into being in the VIth century with Thales just as a mere disinterested pursuit of truth a curiosity for great problems those even tually called metaphysical ones which were substantially identical with those which Aristotle himself and his school were now raising This abstract reading is very similar to that which views Greek poets as inspired by eternal beauty or by art s for art sake and which is nowadays completely discredited and given up by scholars of the history of literature Against this view the present text pro poses a new reading of the archaic presocratic scientists in fact it is about those sages who lived on

Dyson, Robert J. Rowland, Jr., 2007 With one of the richest archaeological records and most complicated histories in the Mediterranean Sardinia provides an important laboratory for studying the interaction of indigenous societies and outside forces in a partly isolated geographical context Stephen L Dyson and Robert J Rowland Jr use both material culture and written documents to reconstruct the social and economic processes of an island society that showed both cultural creativity and continuity but responded to invasions from the Phoenicians through the Romans to the Aragonese This first accessible reconstruction of island archaeology provides a balanced picture of the sweep of Sardinian history Geotechnical Engineering for the Preservation of Monuments and Historic Sites III Renato Lancellotta, Carlo Viggiani, Alessandro Flora, Filomena de Silva, Lucia Mele, 2022-06-14 This book contains the invited lectures presented at the 3th International Symposium on Geotechnical Engineering for the Preservation of Monuments and Historic Sites IS NAPOLI 2022 Naples Italy 22-24 June 2022. It collects the opening address, the third Kerisel Lecture, four keynote lectures and eleven panel lectures and provides a broad impression of 1) the current state of knowledge and 2) the techniques used worldwide for the preservation of built heritage. When confronted with structures relevant to local and global history, there is only one way to select the best possible conservation solution: the multidisciplinary approach. Therefore, the invited speakers have been selected with different pertinent skills to represent this complexity from the points of view of geotechnical engineers, structural engineers, architects and conservation experts. The book will be useful to researchers, practitioners, administrations and all those working or interested in the preservation of built heritage. The Duties Of The Vizier G. P. F. Van Den Boorn, 2014-05-12 Part of a collection on Studies in Egyptology and originally published in 1988, this monograph looks at Rekhmara's expeditions, les affaires du gouvernement, a text by Philippe Virey which describes the organisation of the Egyptian State under the eighteenth Dynasty. It was later renamed as The Duties of the Vizier. The Oxford Handbook of Pre-Roman Italy (1000-49 BCE) Marco Maiuro, Jane Botsford Johnson, 2024 The Oxford Handbook of Pre-Roman Italy provides a comprehensive account of the many peoples who lived on the Italian peninsula during the last millennium BCE. Written by more than fifty authors, the book describes the diversity of these indigenous cultures, their languages, interactions and reciprocal influences. It gives emphasis to Greek colonization, the rise of aristocracies, technological innovations and the spread of literacy, which provided the urban texture that shaped the history of the Italian peninsula. Corporatism and Fascism Antonio Costa Pinto, 2017-02-17 This book is the first conceptual and comparative empirical work on the relation between corporatism and dictatorships, bringing both fields under a joint conceptual umbrella. It operationalizes the concepts of social and political corporatism, diffusion and critical junctures and their particular application to the study of Fascist Era dictatorships. The book's carefully constructed balance between theory and case studies offers an important contribution to the study of dictatorships and corporatism. Through the development of specific indicators in critical junctures of regime change and institutionalization, as well as qualitative data based on different sources such as party manifestos, constitutions and constitutional reforms, expert commissions and the legislation that introduces corporatism, this book traces transnational sources of inspiration in different national contexts. By bringing together a number of both established and new voices from across the field, this book will be of interest to students and scholars of fascism, dictatorship and modern European politics. Storia del Dogma Adolf von Harnack, 1911 Home After Fascism Anna Koch, 2023-10-03 Home after Fascism draws on a rich array of memoirs, interviews, correspondence and archival research to tell the stories of Italian and German Jews who returned to their home countries after the Holocaust. The book reveals Jews complex and often changing feelings toward their former homes and highlights the ways in which three distinct national contexts East German West German and Italian shaped their answers to the question is this home Returning Italian and German Jews renegotiated their place in national communities that had targeted them for persecution and extermination While most Italian Jews remained deeply attached to their home country German Jews struggled to feel at home in the country of murderers Yet some retained a sense of belonging through German culture and language or felt attached to a specific region or city Still others looked to the future socialist and communists of Jewish origin hoped to build a better Germany in the Soviet Occupied Zone In all three postwar states surviving Jews fought against persistent antisemitism faced the challenge of recovering lost homes and possessions struggled to make sense of their persecution and tried to find ways to reclaim a sense of belonging Wide ranging and moving Home after Fascism enriches our understanding of Jews homecoming experiences after 1945 It reveals the deep affection and persistent love people feel for their homes the suffering that comes with losing them and the challenges of a return
