Sticky Faith Service Guide Kara Powell, Brad M. Griffin, 2016-02-02 Anyone who serves teenagers today knows that more and more young people are eager to make a difference in the world When students participate in short term missions service and justice causes parents and youth leaders hope these experiences will lead to real transformation But research shows that our efforts don't always stick If we truly want short term work to translate into long term change leaders and students must spend more time before during and after service projects preparing for and processing their experiences The sessions in this leader's guide will help you create experiences that stick both for the students you take and the communities you serve This guidebook offers a host of practical and field tested exercises for each phase of your experience whether it's a half day local service project or a two week trip overseas Participants will engage in hands on experiences to gain new insights about themselves their relationship with God their teammates and the world we're called to love and serve Each of these steps is a catalyst in helping students apply what they have learned in the field to their own lives back at home Also included are ideas to help get parents and the whole church engaged in service together A companion student journal is also available to boost the potential for personal application throughout the journey

Intergenerational Christian Formation Holly Catterton Allen, Christine Lawton, Cory L. Seibel, 2023-06-13 In a revised and updated edition this comprehensive up to date text offers a framework for intentional intergenerational Christian formation It provides the theoretical foundation of intergenerationality then gives concrete practical guidance on how worship learning community and service can all be achieved intergenerationally

Sticky Faith Service Guide, Student Journal Kara E. Powell, Brad M. Griffin, 2016-02-02 So you're on fire you want to make a difference you want to change the world but how Signing up for a service project or mission trip is a great first step But you probably have a lot of questions Are you ready for the different cultures you may encounter How are you going to really connect with the people you serve And what about when you come home how do you make sense of all the things you've experienced Will any of it make a lasting difference for anyone It turns out that if you really want to change the world you have to change too The only way that's going to happen is if you spend time before during and after your trip preparing for and processing your work This Journal will help you think about Why you're going The people you're serving Your relationship with your teammates How God factors into your service project The impact your experience has had on you How you can keep making a difference back at home If you think you're fired up to serve now just wait This hands on Journal will equip you to serve in a way that sticks both for you and those you serve

Growing With Kara Powell, Steven Argue, 2019-03-05 Many parents of a teenager or young adult feel as though they're guessing about what to do next with mixed results We want to stay connected with our maturing child but we're not sure how And deep down we fear our child doesn't want or need us Based on brand new research and interviews with remarkable families Growing With equips parents to take steps toward their teenagers and young adults in a mutual journey of intentional growth that trusts God to transform them all By highlighting three groundbreaking family strategies authors Kara Powell and Steven Argue show parents that it s never too early or too late to accept the child you have not the child you wish you had work toward solutions rather than only identifying problems develop empathy that nudges rather than judges fight for your child not against them connect your children with a faith and church big enough to handle their doubts and struggles dive into tough discussions about dating career and finances and unleash your child s passions and talents to change our world For any parent who longs for their kids to keep their roots even as they spread their wings Growing With offers practical help and hope for the days and years ahead T.S. Stribling Kenneth W. Vickers,2004 Henry Poggioli a psychologist and amateur detective who often solved the case just a little too late BOOK JACKET Deep Justice Journeys Leader's Guide Kara E. Powell,Brad M. Griffin,2009-05-04 The lessons included in this leader s guide to Deep Justice Journeys will help teachers prepare students for mission trips and service work Backpacker ,2001-03 Backpacker brings the outdoors straight to the reader s doorstep inspiring and enabling them to go more places and enjoy nature more often The authority on active adventure Backpacker is the world s first GPS enabled magazine and the only magazine whose editors personally test the hiking trails camping gear and survival tips they publish Backpacker s Editors Choice Awards an industry honor recognizing design feature and product innovation has become the gold standard against which all other outdoor industry awards are measured Deep Justice Journeys Student Journal Kara Powell,2009-10-06 So you re fired up you want to make a difference you want to change the world but how Signing up for your church s mission trip or service project is a great first step and you are definitely going to make a difference in someone s life But are you ready for the different cultures you may encounter How are you going to really connect with the people you serve And what about when you come home how do you make sense of all the things you ve experienced It s easy to forget your experiences in the mission field especially when the people around you haven t had those same experiences And it is easy to go back to living your life the way you were before but if you really want to change the world you have to change too The only way that is going to happen is if you spend some time before during and after your service preparing for and processing your justice work As you use this journal you will start to think about the people you are serving your relationship with your teammates how God factors in to your service project the impact your experience has had on you how you can continue to make a difference in the world around you If you think you re fired up for service now just wait As you complete the creative and fun exercises included in this journal you will be energized for justice work you ll learn how to apply this to your own life and nothing will be able to stop you Deep Justice Journeys Kara E. Powell,Brad M. Griffin,2009-05-01 If you really want to make a difference you have to change too The only way that is going to happen is if you spend some time before during and after your service preparing for and processing all that you ve experienced The Deep Justice Journeys journal has activities that will get you fired up to serve others and will help make sure your service makes a lasting impact Forthcoming Books

