Volume 2 Paul L. Dawson, 2019-05-30 The author of Battle for Paris 1815 examines the uniforms and equipment of the cavalry of Napoleon's Imperial Guard Few military formations have attracted more attention than Napoleon's Imperial Guard and fewer still have been so extravagantly clothed and accoutered with the finest materials and the brightest colors On both campaign and parade the Guard and especially the cavalry regiments provided a dazzling display of military grandeur From the green and gold trappings of the Chasseurs Cheval to the multicolored Mamelukes the Guard cavalry was among the most brilliantly dressed formations ever to grace the field of battle In compiling this magnificent volume the author has collected copies of almost all the surviving documents relating to the Guard which includes a vast amount of material regarding the issuing of dress items even in some instances down to company level This information is supported by around 100 contemporary prints many of which have never been published before as well as images of original items of equipment held in museums and private collections across the globe In addition the renown military artist Keith Rocco has produced a series of unique paintings commissioned exclusively for this book This glorious book is and will remain unsurpassed as the standard work on the clothing and equipment of the cavalry of the Imperial Guard It is sure to be treasured by reenactors wargamers and modelers as well as historians and enthusiasts as one of the most important publications ever produced on this most famous of military formations
