Beyond Civil Society Sonia E. Alvarez, Jeffrey W. Rubin, Millie Thayer, Gianpaolo Baiocchi, Agustín Laó-Montes, 2017-05-18 The contributors to Beyond Civil Society argue that the conventional distinction between civic and uncivic protest and between activism in institutions and in the streets does not accurately describe the complex interactions of forms and locations of activism characteristic of twenty first century Latin America They show that most contemporary political activism in the region relies upon both confrontational collective action and civic participation at different moments Operating within fluid dynamic and heterogeneous fields of contestation activists have not been contained by governments or conventional political categories but rather have overflowed their boundaries opening new democratic spaces or extending existing ones in the process These essays offer fresh insight into how the politics of activism participation and protest are manifest in Latin America today while providing a new conceptual language and an interpretive framework for examining issues that are critical for the future of the region and beyond Contributors Sonia E Alvarez Kiran Asher Leonardo Avritzer Gianpaolo Baiocchi Andrea Cornwall Graciela DiMarco Arturo Escobar Raphael Hoetmer Benjamin Junge Luis E Lander Agust n La Montes Margarita L pez Maya Jos Antonio Lucero Graciela Monteagudo Amalia Pallares Jeffrey W Rubin Ana Claudia Teixeira Millie Thayer      Authoritarian Apprehensions Lisa Wedeen, 2019-09-15 If the Arab uprisings initially heralded the end of tyrannies and a move toward liberal democratic governments their defeat not only marked a reversal but was of a piece with emerging forms of authoritarianism worldwide In Authoritarian Apprehensions Lisa Wedeen draws on her decades long engagement with Syria to offer an erudite and compassionate analysis of this extraordinary rush of events the revolutionary exhilaration of the initial days of unrest and then the devastating violence that shattered hopes of any quick undoing of dictatorship Developing a fresh insightful and theoretically imaginative approach to both authoritarianism and conflict Wedeen asks What led a sizable part of the citizenry to stick by the regime through one atrocity after another What happens to political judgment in a context of pervasive misinformation And what might the Syrian example suggest about how authoritarian leaders exploit digital media to create uncertainty political impasses and fractures among their citizens Drawing on extensive fieldwork and a variety of Syrian artistic practices Wedeen lays bare the ideological investments that sustain ambivalent attachments to established organizations of power and contribute to the ongoing challenge of pursuing political change This masterful book is a testament to Wedeen s deep engagement with some of the most troubling concerns of our political present and future      David Harvey Noel Castree, Derek Gregory, 2008-04-15 This book critically interrogates the work of David Harvey one of the world's most influential geographers and one of its best known Marxists Considers the entire range of Harvey's oeuvre from the nature of urbanism to environmental issues Written by contributors from across the human sciences operating with a range of critical theories Focuses on key themes in Harvey's work Contains a consolidated bibliography of Harvey's writings

Rules of Law and Laws of Ruling Franz von Benda-Beckmann, Keebet von Benda-Beckmann, 2016-04-08 Offering an anthropological perspective this volume explores the changing relations between law and governance examining how changes in the structure of governance affect the relative social significance of law within situations of legal pluralism The authors argue that there has been a re-regulation rather than a de-regulation propagated by a plurality of regulative authorities and this re-regulation is accompanied by an increasing ideological dominance of rights talk and juridification of conflict Drawing on insights into such processes this volume explores the extent to which law is used both as a constitutive legitimation of governance and as the medium through which governance processes take place Highlighting some of the paradoxes and the unintended consequences of these regulating processes and the ensuing dynamics Rules of Law and Laws of Ruling will be a valuable resource for researchers and students working in the areas of legal anthropology and governance

Cosmopolitanisms and Latin America J. Loss, 2019-06-12 This book examines Latin America's history of engagement with cosmopolitanisms as a manner of asserting a genealogy that links cultural critique in Latin America and the United States Cosmopolitanism is crucial to any discussion of Latin America and Latin Americanism as a discipline Reinaldo Arenas and Diamela Eltit become nodal points to discuss a wide range of issues that include the pedagogical dimensions of the DVD commentary track the challenges of the Internet to canonization and links between ethical practices of Benetton and the U.S. academy These authors whose rejection of the comfort of regimented constituencies results in their writing being perceived as raw vindictive and even alienating are ripe for critique What they say about their relation to place with regard to their products national and international viability is central The book performs what it theorizes It travels between methodologies hence bridging the divide between cosmopolitanism and that alleged common space of Latin American identity as per the colonial experience illustrating cosmopolitanism as a mediating operation that is crucial to any discussion of Latin America and of Latin Americanism as a discipline

China Imagined Gregory Lee, 2018-12-15 If China as Lee argues is a product of Westernization then the West is itself in the process of becoming China