Rose Army,2003 Growing Young Kara Powell,Jake Mulder,Brad Griffin,2016-09-20 Unleashing the Passion of Young People in Your Church Is Possible Churches are losing both members and vitality as increasing numbers of young people disengage Based on groundbreaking research with over 250 of the nation s leading congregations Growing Young provides a strategy any church can use to involve and retain teenagers and young adults It profiles innovative churches that are engaging 15 to 29 year olds and as a result are growing spiritually emotionally missionally and numerically Packed with both research and practical ideas Growing Young shows pastors and ministry leaders how to position their churches to engage younger generations in a way that breathes vitality life and energy into the whole church Visit www.churchesgrowingyoung.org for more information A Field Guide for Everyday Mission Ben Connelly,Bob Roberts,2014-05-19 Surprise whoever you are you re a missionary If you call yourself a follower of Jesus God calls you his missionary You may never go halfway around the world You may not raise financial support But because of God s gospel work in you you are on mission to people in your work school neighborhood and those in need As everyday missionaries God has sent us to live out his Great Commission in the ordinary normal all too busy and even most mundane moments of our lives But what exactly does an everyday missionary do Where and when does this everyday mission happen Most importantly how can you possibly share the gospel without killing your relationships Those are the types of questions A Field Guide for Everyday Mission answers for individuals churches small groups Sunday schools and missional communities Many resources exist on missional theory missional leadership and even missional stories But based on their years of helping people tangibly demonstrate the gospel pastors and practitioners Ben Connelly and Bob Roberts Jr have created an immediately implementable resource to help ordinary followers of Jesus put the idea of mission into everyday practice Each day s reading includes a biblical principle that can immediately be put into practice Each reading ends with a few ways to help you live out the principle in your daily life By the end of day 30 you ll have 101 different ways to demonstrate the gospel in your daily life And along the way other practitioners such as Jeff Vanderstelt Rick McKinley and Lance Ford share stories about living on God s everyday mission in their unique context A Field Guide for Everyday Mission is a tool designed for you whether you re newly considering the missional idea whether you ve never heard the word before or whether you ve spent years trying to figure out how to put that idea into practice Mission Tripping Danny Kwon,2017-01-15 Can a short term mission trip with youth be an effective form of missions ministry Learn from veteran youth worker Danny Kwon who has taken teens on 44 short term international and domestic mission trips what sort of preparation and practices make a trip with youth accomplish great things for the Kingdom and change the lives and hearts of many people along the way including the teens themselves From choosing a location and form of service to preparing a report for your church and supporters when you return every step of your mission trip is covered here with the kind of practical advice and wisdom that only comes from real life experience in youth ministry mission trip trenches Learn how to prepare your team spiritually for the trip how to pack for a team how to get a group of

