Social Theory and Asian Dialogues Ananta Kumar Giri, 2018-03-30 Critically exploring the presuppositions of contemporary social theory this collection argues for a trans-civilizational dialogue and a deepening of the universe of intellectual discourse in order to transform sociology into a truly planetary conversation on the human condition Focusing on perspectives from Asia notably East Asia and India it interrogates presuppositions in contemporary critical social theory about man culture and society and considers central themes such as knowledge and power knowledge and liberation The diverse contributions tackle key questions such as the globalization of social theory identity and society in East Asia as well as issues such as biopolitics social welfare and eurocentrism They also examine dialogues along multiple trajectories between social theorists from the Euro-American world and from the Asian universe such as between Kant and Gandhi Habermas and Sri Aurobindo the Bildung tradition in Europe and the Confucian traditions Arguing for a global comparative engagement and cross-cultural dialogue this is a key read for all those interested in the future of social theory in the wake of globalization and the rise of the global south

Opening the Red Door Hae-Jin Choe, 2022-04-14 Many second-generation Korean Americans (SGKAs) are living lives of marginality on the edge of Korean American and American cultures This double life often leads to heightened mental health concerns The rise of Asian hate crimes in this country in recent months have added to the distress in this population Due to cultural stigma however SGKAs may not seek out counseling or other mental health services If they do their unique cultural formation is often not fully addressed impeding growth and healing Red Door Ministry (RDM) a pastoral counseling center that started at a local Korean American church serves as a model for addressing this issue Built from a postcolonial understanding of third space RDM is constructed with various culturally sensitive elements that allow SGKAs to move from places of shame on the margins to empowered new centers This transformation is examined by four in-depth interviews of RDM clients These clients show that healing and empowerment were possible because their complex cultural hybridity was addressed in the process of counseling This process is analyzed using concepts from Western psychological theories Korean American theology and postcolonial theory Korea Journal ,2014 South-North Dialogue in Korea ,1988 Korean Culture ,1985 The Journal of Korean Studies, Volume 21, Number 2 (Fall 2016) Donald Baker,Tracy L. Stober,Robert Oppenheim,2016-12-08 The University of Washington Korea Studies Program in collaboration with Rowman Littlefield Publishers is proud to publish the Journal of Korean Studies The Sound of You Simon Doyle,2025-07-22 What if the one person who sees you is the one the world won't listen to Sixteen year old Owen Kelly is barely holding it together after his grandfather's death He's shut down tuned out and hiding behind the pages of his sketchbook Until he meets Jun ho Lee Jun is Deaf half Korean and new to Dublin He doesn't use words but he understands Owen better than anyone But in a world full of judgment and expectation their connection is under fire before it's even begun When Jun's family pressure closes in staying silent isn't an option anymore They'll have to speak in whatever language they can or risk losing each other for good The Sound of You is a heartfelt gay YA romance about first love resilience and finding your voice when no one wants to listen Perfect for fans of Heartstopper I'll Give You the Sun and The Perks of Being a Wallflower
