Bennett, 2012-10-30 This cutting edge title explores how narrating the past both conflicts and creates an interesting relationship with drama's continuing present that arcs towards an unpredictable future Theatre both brings the past alive and also fixes it but through the performance process allowing the past to be molded for future not yet existent audiences A Reader's Companion to the Confucian Analects H. Rosemont, 2012-10-29 This companion is not intended as another interpretation of the ancient text but rather as an aid for contemporary students to develop their own interpretive reading of it in the hope of thereby aiding them in the search for meaning purpose and service in their own lives as seventy three generations of Chinese have done American Politics in the Age of Ignorance: Why Lawmakers Choose Belief over Research D. Schultz, 2015-12-11 American Politics in the Age of Ignorance looks at ten policy myths and bad ideas that governments and public officials most often conservatives consistently repeat and re enact Acting on these myths the policies inevitably fail and thereby reinforce preconceived beliefs that government is ineffective at solving problems Identity, Culture, and the Science Performance Volume 2 Vivian Appler, Meredith Conti, 2023-10-05 Volume 2 of Identity Culture and the Science Performance investigates performances that illuminate the hidden recesses and inscrutable mysteries of the natural and human made worlds While the first volume of this series prioritizes public outward facing and activist work at the intersections of art and science this volume considers performances of localized concealed inexplicable or intimate phenomena from the closed door procedures of biomedical trials to the impacts of climate change Interdisciplinary science dialogues have long been shaped by the cultures and identity communities in which they arise and circulate The essays interviews and creative works included here not only expose the historical and contemporary harms created by exclusive and prejudicial processes in art and science they also contemplate how a diverse inclusive body of science performers might help deepen how we see the unseen forces of our universe contribute to novel scientific understandings and disrupt disciplinary hierarchies long dominated by white men of privilege This collection expands upon extant scholarship on theatre and science by foregrounding identity as a crucial thematic and representational element within past and present performances of science Featuring interviews with science integrative artists such as Lauren Gundersen The Half Life of Marie Curie and Kim TallBear Native American DNA as well as creative works by playwrights Chantal Bilodeau and Claudia Barnett among others Identity Culture and the Science Performance Volume 2 From the Curious to the Quantum proposes shifts in perspective and procedure necessary to establish and maintain sustainable cultures of science and art Analytic Philosophy and the World of the Play Michael Y.

Bennett,2017-07-14 Theatrical characters dual existence on stage and in text presents a unique challenging case for the analytical philosopher Analytic Philosophy and the World of the Play re examines the ontological status of theatre and its fictional objects through the possible worlds thesis arguing that theatre is not a mirror of our world but a re creation of it Taking a fresh look at theatre s key elements including the hotly contested relationships between character and actor onstage and offstage worlds and the play text and performance Michael Y Bennett presents a radical new way of understanding the world of the play

The Problems of Viewing Performance Michael Y. Bennett,2021-03-15 The Problems of Viewing Performance challenges long held assumptions by considering the ways in which knowledge is received by more than a single audience member and breaks new ground by counterintuitively claiming that viewing performance is not a shared experience Given that viewers come to each performance with differing amounts and types of knowledge they each make different assumptions as to how the performance will unfold Often modified by other viewers and often after the performance event knowledge of performance is made more accurate by superimposing the experiences and justified beliefs of multiple viewers These differences in the viewing experience make knowledge surrounding a performance intersubjective Ultimately this book explains the how and the why audience members have different viewing experiences The Problems of Viewing Performance is important reading

Pathology of the Capitalist Spirit D. Levine,2013-04-05 Pathology of the Capitalist Spirit is about capital and about the economic system that bears its name In this book Levine argues that our pursuit of ever more wealth in the form of capital expresses our dissatisfaction with the world we live in with what we have and what we don t have Capital embodies our hope for something different Because capital embodies this hope it has become desire s object In his study of capitalism Levine explores the meaning of capital as a social reality connected to fundamental human aspirations The link between capital and the pursuit of a hoped for state is especially important in light of the stubborn insistence on the part of its critics that capitalism exists to serve the material interests of those whose vocation is to own capital This misunderstanding ignores what is essential about capital which is its link not to interests but to hope especially the hope that by accumulating capital the individual can achieve an attachment to the good It is this hope that blocks tolerance of any notion that there is something unfair in the capitalist s acquisition of wealth and that fairness can be achieved through its redistribution to others It is also this hope that animates the capitalist system as a whole And in that sense this hope is the spirit of capitalism To develop this theme Levine calls on the ideas and writings of major theorists involved with understanding modernity and capitalism Adam Smith Karl Marx Max Weber Emile Durkheim and Joseph Schumpeter Live To Your Local Cinema M. Barker,2012-10-30 The digital broadcasting of performances to cinemas or livecasting burst onto the world scene in 2006 This book explores the reasons for its rise examines the aesthetics of filming theatre and opera performances and explores

Sassower, 2013-04-26 This book adopts an explicitly postmodernist perspective of the digital revolution While exploring issues relating to the re creation of social life in the digital world its main focus is on the political economy and in particular the extent to which the paradigms of capitalism and socialism can be mapped as postcapitalism onto this new world

Moments, Attachment and Formations of Selfhood Kelly Forrest, 2012-10-30 Using innovative empirical data this book presents a unique approach to looking at moments exploring the deeper meanings of why memories stand out and how they influence an individual s sense of self Forrest challenges the privileged position of narrative coherence as the basis for healthy identity and formations of selfhood
