Mind The Gaps Engaging The Church In Missionary Care:

Mind the Gaps Consultant Radiologist at the Nuffield Orthopedic Center and Clinical Lecturer David J Wilson, David Joseph Wilson, 2015-05 You've been a sending church for years. You're known as the missions-minded standout in your local community. Each year you host missionaries home on furlough, eager to share their stories from the field with your church and the faithful supporters of their ministry year upon year. Still, you can't help but wonder: Is there more to missionary care than this: writing checks, hosting furloughs, and offering up occasional prayers? There is. And what's missing may surprise you. It goes way beyond support checks and missionary photos on the church wall, instead aiming straight for the heart of God's vision for the nations and His Church's mission to the world. What's more, you'll find it's the missing link between anemic missionaries who burn out and resilient missionaries who thrive. Mind the Gaps compiles firsthand accounts from an experienced and practicing missionary care team in a local church which seeks to equip your church with the tools it needs to create a system of proactive care for the missionaries you send into the world. Learn how to come alongside those you send and care for them as they care for others. Don't let those you send get caught in the vicious cycle of burnout and attrition. The stakes are too high. Instead, learn how to mind the gaps. The Missionary Care Team at Trinity Church in Redlands, CA, has been developing a system of proactive care for their missionary families since 2008. Trinity's Mission Pastor David J. Wilson, DMin, received his Master of Divinity degree from New Orleans Baptist Theological Seminary and his doctorate from Campbell University. He has been serving as a mission pastor in the local church since 1996. Book jacket Engaging Neighbors and Nations Tim Silberman, 2024-03-27 Evangelical churches are widely known for their commitment to mission locally and to the ends of the earth. However, in the last century, there have been profound theological and sociological changes that have impacted mission practice. Church and mission leaders have encouraged Christians to respond to the need for mission locally, especially as church decline accelerates in much of the Western world. Yet others are concerned that global mission involvement is being neglected in many local churches. This study explores the factors influencing local church participation in mission both locally and around the world. Through an in-depth analysis of the practices and perspectives among evangelical churches in Australia, the author identifies a range of theological, missiological, and organizational influences on mission practice. Though beliefs about the church, the world, and mission are important, understanding organizational principles, social capital, and the power of relational networks provides invaluable insights into church mission practice. This book is for those who long to see local churches committed to engaging both their neighbors and the nations in mission, growing our understanding of how to encourage helpful church practices for the sake of Christ. Pipeline David J. Wilson, Lorane Wilson, 2018-05-01 What would it look like if your church really took the last words of Jesus seriously? The Great Commission was not just a suggestion by our Lord but an imperative mandate given to his followers. Missionary sending agencies are deploying workers to the field, but many of them come from disengaged churches that are not producing well equipped disciples We need a fully integrated global supply chain a pipeline that has disciples as the precious commodity as well as an effective infrastructure to distribute and replicate them around the globe Pipeline seeks to re engage the church in mobilizing the next generation of workers for the harvest This is a collaboration of forty different authors from churches agencies and cross cultural servants As people in distant places wait for a messenger of hope and salvation will your church venture into the pipeline Shepherding God's People Siang-Yang Tan,2019-07-16 This comprehensive textbook on pastoral ministry for pastors church leaders and students articulates a biblical model for shepherding God s people Written by a leading psychologist and seminary professor who has served as a pastor for more than two decades the book covers twelve major areas of pastoral ministry highlights the essential work of the Holy Spirit and focuses on the personal and family life of the pastor It includes cross cultural perspectives of special interest in our diverse world and a foreword by John Ortberg □□□ □□□□□□□□□□, Third Culture Kids Growing Up Global 1 2 3 21 20 193 TCK TCK 31 36 TCK 2022 7 18 Practicing Hope Jerry M. Ireland,Michelle L. K. Raven,2020-07-20 The greatest crisis is being separated from Christ In the constant swirl of human suffering the church has long wrestled with appropriate responses As crises come and go the need for the church s theological missiological and practical readiness remains so that people not only survive but thrive in the context of a crisis Practicing Hope brings together global scholars and practitioners who share and think broadly about the church s mission in a world rife with crises Rather than harmonizing the voices of the contributors to provide general guidelines for generic crisis response Practicing Hope allows the reader to hear multiple perspectives on complex issues such as sustainability empowerment human rights biblical principles and missio Dei mission of God These essays highlight that being separated from Christ is the focus that will keep the church from losing its raison d tre its reason for being This book provides a potent reminder that crises are not the end sometimes they are the beginning of something better In these chapters you will find stories of hope amid unimaginable darkness Practicing Hope describes what it really means not just in theory but in practice to be the salt of the earth and light of the world Matt 5 14 15 We hope that you will be inspired as Jesus said in the parable of the Good Samaritan to go and do likewise Finding Your Kingdom Sweet Spot John R. Engaging the African Church for Holistic Care of the Missionaries in the 21st Century* Eric S. Mbuh, 2022-07-22 Academic Paper from the year 2022 in the subject Theology Miscellaneous course Contemporary Mission In African language English abstract Missionary Care provides an excellent follow up to Helping Missionaries Grow which gave a broader sweep of mental health issues as they relate to missionary families Missionaries remain part of the body of their sending church Regardless of whether they are physically present for worship every week or are working on the other side of the globe they are members back home unless something breaks the relationship Their church therefore is responsible to provide care for them just like they do for other members of the community but missionaries need it even One of the key leading scholars in the field of Missionary Care is Kelly O'Donnell He is the editor of the book Missionary Care Counting the Cost for World Evangelization With close to thirty contributors to this book the work is divided into five areas of discussion each consisting of five articles 1 Missionary Care Overview a good basic review and defense of the needs and history of psychological and emotional care provision to missionaries in Africa 2 Counseling and Clinical Care focusing on changes in the psychological makeup of today's missionary pool and the assessment and counseling tools being used to address those changes 3 Team Development speaking both to special needs arising in team ministries and the concept of developing teams of holistic health specialists to minister to field staff 4 Missions Agencies 5 Future Directions two very practical models specific suggestions and updates on current advances in the field of missionary care giving

