which was disbanded in the latter year had its origin in the group of actors that gave the opening performance of the new theatre on the Korte Voorhout in the spring of 1804 During the entire seventy two years there were no important changes of policy at the Royal Dutch Theatre it was not until 1876 that a new period commenced in the theatrical life of the court city and of Holland Although the Dutch players made frequent appearances in other towns and cities particularly in Rotterdam and Leiden the author has limited himself as much as possible to a discussion of their activities at The Hague There is an almost complete absence of newspaper criticism on the Haagsche Schouwburg throughout the first three fourths of the Nineteenth Century but this lack would be far more serious if the greater part of the period at least from about 1830 to 1876 had not been one of theatrical and dramatic poverty We have enough sources to know that the performances and plays were rarely better than mediocre The little newspaper criticism available is usually of such an adulatory nature that it can hardly be called helpful De Indische gids ,1904
