

Scrutiny of assessment report

The blood storage centre shall take necessary corrective action on the remaining non-conformity to fill the gap and shall submit a report to NABH Secretariat within a time period set by the NABH. When there are significant non-conformity identified during the final assessment, NABH may arrange for a verification visit for ensuring compliance.

After satisfactory corrective action taken by the blood storage centre the accreditation committee examine the assessment report, additional information received from the blood storage centre and consequent verifications. The accreditation committee shall make appropriate recommendations regarding accreditation of a blood storage centre to the Chairman, NABH.

In case the accreditation committee finds deficiencies in the assessment report to arrive at the decision, the Secretariat obtains clarification from the assessor / blood storage centre concerned.

NABH shall issue an accreditation certificate to the blood storage centre with a validity of three years. The certificate has a unique number and date of validity. The certificate is accompanied by the scope of accreditation.
