Love of Farhan take us to and leave us in discombobulating unexpected places raising more questions than answers As with these story endings there is no easy solution to the dauntingly complicated problems revealed Striking in these stories is the deft economy and perhaps what is not said At times I was reminded of Mikhail Lermontov I was often struck by quotable arrestingly memorable lines religion really has an awesome power to make a stranger a relative and a relative a stranger he smiled like a robot It was nothing like a smile Everyone was bought with money everyone gave in to money and wealth Woman s love makes us happy but family s love gives us satisfaction I was sweating like a cold water bottle the smile was dominated by the helpless tone of his face In a kind of epiphany Bangladeshi migrant workers arriving in Singapore recognise how Bangladeshi brides must feel homesick wives feel insecure Through these stories we in Singapore might begin to constructively appreciate not only the sacrifices of the men who come to work here but also their wives and family left without husbands and fathers for long periods at home So there is a message in these stories but also an evocative beauty in which we encounter a world of Jacobin cuckoos beparis adams betel nuts whether Bengali or Burmese and traditional leaf cigarettes Here are also bittersweet poignant moments of migrant life such as hearing the first cry of your first born son back in a Bangladesh hospital over a handphone 45 or the joy at finding at last a rare Bangladeshi provision shop only to find shortly after the kind owner is ill has passed away Is it wise to be pennywise for years in Singapore as one story suggests or send all your money home for family We expatriates are like cows with milk as one worker reflects but what happens when the milk runs out Workers are often pressured into coming by family community even back home are those sacrifices properly appreciated remembered The book s moral seems to be for us to show empathise demonstrate sympathy for all in this world in a world of pain Figures of ridicule turn out to be objects of sympathy It seems almost everyone is nursing a to be told sad story Every man has a river inside Migrant workers it seems are surviving on happy memories of home and family in Sabri a dead young Singaporean co worker lives through the fond memories and prayers of his co workers from many parts of the world In Room Leader dormitory life is evoked a key telling part of migrant experience This story is also a call to perhaps to listen to the wisdom of the young me in this rapidly evolving world Workers cry over a discarded cigarette a ruined fish dish but really they are crying over something else Only good humour understanding and empathy bring some consolation for real Again and again narrators co workers fail to fathom the depth of others trials But maybe we could all try a little better By reading these stories you enter tragic comic lives you perhaps never realised before and yet perhaps uncannily similar in some ways to your own