and an outward focus to reach and bless their communities cities and nations Introductory Guide Neil Johnson, Tom Milton, Andrew Roberts, 2018-01-19 Holy Habits is an initiative to nurture Christian discipleship It explores Luke's model of church found in Acts 2:42-47 identifies ten habits and encourages the development of a way of life formed by them These resources which include an introductory guide have been developed to help churches explore the habits in a range of contexts and live them out in whole life missional discipleship The Mission-Centered Life Bethany Ferguson, 2019-07-22 In this study on missional living Bethany Ferguson guides readers to see how their own experience of need empowers them to serve a needy world Through Scripture essays and application for personal reflection or group discussion The Mission Centered Life explores confidence in God's missional purposes in the world Ready-to-Go Devotions for Mission and Service Mark Ray, 2010-10-01 Ready to Go Devotions for Mission and Service is a toolkit of daily devotionals for youth mission trips The devotions in this book address every aspect of the mission experience from leaving home and sleeping on the floor to dealing with language barriers and grumpy teammates Each devotion includes a relevant Bible story a commentary that connects that story to the mission experience and a section that challenges the reader to take specific actions on the trip back home or both The book includes devotions in preparation for during and after the mission trip or service project The ready to go format allows the youth worker to quickly assemble a customized devotional journal for participants matching each day's selection to what's likely to happen that day The devotions could also be used in a group setting which would allow the youth worker to pick devotions based on what has happened during the trip or event Either way the devotions point to the larger biblical and personal significance of mission trip or service project happenings What if you held a mission trip and nobody changed It's a haunting daunting question one that youth workers and researchers across America are beginning to ask Short term mission trips STM have exploded in popularity since the mid 1990s thanks in part to the Internet which makes connecting with mission agencies and mission recipients easier than ever Sociologist Kurt Ver Beek estimates that the number of North American short term missionaries grew from 125 000 in 1989 to as many as four million in 2003 Many of those short termers are teenagers According to Christianity Today more than two million American teens enter the mission field every year Pollster George Barna reports that 15 percent of U S Christian teens have done a short term mission trip while the National Study of Youth and Religion found that 29 percent of all teens had participated in a short term mission trip or religious service project Unfortunately the impact of short term mission trips may be short term as well both for those who go on mission trips and for those who receive mission teams Ver Beek recently surveyed North Americans who worked in Honduras after a 1998 hurricane as well as those who were served by them He found that the North American work teams had little or no lasting impact on the communities they served and that missionaries reported only a small positive lasting change in their own lives The situation isn't hopeless however according to Robert Priest associate professor of mission and intercultural studies at Trinity Evangelical Divinity School In research with Ph D students at Trinity he wrote in Christianity Today I've been impressed that while STM may not always or automatically produce desired results the right sorts of STM carried out in the right sorts of ways and accompanied by the right sorts of reflections have potential for good Unfortunately youth workers don't always build the right sorts of reflections into their mission trips At best they allot time in the daily schedule for reflection or debriefing At worst they just hope and pray that their students will somehow be transformed by the mission experience The existing literature isn't much help Books on mission trip planning offer plenty of advice on selecting a mission agency raising money coordinating transportation handling emergencies entering closed countries and re-entering the normal world but they offer precious little advice on using the mission experience to impact the participants' lives The handful of available mission focused devotional guides offer some assistance but they typically take a one size fits all approach Usually presented as mission journals these guides assume trips will be a certain length or include certain elements such as dealing with non-English speakers Ready to Go Devotions for Mission and Service fills the void offering targeted topical devotionals that can help turn short term missions into life changing experiences

Missional Life Missional Women, 2013-10-04 It is easy to walk or sprint through life without being purposeful in living out the mission Jesus has given us It's easy to be controlled by the tyranny of the urgent or get comfortable in our daily routines that living on purpose for the glory of God is something that we reserve for a missions trip

Missional Life A Practical Guide for Living in Light of Eternity will not only give numerous practical ideas of how to live on mission in many spheres of life but will also offer perspective and encouragement to believers longing to live in light of eternity
