Miniature Forests Of Cape Horn Ecotourism With A Hand Lens:

Miniature Forests of Cape Horn Bernard Goffinet, 2012 In the humid forests of Cape Horn a single tree can host more than 100 species of little epiphyte plants The floor of the forest and the rocks are also covered by numerous species of liverworts mosses and lichens The decision to stop at a tree or rock and explore these miniature forests generates an authentic ecotourism experience In a small area we can spend several minutes or hours with a magnifying glass or camera discovering the colors shapes and textures of the most diverse organisms of Cape Horn This guidebook enhances exploration by providing information to understand the architecture life cycles and identification of taxonomic groups of the organisms that form them Field Environmental Philosophy Ricardo Rozzi, Alejandra Tauro, Noa Avriel-Avni, T. Wright, Roy H. May Jr., 2023-06-23 This fifth volume in the Ecology and Ethics series integrates key concepts of the previous four volumes by addressing biocultural conservation through novel educational methods In Field Environmental Philosophy FEP the authors undertake two complementary tasks First they address a problematic facet of education as an indirect driver of a global change and biocultural homogenization Second they contribute to solve the former problems by introducing the FEP method as well as other educational approaches from around the world that value and foster conservation of biological and cultural diversity A particular emphasis is therefore on the integration of sciences arts humanities and ethics into educational practices that involve the participation of local communities with their diverse forms of ecological knowledge and practices The book is divided into four parts Part I introduces FEP concepts and practices that involve a 4 step cycle of transdisciplinary research poetic communication through composition of metaphors design of field activities guided with an ecological and ethical orientation and participation in biocultural conservation activities Part II exposes problems as well as solutions in formal education from preschool to higher education and non formal education to respect biocultural diversity Parts III IV provide case studies developed at long term socio ecological research LTSER sites botanical gardens and other platforms for non formal education that contribute to biocultural conservation This book supports a paradigm shift addressing still understudied indirect drivers of global change to foster the conservation of biological and cultural diversity It is a valuable asset for scientists and practitioners in science and humanities education Art in Science Museums Camilla Rossi-Linnemann, Giulia de Martini, 2019-11-28 Art in Science Museums brings together perspectives from different practitioners to reflect on the status and meaning of art programmes in science centres and museums around the world Presenting a balanced mix of theoretical perspectives practitioners reflections and case studies this volume gives voice to a wide range of professionals from traditional science centres and museums and from institutions born with the very aim of merging art and science practices Considering the role of art in the field of science engagement the book questions whether the arts might help curators to convey complex messages foster a more open and personal approach to scientific issues become tools of inclusion and allow for the production of totally new cultural products The book also includes a rich collection of projects from all over the world synthetically presenting cases that reveal very different approaches to the inclusion of art in science programmes Art in Science Museums should be of great interest to academics researchers and postgraduate students working in the fields of museum studies cultural heritage management material culture science communication and contemporary art It should also be essential reading for museum professionals looking to promote more reflective social science engagement in their institutions