A Companion to the Anthropology of Politics David Nugent, Joan Vincent, 2008-04-15 This Companion offers an unprecedented overview of anthropology's unique contribution to the study of politics Explores the key concepts and issues of our time from AIDS globalization displacement and militarization to identity politics and beyond Each chapter reflects on concepts and issues that have shaped the anthropology of politics and concludes with thoughts on and challenges for the way ahead Anthropology's distinctive genre ethnography lies at the heart of this volume

Cultures of Democracy

Dilip Parameshwar Gaonkar, 2007 This special issue of Public Culture draws on work in anthropology political theory and postcolonial studies to propose that democratic strategies and practices in differing countries are affected by their cultures histories and their reception or resistance

The Politics of Precarity Gediminas Lesutis, 2021-12-30 Based on critical theory and ethnographic research this book explores how intensifying geographies of extractive capitalism shape human lives and transformative politics in marginal areas of the global economy Engaging the work of Judith Butler Henri Lefebvre and Jacques Rancière with ethnographic research on social and political effects of mining induced dispossession in Mozambique in the book Lesutis theorises how precarity unfolds as a spatially constituted condition of everyday life given over to the violence of capital Going beyond labour relations or governance of life in liberal democracies that are typically explored in the literature on precarity the book shows how dispossessed people are subjected to structural symbolic and direct modalities of violence this simultaneously constitutes their suffering and ceaseless desire however implausible to be included into abstract space of extractivism As a result despite the multifarious violence that it engenders extractive capital accumulation is sustained even in the margins historically excluded from contingently lived imaginaries of a good life promised by capitalism Presenting this theorisation of precarity as a framework on and a critique of the contemporary politics of unliveability the book speaks to key debates about precarity dispossession resistance extractivism and development in several disciplines especially political geography IPE global politics and critical theory It will also be of interest to scholars in development studies critical political economy and African politics

Alternative Modernities Dilip Parameshwar Gaonkar, 2001 A special issue of PUBLIC CULTURE this volume of essays examines modernity from transnational and transcultural perspectives holding that within different cultures there are different starting points of the transition to modernity that lead to differences

Millennial Capitalism and the Culture of Neoliberalism, 2000

Twilight of the Social Henry A. Giroux, 2015-12-03 In The Twilight of the Social Henry A. Giroux looks at the decline of social spaces which enable grievances to be dealt with and considers new ways in which citizens can create social spaces today After decades of neoliberalism today's young people lack a voice and are saddled with economic political and social conditions that have rendered them marginalised and ultimately disposable Giroux covers a broad range of topics from youth and the promise of new media technologies the economic Darwinism of globalisation and the need for a renewed democratic culture The Twilight of the Social is a compelling account of the erosion in recent decades of the very idea of the social in America and other societies

Treatments Lisa Diedrich, Creative expression inspired by disease has been criticized as a celebration of victimhood unmediated personal experience or just simply bad art Despite debate however memoirs written about illness particularly AIDS or cancer have proliferated since the late twentieth century and occupy a highly influential place on the cultural landscape today In Treatments Lisa Diedrich considers illness narratives demonstrating that these texts not only recount and interpret symptoms but also describe illness as an event that reflects wider cultural contexts including race gender class and sexuality Diedrich begins this theoretically rigorous analysis by offering examples of midcentury memoirs of tuberculosis She then looks at Susan Sontag's Illness As Metaphor Audre Lorde's The Cancer Journals and Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick's White Glasses showing how these breast cancer survivors draw on feminist health practices of the 1970s and also anticipate the figure that would appear in the wake of the AIDS crisis in the 1980s the politicized patient She further reveals how narratives written by doctors Abraham Verghese and Rafael Campo about treating people with AIDS can disrupt the doctor patient hierarchy and she explores practices of witnessing that emerge in writing by Paul Monette and John Bayley Through these records of intensely personal yet universal experience Diedrich demonstrates how language both captures and fails to capture these scenes of loss and how illness narratives affect the literary medical and cultural contexts from which they arise Finally by examining the ways in which the sick speak and are spoken for she argues for an ethics of failure the revaluation of loss as creating new possibilities for how we live and die Lisa Diedrich is assistant professor of women's studies at Stony Brook University

Medical Research for Hire Jill A. Fisher, 2008-11-06 Today more than 75 percent of pharmaceutical drug trials in the United States are being conducted in the private sector Once the sole province of academic researchers these important studies are now being outsourced to non academic physicians According to Jill A Fisher this major change in the way medical research is performed is the outcome of two problems in U S health care decreasing revenue for physicians and decreasing access to treatment for patients As physicians report diminishing income due to restrictive relationships with insurers increasing malpractice insurance premiums and inflated overhead costs to operate private practices they are attracted to pharmaceutical contract research for its lucrative return Clinical trials also provide limited medical access to individuals who have no or inadequate health insurance because they offer free doctors visits diagnostic tests and medications to participants Focusing on the professional roles of those involved as well as key research practices Fisher assesses the risks and advantages for physicians and patients alike when pharmaceutical drug studies are used as an alternative to standard medical care A volume in the Critical Issues in Health and Medicine series edited by Rima D Apple and Janet Golden
