the construction of space where space is the outcome of human action and interaction as well as providing a context for actions and interaction The book shows how different forms of space lie at the base of a number of developments in organization theory It then takes the step to show how contemporary developments in social science represented by works by writers such as Giddens Luhmann Latour and Bourdieu can be used to establish a dynamic understanding of organization as space Insights from these discussions are used to establish a unique and coherent way of understanding complexities of The Routledge Companion to Mergers and Acquisitions Annette Risberg, David R.
