and interests in all kinds of property and assets immovable movable and personal property how property rights are acquired fiduciary mechanisms and security considerations Lawyers who handle transnational disputes and other matters concerning property will appreciate the explanation of specific terminology application and procedure An introduction outlining the essential legal cultural and historical considerations affecting property is followed by a discussion of the various types of property Further analysis describes how and to what extent legal subjects can have or obtain rights and interests in each type The coverage includes tangible and intangible property varying degrees of interest and the various ways in which property is transferred including the ramifications of appropriation expropriation and insolvency Facts are presented in such a way that readers who are unfamiliar with specific terms and concepts in varying contexts will fully grasp their meaning and significance The book includes ample references to doctrine and cases as well as to relevant international treaties and conventions Its succinct yet scholarly nature as well as the practical quality of the information it provides make this book a valuable time saving tool for any practitioner faced with a property related matter Lawyers representing parties with interests in the Netherlands will welcome this very useful guide and academics and researchers will appreciate its value in the study of comparative property law

(Non-)conformity in the 1980 UN Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods Sonja Kruisinga, 2004 The 1980 UN Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods CISG unifies the law governing the rights and obligations arising from a contract for the international sale of goods for the seller and the buyer The CISG entered into force on 1 January 1988 The current number of 62 contracting States representing two thirds of the world trade shows the relevance of this Convention Moreover the International Chamber of Commerce ICC has published a model for an international sales contract that presupposes the application of the Convention Since no supranational court exists to safeguard a uniform interpretation of its provisions the case law from different states on the basis of the CISG needs to be compared One of the main obligations for the seller under the Convention is to deliver goods which are in conformity with the contract art 35 CISG With respect to this particular obligation a number of questions have arisen For example do the goods delivered need to comply with any public law requirements in the country where the goods will be used When and how does a buyer have to give notice to the seller of any lack of conformity Is any fault on the part of the seller required for a buyer to be able to rely on this provision Who bears the burden of proof Can a buyer rely on any concurrent claims based on national law alongside his claim based on lack of conformity This book contains an analysis of the case law that has been established on the basis of the CISG concerning the aforementioned questions Special attention has been paid to court decisions in Austria Belgium France Germany the Netherlands and Switzerland as well as to arbitral awards by the ICC Court of Arbitration In this respect the role of the UNIDROIT Principles of International Commercial Contracts in the interpretation of the CISG has also been analysed The book provides a unique combination because it contains both an analysis of the issue of non conformity as such and an overview of the recent case law on this topic as well as recommendations for international commercial practice Therefore this book will be of interest to both academics and legal practitioners The Netherlands, Switzerland, Czech Republic, Slovakia, Malta, Latvia Wolfgang Faber, Brigitta Lurger, 2010-12-23 This excellent series presents comparative study analysis and evaluation of 28 European legal systems in the field of transfer of movables Major topics are the notion of ownership the derivative acquisition of ownership e g by a sales contract the good faith acquisition of ownership and other property rights the multiple sale of the same movable the protection of possession positive acquisitive prescription and processing and consolidation The work is based on comprehensive country reports which are to be published on the relevant legal rules in Europe and has the drafting and publication of text proposals of uniform European rules with commentary and comparative notes as its primary goal It intends to influence the future development of European private law on the EU level This sixth volume of the series presents up to date national reports of The Netherlands Switzerland Czech Republic Slovakia Malta Latvia Statistisch jaarboek ,2000 Statistisch jaarboek Netherlands.
