Facts and Naked Truths George Englebretsen, 2017-09-29 The very idea of truth as a substantial and meaningful concept has been under attack recently from advocates of New Age and postmodern theories In this book Englebretsen defends the notions of truth and objectivity as key to the scientific view of the natural world and presents an original defence of the commonsense correspondence theory of truth Englebretsen's approach overcomes the traditional difficulties of correspondence theories of truth with providing adequate and convincing accounts of truth bearers truth makers and the correspondence relation between them by taking truth bearers to be propositions and facts as constitutive properties of the world This accessibly written book surveys all of the major competing theories of truth coherence pragmatic redundancy semantic deflationary disquotational minimalist before formulating the new defence of the correspondence theory and then exploring the consequences of the theory for issues in epistemology and ontology The book concludes by showing how the idea of propositional depth can be used to dissolve the Liar paradoxes
