection and interpretation of where the Church is today and where it might be moving Catholicism in the Third Millennium offers an appreciation of the forces and movements that have shaped and continue to influence the ongoing change and development of Roman Catholicism Chief among these is the influence of the Second Vatican Council 1962-1965 in reshaping Catholicism This revised edition includes updated text from Rausch's Catholicism at the Dawn of the Third Millennium particularly the final chapter on The Unfinished Agenda of Vatican II Each chapter concludes with focus questions developed by Catherine E Clifford of St Paul's University Ottawa This experience of guided reading provides readers with a broad survey of Roman Catholic faith and practice in its contemporary context For readers who wish to compare particular passages of this volume with the Catechism of the Catholic Church an outline is provided in an appendix with references to the appropriate sections of the Catechism A second appendix offers a glossary of terms used in the book while a third appendix lists a number of basic works for further investigation of Catholic faith and life Chapters are The Church and the Council Faith and the Believing Community A Visible Church A Living Tradition Sacraments and Christian initiation Christian Life and Discipleship Sin Forgiveness and Healing Sexual Morality and Social Justice Prayer and Spirituality The Fullness of Christian Hope and The Unfinished Agenda Includes Appendix I Outlook of Book with References to the Catechism of the highlighting the strengths and weaknesses of the so called autonomy and faith ethic schools of thought Mealey argues that there is little dividing them and that in some instances both schools are simply defending one aspect of a hermeneutical dialectic In an attempt to move away from the divisions between proponents of the faith ethic and autonomy positions Mealey enlists the help of the hermeneutical theory of Paul Ricoeur She argues that many of the disagreements arising from the Christian proprium debate can be overcome if scholars look to the possibilities opened up by Ricoeur's hermeneutics of interpretation Mealey also argues that the uniqueness of Christian morality is more adequately explained in terms of a specific identity self that is constantly subject to change and revision in light of many often conflicting moral sources She advocates a move away from attempts to explain the uniqueness of Christian morality in terms of one specific unchanging context motivation norm divine command or value By embracing the possibilities opened up by Ricoeurian hermeneutics Mealey explains how concepts such as revelation tradition orthodoxy and moral conscience may be understood in a hermeneutical way without being deemed sectarian or unorthodox

Buddhist-Christian Dialogue as Theological Exchange Ernest M Valea, 2015-10-29 This book is intended to encourage the use of comparative theology in contemporary Buddhist Christian dialogue as a new approach that would truly respect each religious tradition's uniqueness and make dialogue beneficial for all participants interested in a real theological exchange As a result of the impasse reached by the current theologies of religions exclusivism inclusivism and pluralism in formulating a constructive approach in dialogue this volume assesses the thought of the founding fathers of an academic Buddhist Christian dialogue in search of clues that would encourage a comparativist approach These founding fathers are considered to be three important representatives of the Kyoto School Kitaro Nishida Keiji Nishitani and Masao Abe and John Cobb an American process theologian The guiding line for assessing their views of dialogue is the concept of human perfection as it is expressed by the original traditions in Mahayana Buddhism and Orthodox Christianity Following Abe's methodology in dialogue an Orthodox contribution to comparative theology proposes a reciprocal enrichment of traditions not by syncretistic means but by providing a better understanding and even correction of one's own tradition when considering it in the light of the other while using internal resources for making the necessary corrections
