Embracing both the profundity of ancient wisdom and the information revolution leading educationalist Arun Kapur explores the way in which we think about education and sets out a path for lifelong learning New technologies in an era of unprecedented change have led us to question the way we think about education For thinkers planners educationalists parents guardians and society as a whole it is time to forge a new educational outcome in tune with our times to help our learners to thrive in the future In Serene Strength The Power of Lifelong Learning Arun Kapur proposes that education should go beyond schools and other academic institutions and aim to focus on fostering individuals of substance He engages with the imperative of acquiring skills and learning processes through an active lifelong learning process geared towards actualizing our potential With a Foreword by His Majesty the King of Bhutan Jigme Khesar Namgyel Wangchuck      When Life Starts in the Middle Trudy Chiswell,2019-10-15 A motivational memoir of God's redemptive work in one woman's life When Life Starts in the Middle will inspire and energize readers who feel stuck discouraged or purposeless Trudy Chiswell shares her journey from struggling with a poor self image to being an enthusiastic adventurer of life Through God's miraculous healing and the motivating encouragement of various teachers Trudy earned her grade twelve diploma at age forty two and went on to attain a college diploma seven years later At age sixty she started her first business She approaches her solo life as a journey of adventure with much travel thrown in When Life Starts in the Middle is an inspiring story of faith courage and intentional living A great read for all ages      The Wonder Wall Peter Gamwell,Jane Daly,2017-05-17 Learn the four conditions most effective for fostering creativity Sometimes our attempts to foster creativity can stifle it Gamwell a former teacher and superintendent who has spent more than three decades studying creativity shares a fresh perspective on how to nurture creativity innovation leadership and engagement in a variety of settings You'll learn how to Tap the creative and leadership potential in everyone Think bigger by moving from a deficit model of thinking to a strengths based approach Develop the lost arts of listening and storytelling to optimize learning Handle the inevitable pushback and fear that transformational change can bring      Obituaries in the Performing Arts, 2018 Harris M. Lentz III,2019-06-17 The entertainment world lost many notable talents in 2018 including movie icon Burt Reynolds Queen of Soul Aretha Franklin celebrity chef and food critic Anthony Bourdain bestselling novelist Anita Shreve and influential Chicago blues artist Otis Rush Obituaries of actors filmmakers musicians producers dancers composers writers animals and others associated with the performing arts who died in 2018 are included Date place and cause of death are provided for each along with a career recap

and a photograph Filmographies are given for film and television performers      Divided Province Greg Albo, Bryan M. Evans, 2019-02-28 No government jurisdiction in Canada has so radically transformed its public policies over the past decades as Ontario and yet the province has also maintained a striking degree of political stability in its party system Since the 1990s neoliberalism has been the point of reference in constructing policy agendas for all of Ontario's political parties It has guided the strategy for governance of the dominant Liberal Party since 2003 even as it divides the province between workers and employers north and south rural and urban and racialized minorities and the majority population With a focus on the governments of Mike Harris Dalton McGuinty and Kathleen Wynne Divided Province brings together leading researchers to dissect the province's public policies since the 1990s Presenting original state of the art research the book demonstrates that although the Conservative government of Mike Harris implemented the sharpest and most profound shift towards the establishment of a neoliberal regime in the province the subsequent Liberal governments consolidated that neoliberal turn The essays in this volume explore the consequences of this ideological turn across a spectrum of policies including health education poverty energy employment manufacturing and how it has impacted workers women First Nations and other distinct communities The first book to offer a comprehensive critical account of neoliberalism in Ontario Divided Province overturns conventional readings of the province's politics and suggests that building a more democratic and egalitarian alternative to the current orthodoxy requires nothing less than a radical rupture from existing policies and political alliances Without such a decisive break political space may well open up again for the populist right      Inglorious Pedagogy Keren Dali, Kim M. Thompson, 2023-04-25 Topics and issues in library and information science education pedagogy are commonly discussed in panels conferences peer reviewed articles professional articles and dedicated monographs However in this abundance of education oriented discussions there are several noticeable gaps and omissions Not always do education oriented publications involve theoretical grounding that could make them stronger in argumentation and more generalizable to other contexts Addressing these gaps the book stands to strengthen the less covered areas of library and information science LIS pedagogical thought it enriches a theoretical foundation of pedagogical discourse and broadens its scope This volume brings together a collection of essays from LIS educators from around the world who delve into difficult unpopular and uncommonly discussed topics the inglorious pedagogy as we call it based on their practice and scholarship Presenting perspectives from Australia Canada China New Zealand the United Kingdom and the United States each chapter is a case study rooted not only in the author's experience but also in a solid theoretical or analytical framework that helps the reader make sense of the situations behaviors impact and human emotions involved in each The collective thought woven in the book chapters leads the reader through the milestones of in glorious pedagogy to a better understanding of the potentially transformative nature and wasted opportunities of graduate LIS education and higher education in general

Keeping Canada Running G. Bruce Doern, Christopher Stoney, Robert Hilton, 2021-09-29 The federal government's promises to build back better and build back green highlight opportunities to reimagine Canadian infrastructure In this groundbreaking study authors Bruce Doern Christopher Stoney and Robert Hilton provide the first comprehensive overview of Canadian infrastructure policy examining the impact and implications of the COVID 19 pandemic and rapid technological change as Canada looks to recover and rebuild Covering more than fifty years across many sectors the authors identify numerous challenges that have contributed to Canada s growing infrastructure deficit and suboptimal outcomes including political interference in the choice of infrastructure projects challenges for multilevel governance such as distortion of local priorities blurred accountability and unsustainable maintenance costs for municipalities the growing reliance on public private partnerships that limit transparency and public scrutiny and increased corruption associated with infrastructure projects Transforming infrastructure is notoriously difficult yet vital at a time of rapid technological change It is estimated that 75 percent of the infrastructure that will exist in 2050 does not exist today This makes it crucial that Canada invest in future proof infrastructure with the capacity to facilitate economic growth and the expansion of urban centres mitigate and adapt to the impacts of climate change and ensure resilience in response to crises and disasters Keeping Canada Running offers a timely assessment of these issues Canada s COVID 19 response and the potential contribution of the newly launched Canadian Infrastructure Bank
