African Handbook of Climate Change Adaptation Nicholas Oguge,Desalegn Ayal,Lydia Adeleke,Izael da Silva,2021-05-20 This open access book discusses current thinking and presents the main issues and challenges associated with climate change in Africa It introduces evidences from studies and projects which show how climate change adaptation is being and may continue to be successfully implemented in African countries Thanks to its scope and wide range of themes surrounding climate change the ambition is that this book will be a lead publication on the topic which may be regularly updated and hence capture further works Climate change is a major global challenge However some geographical regions are more severely affected than others One of these regions is the African continent Due to a combination of unfavourable socio economic and meteorological conditions African countries are particularly vulnerable to climate change and its impacts The recently released IPCC special report Global Warming of 1.5°C outlines the fact that keeping global warming by the level of 1.5°C is possible but also suggested that an increase by 2.0°C could lead to crises with crops agriculture fed by rain could drop by 50% in some African countries by 2020 and livestock production could damage water supplies and pose an additional threat to coastal areas The 5th Assessment Report produced by IPCC predicts that wheat may disappear from Africa by 2080 and that maize a staple will fall significantly in southern Africa Also arid and semi arid lands are likely to increase by up to 8% with severe ramifications for livelihoods poverty eradication and meeting the SDGs Pursuing appropriate adaptation strategies is thus vital in order to address the current and future challenges posed by a changing climate It is against this background that the African Handbook of Climate Change Adaptation is being published It contains papers prepared by scholars representatives from social movements practitioners and members of governmental agencies undertaking research and or executing climate change projects in Africa and working with communities across the African continent Encompassing over 100 contributions from across Africa it is the most comprehensive publication on climate change adaptation in Africa ever produced

Eastern African Literatures Russell West-Pavlov, 2018-06-04 The Oxford Studies in Postcolonial Literatures series offers stimulating and accessible introductions to definitive topics and key genres and regions within the rapidly diversifying field of postcolonial literary studies in English This volume offers an overview of contemporary Eastern African writing in English since the mid twentieth century It takes a fresh look at what has been an under represented regional literary tradition within what continues to be an under represented continental literary tradition In particular it broadens the scope of such an overview complementing the extant monographs on well known Eastern African writers such as Ngũgĩ to include a host of more recent less publicized novelists dramatists and poets It extends the geographical range of existing studies from the familiar triad of Kenyan Ugandan and Tanzanian traditions of writing in English to include the lesser known Somali Ethiopian or Sudanese or Mauritian or Madagascan traditions Rather than simply addressing national traditions or broad thematic bundles the volume treats works as literatures of a region that is as literatures of place and space Eastern African Literatures stresses the formative role of space place and geography in fashioning the fabric of social interaction whether individual or collective in generating history in moulding identities and as a consequence in defining the shape of the future The spatial perspectives allow the proximate rather than the distant influence of literary art to come into view Proximate modes of literary communication arising out of residual but vibrant traditions of oral communication blend with contemporary media to produce hybrid genres of proximity specific to Eastern African literary production In this way the book also makes a contribution to the ongoing theorization of literary and cultural innovation in the cultures of the Global South Criminal Cities Molly Slavin, 2023-05-24 Why does crime feature at the center of so many postcolonial novels set in major cities This book interrogates the connections that can be found between narratives of crime cities and colonialism to bring to light the ramifications of this literary preoccupation as well as possibilities for cultural aesthetic and political catharsis Examining late twentieth and twenty first century novels set in London Belfast Mumbai Sydney Johannesburg Nairobi and urban areas in the Palestinian West Bank Criminal Cities considers the marks left by neocolonialism and imperialism on the structures institutions and cartographies of twenty first century cities Molly Slavin suggests that literary depictions of urban crime can offer unique capabilities for literary characters as well as readers to process and negotiate that lingering colonial violence while also providing avenues for justice and forms of reparations The Postcolonial Intellectual Oliver Lovesey, 2016-03-03 Addressing a neglected dimension in postcolonial scholarship Oliver Lovesey examines the figure of the postcolonial intellectual as repeatedly evoked by the fabled troika of Said Spivak and Bhabha and by members of the pan African diaspora such as Cabral Fanon and James Lovesey s primary focus is Ng g wa Thiong o one of the greatest writers of post independence Africa Ng g continues to be a vibrant cultural agitator and innovator who in contrast to many other public intellectuals has participated directly in grassroots cultural renewal enduring imprisonment and exile as a consequence of his engagement in political action Lovesey s comprehensive study concentrates on Ng g s non fictional prose writings including his largely overlooked early journalism and his most recent autobiographical and theoretical work He offers a postcolonial critique that acknowledges Ng g s complex position as a virtual spokesperson for the oppressed and global conscience who now speaks from a location of privilege Ng g s writings Lovesey shows display a seemingly paradoxical consistency in their concerns over nearly five decades at the same time that there have been enormous transformations in his ideology and a shift in his focus from Africa s holocaust to Africa s renaissance Lovesey argues that Ng g s view of the intellectual has shifted from an alienated nearly neocolonial stance to a position that allows him to celebrate intellectual activism and a return to the model of the oral vernacular intellectual even as he challenges other global intellectuals Tracing the development of this notion of the postcolonial intellectual Lovesey argues for Ng g s rightful position as a major postcolonial theorist who helped establish postcolonial studies Africa - and I was 19 Leif Lorentzon, 2024-12-18 In this book Leif Lorentzon tells of the journey he made 50 years ago when 19 years old He hitch hiked alone through almost entire Africa He kept a diary as company and this has enabled him to memorize and narrate this often adventures and strenuous travel but also joyful He met a lot of lovely people both fellow globetrotters and locals in the many towns and villages he found himself As Leif Lorentzon later came to study the continents literature this has also made its way into the narrative But chiefly it is an exciting story of hippie travelling through Africa The Minotaur's Head Marek Krajewski, 2014-08-26 The fourth volume in the Inspector Eberhard Mock Quintet the series called As Noir as it gets by the The Independent When Abwehr Captain Eberhard Mock is called from his New Year's Eve revelries to attend a particularly grisly crime scene his notoriously robust stomach is turned A young girl and suspected spy who arrived by train from France just days before has been found dead in her hotel room the flesh torn from her cheek by her assailant's teeth Ill at ease with the increasingly open integration of S S Gestapo and police Mock is partially relieved to be assigned to liaise with officers in Lvov Poland where a series of similar crimes as yet unsolved cast a long shadow over the town In Lvov he joins the ongoing investigation conducted by Commissioner Popielksi a fellow classicist who relies on a highly unorthodox method of deduction Meanwhile Popielski is worried by the behaviour of his only daughter Rita Her head has been turned by her charismatic drama teacher and now unbeknownst to her father she has started receiving letters from an ardent secret admirer Eberhard Mock older a little wiser but still a libertine at heart and equally at home in the underworld as in the ranks of authority once again confirms his position as the most outrageous and unpredictable detective in crime fiction
