network have traditionally been studied from a Dutch and or a local perspective but rarely from a multi continental one This collection of articles presents new perspectives on Dutch colonial and postcolonial literature by shifting the compass of analysis Naturally an important point of the compass continues to point in the direction of Amsterdam The Hague and Leiden be it due to the use of the Dutch language the importance of Dutch publishers readers media and research centers the memory of Dutch heritage in libraries and archives or the large number of Dutch citizens with roots in the former colonial world Other points of the compass however indicate different directions They highlight the importance of pluricontinental contacts within the Dutch global colonial network and pay specific attention to groups in the Dutch colonial and postcolonial context that have operated through a network of contacts in the diaspora such as the Afro Caribbean the Sephardic Jewish and the Indo European communities
