Academic Quality and Integrity in the New Higher Education Digital Environment A Global Perspective provides discussions on the work of three editors who have significant experience in the quality assurance of teaching and learning and have been developing approaches during the recent COVID 19 pandemic Discussions on learning and teaching during the pandemic were concentrated on how academic institutions ensure quality of courses and that academic integrity is maintained in all assessments in a digital environment thus ensuring what is being delivered meets global standards and professional bodies have confidence in programs delivered by the higher education sector The area of quality assurance and academic integrity is thus critical in this new digital environment where significant educational programs will be delivered Provides updates on what university administrators are doing to face challenges on how to maintain the quality of their programs during digital learning Addresses concerns on the quality of their programs and academic integrity is maintained at all times Proposes new practices and innovative approaches to bring to the attention of stakeholders in a central depository so that there can be informed approaches in institutions and in the set up of regulatory practices South Africa Can Work Frans

Rautenbach, 2017-08-18 What will it take to turn South Africa around In this insightful and provocative book Frans Rautenbach proposes a complete overhaul of policy thinking and provides fresh arguments that effectively address South Africa's unemployment race problems and lack of education Rautenbach examines the fundamental problem of rent seeking to which he proposes two antidotes the free market and decentralisation of government Along the way he tackles holy cows such as affirmative action trade unions labour law and welfare payments He also addresses contentious topics such as racism white privilege political correctness state funding of higher education and mounting evidence that trade unions substantially suppress employment growth Written by a labour lawyer with a proven track record in a range of policy issues South Africa Can Work speaks effectively to a cross section of readers of all disciplines and brings sorely needed good news

Multilingual Higher Education Christa van der Walt, 2013-04-12 The general perception that a good command of English is enough to gain access and to be successful in higher education hides the complexity of learning and teaching in multilingual environments and this book shows that all higher education environments are multilingual to some extent Strategies like translation interpreting and switching from one language to another not only support learning but also build competence for multilingual professional environments Whether institutions focus on widening access to minoritised communities or whether they want to attract more international students the book argues that a multilingual pedagogy is needed to improve student access and success Building on work by Nancy Hornberger Colin Baker and Ofelia Garc a the book extends strategies and techniques from bilingual education at school level to multilingual higher education Rural Transitions to Higher Education in South Africa Sue Timmis, Thea de Wet, Kibashini Naidoo, Sheila Trahar, Lisa

Lucas,Emmanuel Mfanafuthi Mqgwashu,Patricia Muhuro,Gina Wisker,2021-09-14 This unique and timely book focuses on research conducted into the experiences of students from rural backgrounds in South Africa foregrounding decolonial perspectives on their negotiation of access and transitions to higher education This book highlights not only the challenges of coming from a rural background against the historical backdrop of apartheid and ongoing colonialism but also shows the immense assets that students from rural areas bring into higher education Through detailed narratives created by student co researchers the book charts early experiences in rural communities negotiations of transitions to university and in many cases to urban life and students subsequent journeys through higher education spaces and curricula The book will be of significant interest and value to those engaged in rurality research across diverse settings those interested in the South African higher education context and higher education more widely Its innovative participatory methodology will be invaluable to researchers seeking to conduct collaborative research that draws on decolonising approaches Routledge

Handbook of African Social Work Education Susan Levy,Uzoma Odera Okoye,Pius T. Tanga,Richard Ingram,2024-06-06 This timely Routledge Handbook creates a much needed space to explore what makes social work uniquely African as well as shaping informing and influencing a new culturally relevant era of social work The specific focus on social work education offers approaches to transition away from the hegemony of Western literature knowledge and practice models underpinning African social work education The authors identify what is relevant and meaningful to inform influence and reconceptualise culturally relevant social work curriculum Covering Botswana Cameroon Ethiopia Ghana Guinea Kenya Malawi Nigeria South Africa Tanzania Uganda Zambia and Zimbabwe the Handbook comprises both empirical and conceptual chapters multiple approaches case studies and key debates on social work education It is structured in four parts Approaches to Indigenising Decolonising and Developing Culturally Relevant Social Work Education Social Work Education Evolution across Contexts Embedding Field Practicum into Social Work Education Knowledge Exchange between the Global South and Global North The range of indigenous local knowledge that the Handbook presents is crucial to social work evolving and facilitating for reciprocal learning and knowledge exchange between the Global South and Global North Whilst the context of the Handbook is Africa the topics covered are relevant to a global audience engaged in social justice work across social work social welfare social development and sustainability Open Learning as a Means of Advancing Social Justice Tabisa Mayisela,Shanali Govender,2024-01-23

This volume investigates the uptake of open learning in South African Technical Vocational Education and Training TVET colleges and higher education institutions Comprised of 16 studies focused on activities at a range of colleges and universities across the country these chapters aim to promote a better understanding of open learning practices across the Post School Education and Training PSET sector including issues such as recognition of prior learning access for students with disabilities work integrated learning professional development novel student funding mechanisms leadership for open educational practices institutional culture student support blended and online learning flexible learning online assessment open educational resource development models and funding and micro credentials This collection of peer reviewed chapters contributes to understanding the ways in which South African PSET institutions and educators are interpreting open learning as a means of advancing social justice It includes a historical and contemporary understanding of the economic cultural and political obstacles facing PSET drawing on Nancy Fraser s theory of social justice as participatory parity to better understand the ways in which open learning may address systemic social injustices in order to allow South African students and educators to thrive This volume emerges from research conducted by the Cases on Open Learning COOL project an initiative by the Department of Higher Education and Training in partnership with the Centre for Innovation in Learning and Teaching CILT at the University of Cape Town UCT in South Africa Covid-19: Interdisciplinary Explorations of Impacts on Higher Education Tennyson Mgutshini,Kunle Oparinde ,Vaneshree Govender,2021-06-01

Premised on the disruption and lessons learnt from the Covid 19 pandemic and in meticulous response to the impact of the pandemic on higher education especially in South Africa this collection of chapters spotlights the effects consequences and ramifications of an unprecedented pandemic in the areas of knowledge production knowledge transfer and innovation With the pandemic the traditional way of teaching and learning was completely upended It is within this context that this book presents interdisciplinary perspectives that focus on what the impact of Covid 19 implies for higher education institutions Contributors have critically reflected from within their specific academic disciplines in their attempt to proffer solutions to the disruptions brought to the South African higher education space Academics and education leaders have particularly responded to the objective of this book by focusing on how the academia could tackle the Covid 19 motivated disruption and resuscitate teaching research and innovation activities in South African higher education and the whole of Africa by extension

Access to Higher Education Graeme Atherton,2017-09-16 This book is the first systematic attempt to examine one of the biggest challenges facing universities and society in the 21st century how do we create opportunities to allow people from all social backgrounds to benefit from higher education It examines how policymakers higher education institutions and civil society organisations are meeting this challenge across the globe Each chapter focuses on one of 12 countries including the economically powerful US and Germany developing nations from Africa and South America and the new higher education superpowers of China and India Access to Higher Education shows that across these different nations inequalities in higher education participation are common but their nature differs It argues for a new nationhood based approach to understanding why these differences exist