Evaluating Missionary-care Responsibilities Donald Hall, 2018 A thoughtful approach to global missions requires a team of support personnel This team composed of the sending church the supporting churches the missions agency and other supporters is effective when it works together to recruit train and maintain a healthy missionary workforce but a sub standard support structure jeopardizes the mission Sadly many sending churches do not properly understand or fulfill their missionary care roles and responsibilities This project provides a biblical philosophical and practical methodology by which churches can properly evaluate their responsibilities and address gaps in their missionary care ministry In the model presented in this paper the sending church functions as the lead entity This thesis is divided into five sections 1 a survey and synthesis of scholarly missionary care literature 2 the results and analysis of a survey and interview of local church missions leadership 3 an extensive list of missionary care responsibilities 4 a proposal for a sending church led team model and 5 instruments to facilitate the sending church's understanding and evaluation of its roles and responsibilities The analysis of the research portion of this paper indicates that some churches have a smaller sending and supporting capacity than is reflected in their practice Because the current agency led missionary care model is so deeply ingrained in the psyche of the missionary care team however a thorough evaluation especially one that appears almost certain to recommend significant changes is strongly resisted This project's missionary care task lists and tables can assist the church in deciding the missionary care tasks for which it is responsible and determining the number of missionaries supporting churches and agencies for which it can faithfully fulfill those tasks To the extent that the principles of a local church led approach to fulfilling the Great Commission are biblical they demand a recalibration of any other model

Strengthening Missionary Families Through Member Care by the Sending Church Christopher Thomas Clark, 2017 The purpose of this dissertation is to help sending churches of all sizes confidently reclaim their biblical role of member care to the missionary families they send Chapter 1 introduces the concept of member care and establishes the local church as primary care giver in missions It also shows the purpose definitions limitations and delimitations and research methodology Chapter 2 looks at the history of member care starting with William Carey and Lottie Moon and the beginnings of Baptist missionary care The chapter then looks at the past fifty years of member care This chapter also looks at preventable and non preventable attrition and special issues in care including re entry and the missionary kid Chapter 3 surveys the Scriptures to build a case for a biblical mandate for care to its sent ones It starts by looking at biblical precedent for such care using the churches at Antioch and Philippi as examples Chapter 4 examines six leading member care churches in the US and surveys their best practices in care culture to families Through the research obtained in these interviews I offer a list of best practices in care ministry to families Chapter 5 offers suggestions for sending churches to start care well by accessing training and mobilizing families with care in mind In this chapter I summarize the research and make recommendations for the twenty first century sending church

Missionary Care Kelly O'Donnell, 1994 Worth Keeping Rob Hay, Valerie Lim, Detlef Blocher, 2007-06-01 Worth Keeping is more than worth just reading I urge church and missional leaders to reflect on the research and absorb the principles contained in this important volume I am convinced if we put into practice its recommendations we will see more effective missionaries who feel valued as servants of the living God Worth Keeping should be required reading for all mission leaders and local church mission teams Geoff Tunnicliffe International
