Research Methods in Intercultural Communication Zhu Hua, 2016-01-19 Research Methods in Intercultural Communication introduces and contextualizes the most important methodological issues in the field for upper level undergraduate and graduate students Examples of these issues are which paradigms and how to research multilingually interculturally and ethnically Provides the first dedicated and most comprehensive volume on research methods in intercultural communication research in the last 30 years Explains new and emerging methods as well as more established ones These include Matched Guise Technique Discourse Completion Task Critical Incident Technique Critical Discourse Analysis Ethnography Virtual Ethnography Corpus Analysis Multimodality Conversation Analysis Narrative Analysis Questionnaire and Interview Assists readers in determining the most suitable method for various research questions conceptualizing the research process interpreting results and drawing conclusions Supports students from start to finish with key terms suggestions for further reading research summaries and sound guidance from experienced scholars and researchers Willingness to Communicate, Multilingualism and Interactions in Community Contexts Alastair Henry, Peter D. MacIntyre, 2023-10-10 This book presents the findings of an in depth qualitative longitudinal investigation into the willingness to communicate WTC of individuals who through varying migration channels left one cultural linguistic context to make a new life in another It examines communication behaviours and language choice in multilingual community contexts and emphasises how even the most trivial of communication events are embedded in histories of previous communication and are influenced by emotions connected with a person s overall life situation The book fills a gap in contemporary WTC research by examining how WTC operates in multilingual community contexts Through the use of a complexity lens and the presentation of a revised 3D pyramid model the authors demonstrate the dynamic nature of WTC and shed new light on processes that affect communication migration and well being This book will be of interest to researchers seeking to explore individual differences using context sensitive and temporally focused designs During the Dissertation Christine Pearson Casanave, 2020-06-01 A textual mentor like During the Dissertation can fill a void in writers lives at a time of solitude uncertainty and anxiety Keep it under your pillow This volume is a sequel to Casanave s popular Before the Dissertation Like that volume this book is designed as a companion for doctoral dissertation writers of qualitative or mixed methods work in fields related to language education It could also benefit those writing master s theses and those writing in other social science fields It is meant to be consulted once the writing has begun once students have settled on a topic designed the project or collected the data because this is the time when they are analyzing drafting revising polishing and probably fretting deleting reconstructing and even losing sleep Also like its predecessor it is not designed to teach anyone how to write a dissertation as there are plenty of those available elsewhere For most doctoral students writing will happen at different stages of the project Strategies for timing of these kinds of writing differ across students and also across supervisors and advisers If dissertation writers do not know by the time they start writing which strategies and issues pertain to them this book can help them craft some approaches to suit their own personalities preferred practices and individual goals and visions as well as help them figure out how dissertation writing might fit into the real life intrusions of work and family Issues covered in the book are starting to write envisioning the project as a whole relationships with supervisors perfectionism and other maladies health low and high IQ days loneliness and isolation distractions and interruptions revising and knowing when to stop
