Online Masters In Reading:

Employability via Higher Education: Sustainability as Scholarship Alice Diver, 2019-09-23 This book discusses the topic of graduate employability from the premise that in this era of massification economic austerity and political uncertainties higher education HE no longer guarantees a clear work place advantage Divided into three sections the book offers theoretical and philosophical discourses on the HE quandary whilst taking into account and critiquing political temporal and national contexts It culminates in an investigation into specific discipline areas It offers insights into the way that institutions decision makers academics and professional support staff can work together towards ensuring that our graduates are able to cope with the varied demands and challenges of modern job markets It harnesses arguments and reflections on the breadth and depth of the functions of HE such as social transformation promoting principles of social justice and providing opportunities It grounds these in a triadic model for enhancing student engagement and holistic learning namely the emotional cognitive and behavioural aspects As an anthology it is forward gazing in terms of the sustainability debate whilst still offering evidence based research grounded practical suggestions to readers looking for tips and tools of the trade

Video Reflection in Literacy Teacher Education and Development Evan Ortlieb, Mary B. McVee, Lynn E.

Shanahan, 2015-05-06 Within education there is a growing body of research focused on the use of video as a mediational tool for reflection The purpose of this volume is to bring together research and research based practices from a wide array of literacy scholars and practitioners who are using video in educational research and teaching Writing, Reading, and

Understanding in Modern Health Sciences Milos Jenicek, 2017-07-27 Medical articles are one of the main vehicles of knowledge translation and evidence communication in the health sciences Their correct structure and style alone are no longer enough to convey a clear understanding of the intended message Readers must be able to understand the very essence of the article message That is the purpose of this book W Deconstructing the Education-Industrial Complex in the Digital Age Loveless, Douglas, Sullivan, Pamela, Dredger, Katie, Burns, Jim, 2017-01-10 Developments in the education field are affected by numerous and often conflicting social cultural and economic factors With the increasing corporatization of education teaching and learning paradigms are continuously altered Deconstructing the Education Industrial Complex in the Digital Age is an authoritative reference source for the latest scholarly research on the shifting structure of school models in response to technological advances and corporate presence in educational contexts Highlighting a comprehensive range of pertinent topics such as teacher education digital literacy and neoliberalism this book is ideally designed for educators professionals graduate students researchers and academics interested in the implications of the education industrial complex Re-Reading Education Policies, 2009-01-01 This book collects studies with a critical education policy orientation and presents itself as a handbook of matters of public concern The term critical does not refer to the adoption of a particular theoretical framework or methodology but rather it refers to a very specific ethos or way of relating to the present and the belief that the future should not be the repetition of the past This implies a concern about what is happening in our societies today and what could or should be happening in the future As a consequence the contributors to the book rely on a general notion of public policy that takes on board processes practices and discourses at a variety of levels in diverse governmental and non governmental contexts and considers the relation of policy to power to politics and to social regulation Following the detailed introduction that aims at picturing the landscape of studies with a critical education policy orientation the book presents re readings of six policy challenges globalization knowledge society lifelong learning equality democracy social inclusion accountability control efficiency and teacher professionalism It seeks to contextualise these in relation to issues of current global concern at the start of the 21st century Despite the diversity of approaches this collection of critical education policy studies shares a concern with what could be called the public and its education and represents a snapshot of education policy research at a particular time Readers, Reading, and Librarians William A. Katz,2001

Readers Reading and Librarians reaffirms librarians enthusiasm for books and readers in the midst of the evolution of libraries from reading centers to information centers where librarians are now Web masters information scientists and media experts It explores the future of the book as a medium and examines reasons for the decline in pleasure reading and the need for librarians to sponsor book groups With nearly two hundred open ended interviews with readers who read for pleasure this book looks at how and why they choose or reject certain books Supporting Reading in Grades 6-12 Sybil M.
