Christians This is a must read for church officers pastors and ministry directors in the Christian church Ron C Smith PhD D Min President Southern Union Conference of SDA Every year many thousands of people hear the Good News of Jesus Christ and choose to be baptized and join a church community Unfortunately it is also true that every year many new converts leave a church relatively shortly after joining The specific reasons that each person leaves the church could fill a book by themselves but they all boil down to one thing a lack of focus on the part of the church community on turning converts into disciples of our Savior A disciple of Christ does more than attend church services A disciple is an active member of the church community A disciple is a witness to others A disciple seeks to grow the church by seeking to lead everyone they meet to Christ Dr Benoit Petit Homme is a committed disciple of Christ and after extensive study of exactly why new converts leave the church he has developed a process by which any church can make disciples All it takes is a little extra work a bit of encouragement and an unwavering faith in the Lord Doing Church at the Amplify Open and Affirming Conferences Joseph N. Goh, 2021-06-03 This book is a dedicated academic study of Amplify a series of open and affirming Christian conferences in Asia that provides spaces of worship support fellowship collaboration and networking for LGBTIQ affirming churches Through a detailed analysis of narratives from fourteen Amplify frontliners comprising co founders hosts organisers co organisers speakers consultants and other active contributors this volume chronicles the historical development of Amplify from its 2009 inception in Singapore to subsequent occurrences in Hong Kong Indonesia Malaysia Singapore and most recently Taiwan in 2018 Written at the intersection of gender sexuality and theology the focus of this volume lies in the construction of Asian LGBTIQ ecclesiologies that emanate from and speak to the theological vision of doing church at Amplify

Bishop William H. Willimon, 2012 As a church leader it's easy to make the wrong move and find yourself in a bad position What to teach How to teach What to do were the three questions Wesley employed at his first conferences In sixty previous books Will Willimon has worked the first two This book is of the What to do genre Many believe the long decline of The United Methodist Church is a crisis of effective leadership Willimon takes this problem on As an improbable bishop for the last eight years he has laid hands on heads made ordinands promise to go where he sends them overseen their ministries and acted as if this were normal Here is his account of what he has learned and more important what The United Methodist Church must do to have a future as a viable movement of the Holy Spirit The Beauty of Preaching Michael Pasquarello, 2020-08-27 What does beauty have to do with healing the fragmentation within our churches According to Michael Pasquarello everything Amid the cacophony of ugly political invective that dominates nearly every space today including church only God has the power to unify and heal through his truth and goodness revealed in his beauty And every Sunday those in the pulpit have the opportunity and responsibility to share this beauty with their parishioners Tapping into a long tradition that can be traced back to Augustine Michael Pasquarello explores a theological definition of beauty that has tremendous revelatory power in a post Christendom world A church manifesting this beauty is not merely a gathering of people but a place where God's new creation appears in the midst of the old creation ushered in by a pastor willing to make God the primary actor within the doxological craft of preaching The Cambridge Companion to American Methodism Jason E. passages of Scripture in both the Old and New Testaments examining the thread of healing throughout church history and presenting a theological basis for healing and deliverance ministry Bob Sawvelle demonstrates that through the healing gifts Jesus is still glorified the sick are still healed the oppressed are still freed and God's kingdom advances in the earth as it ever has

Embracing the Past—Forging the Future Wm. Andrew Schwartz, John M. Bechtold, 2015-09-17 The times they are a changin' As such our theology needs to adapt to be responsive to the changing landscape The idea for Embracing the Past Forging the Future A New Generation of Wesleyan Theology came from our assessment that Wesleyan theology has yet to fully adapt to this changing landscape and that the future of Wesleyan theology requires the bringing together of old and new voices The difficult task of balancing between continuity and change keeping up with the developments of our culture and staying true to the roots of our tradition requires the dual focus of looking forward and backward simultaneously In this volume we have brought together contributions by young Wesleyan scholars graduate students and junior faculty as a way of illustrating and articulating a new generation of Wesleyan theology These younger voices demonstrate the desire to push Wesleyan theology in new directions Additionally we have included contributions from senior scholars who have been doing important work and who have already made significant contributions to Wesleyan theology This is not simply the old guard but the voices of scholars who continue to make a profound impact on Wesleyan theology Theologies of Failure Robert Sirvent, Duncan B. Reyburn, 2020-01-01 What does failure mean for theology In the Bible we find some unsettling answers to this question We find lastness usurping firstness and foolishness undoing wisdom We discover too a weakness more potent than strength and a loss of life that is essential to finding life Jesus himself offers an array of paradoxes and puzzles through his life and teachings He even submits himself to humiliation and death to show the cosmos the true meaning of victory As David Bentley Hart observes most of us would find Christians truly cast in the New Testament mold fairly obnoxious civically reprobate ideologically unsound economically destructive politically irresponsible socially discreditable and really just a bit indecent By incorporating the work of scholars working with a range of frameworks within the Christian tradition Theologies of Failure aims to offer a unique and important contribution on understanding and embracing failure as a pivotal theological category As the various contributors highlight it is a category with a powerful capacity for illuminating our theological concerns and perspectives It is a category that frees us to see old ideas in a brand new light and helps to foster an awareness of ideas that certain modes of analysis may have obscured from our vision In short this book invites readers to consider how both theology and failure can help us ask new questions discover new possibilities and refuse the ways of the world Religion Index One ,1995 American Book Publishing Record Cumulative 1998 R R Bowker Publishing,1999-03 ThirdWay ,1986-10 Monthly current affairs magazine from a Christian perspective with a focus on politics society economics and culture Contemporary Authors CONTEMPORARY.,1981 The Catholic Periodical and Literature Index ,2003
