going Most of all we come to understand as best we can the One who sends us on our way from the Introduction Rabbi Arthur Green leads us on a journey of discovery to seek God the world and ourselves One of the most influential Jewish thinkers of our time Green has created a roadmap of meaning for our lives in the light of Jewish mysticism using the Hebrew letters that make up the divine name Yod Reality at the beginning God as the oneness of being at the outset before it unfolds into our universe Heh Creation and God's presence in the world A renewed faith in God as Creator has powerful implications for us today Vav Revelation the central faith claim of Judaism and the claim it makes on our lives Heh Redemption and our return to God through the life of Torah and by participating in the ongoing repair of the world A personal and honest framework of understanding for the seeker this revised and updated edition of a classic sheds new light on our search for the divine presence in our everyday lives I'm God; You're Not Rabbi Lawrence Kushner, 2010-09-15 Flashes of insight surprising entertaining inspiring from one of the most creative spiritual thinkers in America The goal of all spiritual life is to get your ego out of the way outwit the sucker dissolve it shoot it kill it Silence the incessant planning organizing running manipulating possessing and processing that are the ineluctable redoubts of the ego Not because these activities are bad or wrong or even narcissistic but because they preclude awareness of the Divine To paraphrase the Talmud God says There ain't room enough in this here world for your ego and Me You pick from the Introduction Tapping the experiences and wisdom of his career as a spiritual leader Lawrence Kushner delights surprises challenges and inspires us With his signature candor wit and compassion he helps us reconnect with the why and how of our spiritual lives He encourages us to find new perspectives on the life stuff that shapes them and gently reminds us of the Source of it All These inspiring often startling insights will warm you during the dark times of your own doubts even as they brighten your quest for meaning faith identity community and holiness Jewish Theology in Our Time Bradley Shavit Artson, Rachel Sabath Beit-Halachmi, 2012-12 A powerful and challenging examination of what Jews believe today by a new generation's dynamic and innovative thinkers New in Paperback At every critical juncture in Jewish history Jews have understood a dynamic theology to be essential for a vital Jewish community This important collection sets the next stage of Jewish theological thought bringing together a cross section of interesting new voices from all movements in Judaism to inspire and stimulate discussion now and in the years to come Provocative and wide ranging these invigorating and creative insights from a new generation's thought leaders provide a coherent and inspiring picture of Jewish belief in our time The passionate voices of a new generation of Jewish thinkers continue the dialogue with God examining the dynamics of what Jews can believe today They explore A dynamic God in process The canon of Jewish literature and its potential to be both contemporary and authentic to tradition Critical terms and categories for discussing Jewish theology The ongoing nature of the Jewish search for God Ruptures within the modern Jewish condition And much more Ehyeh Dr. Arthur Green, 2011-11-16 What can Kabbalah teach us about our lives today What can it teach us about our future According to the Jewish mystical tradition of Kabbalah Ehyeh or I shall be is the

The Book of Words Rabbi Lawrence Kushner, 2011-04-01 According to the Hebrew Bible God made the world with words God just spoke and the world became reality The Aramaic for I create as I speak is avara k davara or in magician's language abracadabra This does not protect words from the numbing effects of overuse in any religious tradition We need to dust off the words shake away the accretions wonder again about what they originally might have meant and enable ourselves to live in the word from the Introduction With creativity and poetry and occasional heresy Kushner dusts off thirty classical Hebrew words shakes them free of the effects of generations of overuse re translates them and liberates their ancient holy power The result is a contemporary spiritual guide for your personal religious life According to the Hebrew Bible God made the world with words God just spoke and the world came into being Words therefore are not merely sounds signifying something else they are instruments of creation primary reality itself They need only to be read spoken and interpreted And to know them is to know reality itself Kushner has designed the book himself seamlessly blending graphics and content In doing so he evokes the aesthetics of an ancient manuscript and a vision of our power to shape the future Each finely crafted chapter begins with a Hebrew word and Kushner's provocative English translation At the bottom of the page is a transliteration of the Hebrew along with its more customary English rendering In addition to his own intriguing definition he includes a biblical citation anchoring the word along with a more recent text showing the word's evolution Finally we are offered a personal meditative exercise designed to enable you to live in the word
