Mors Britannica Douglas J. Davies, 2015-11-12 A people's lifestyle is one thing their death style another The proximity or distance between such styles says much about a society not least in Britain today Mors Britannica takes up this style issue in a society where cultural changes involve distinctions between traditional religion secularisation and emergent forms of spirituality all of which involve emotions where fear longing and a sense of loss rise in waves when death marks the root embodiment of our humanity These world orientations evident in older and newer ritual practices engage death in the hope and desire that love relationships community and human identity be not rendered meaningless Yet both emotions and ritual have an uneasiness to them because death is a slippery topic as the twenty first century gets under way in Britain In this work Douglas J Davies draws from a largely anthropological sociological perspective with consideration of history literature philosophy psychology and theology to provide a window into British life and insights into the foundation links between individuals and society across the spectrum of traditionally religious views through to humanist and secular alternatives He considers memorial sites from churchyards to roadside memorials forms of corporeal disposal from cremation to composting and death rites in a range of religious and secular traditions Death, Grief and Loss in the Context of COVID-19 Panagiotis Pentaris, 2021-08-05 This book provides detailed analysis of the manifold ways in which COVID 19 has influenced death dying and bereavement Through three parts Reconsidering Death and Grief in Covid 19 Institutional Care and Covid 19 and the Impact of COVID 19 in Context the book explores COVID 19 as a reminder of our own and our communities fragile existence but also the driving force for discovering new ways of meaning making performing rites and rituals and conceptualising death grief and life Contributors include scholars researchers policymakers and practitioners accumulating in a multi disciplinary diverse and international set of ideas and perspectives that will help the reader examine closely how Covid 19 has invaded social life and re shaped trauma and loss It will be of interest to all scholars and students of death studies biomedicine and end of life care as well as those working in sociology social work medicine social policy cultural studies anthropology psychology counselling and nursing more broadly The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church Andrew Louth, 2022-02-17 Uniquely authoritative and wide ranging in its scope The Oxford Dictionary of the Christian Church is the indispensable reference work on all aspects of the Christian Church It contains over 6 500 cross referenced A Z entries and offers unrivalled coverage of all aspects of this vast and often complex subject from theology churches and denominations patristic scholarship and the bible to the church calendar and its organization popes archbishops other church leaders saints and mystics In this new edition great efforts have been made to increase and strengthen coverage of non Anglican denominations for example non Western European Christianity as well as broadening the focus on Christianity and the history of churches in areas beyond Western Europe In particular there have been extensive additions with regards to the Christian Church in Asia Africa Latin America North America and Australasia Significant updates have also been included on topics such as liturgy Canon Law recent international developments non Anglican missionary activity and the increasingly important area of moral and pastoral theology among many others Since its first appearance in 1957 the ODCC has established itself as an essential resource for ordinands clergy and members of religious orders and an invaluable tool for academics teachers and students of church history and theology as well as for the general reader

Death in the Modern World Tony Walter, 2020-01-09 Death comes to all humans but how death is managed symbolised and experienced varies widely not only between individuals but also between groups What then shapes how a society manages death dying and bereavement today Are all modern countries similar How important are culture the physical environment national histories national laws and institutions and globalization This is the first book to look at how all these different factors shape death and dying in the modern world Written by an internationally renowned scholar in death studies and drawing on examples from around the world including the UK USA China and Japan The Netherlands Scandinavia and Eastern Europe This book investigates how key factors such as money communication technologies economic insecurity risk the family religion and war interact in complex ways to shape people's experiences of dying and grief Essential reading for students researchers and professionals across sociology anthropology social work and healthcare and for anyone who wants to understand how countries around the world manage death and dying

Materiality and the Study of Religion Tim Hutchings, Joanne McKenzie, 2016-12-01 Material culture has emerged in recent decades as a significant theoretical concern for the study of religion This book contributes to and evaluates this material turn presenting thirteen chapters of new empirical research and theoretical reflection from some of the leading international scholars of material religion Following a model for material analysis proposed in the first chapter by David Morgan the contributors trace the life cycle of religious materiality through three phases the production of religious objects their classification as religious or non religious and their circulation and use in material culture The chapters in this volume consider how objects become and cease to be sacred how materiality can be used to contest access to public space and resources and how religion is embodied and performed by individuals in their everyday lives Contributors discuss the significance of the materiality of religion across different religious traditions and diverse geographical regions paying close attention to gender age ethnicity memory and politics The volume closes with an afterword by Manuel Viquez

Sociological Noir Kieran Flanagan, 2016-10-04 Contrary to secular claims regarding the expulsion of religion modernity does in fact produce unprecedented forms whose understanding re-casts the relationships between sociology and theology This book explores irruptions which disturb modernity from without fragments or deposits of history that have spectral or noir properties whether ruins collective memories or the dark Gothic or the Satanic as manifested in culture The study investigates what irrupts from these depths to unsettle our understanding of modernity so as to reveal its theological roots A ground breaking and extensive work Sociological Noir explores literature history and theology to re-cast the sociological imagination in ways that inspire reflection on new configurations in modernity As such it will have wide spread appeal to sociologists and social theorists with interests in religion theology and debates on postsecularism and culture

Worldview Religious Studies Douglas J Davies, 2022-02-17 Worldview Religious Studies brings the study of religion spirituality secularism and other mixed attitudes of life under the overarching scheme of worldview studies This book introduces and defines worldviews more generally before establishing a framework specific to religious studies The drive for meaning making is explored through ritual symbolic activities ideas of play and the power of emotions to transform simple ideas into values and beliefs that frame identity and signpost destiny Identity and its sacralisation are discussed alongside gift reciprocity theory in their relation to ideas of merit karma and salvation in Eastern and Western traditions This theoretical background is used to introduce a new classification of worldviews natural scientific ancestral karmic prophetic sectarian mystical and ideological Organised thematically by chapter this book brings together familiar and unfamiliar authors theories and sources to challenge students and teachers of Religious Studies Theology and Ethics It introduces worldview religious studies as a framework through which to re think human endeavours to identify cope and even transcend life s flaws and perils

Mors Britannica Douglas James Davies, 2015 This book is a study of British attitudes towards and practices surrounding death Davies provides a window into British life and insights into the foundational links between individuals and society across the spectrum of traditionally religious views through to humanist and secular alternatives
