Michael D. Barr,Zlatko Skrbis,2008 Constructing Singapore studies Singaporean nation building by focusing on two processes elite formation and elite selection It gives primary attention to the role that ethno racial ascription plays in these processes but also considers the input of personal connections personal power class and gender It is a study of the progress of Singapore s state sponsored nation building project to its current state whereby a Singaporean version of Chinese ethno nationalism has overwhelmed the discourse on national and Singaporean identity Based upon archival research and formal interviews this study unpacks the culture of elite governance in Lee Hsien Loong s Singapore today Robert Fulghum's All I Really Need to Know I Learned in Kindergarten Robert Fulghum,David Caldwell,1999 A book to raise the spirits and warm the heart Includes the famous Kindergarten essay that was read on the floor of the U S Senate From the Hardcover edition

On the High Wire George Theoharis,Sharon Dotger,2015-02-01 The purpose of the work life balance series is to highlight particular challenges that higher education faculty face as they participate in the demands of the academy and try to prevent those demands from invading their personal lives On The High Wire looks at a specific subset of university faculty education faculty with school aged children and the specific professional personal balance these faculty need to find The title On the High Wire suggests the precarious nature of the walk for education faculty who are parents of school aged children We know that our identities are central to how we experience the world and how the world reacts to us This reality is clearly visible in this book These multiple identities and roles come into conflict at multiple points and in different ways This book explores these identities and roles through autoethnographic accounts written by varied education faculty in order to make these tensions visible for the field to address Digging for Answers Charles P. Frank,2017-05-25 Digging for Answers finds private investigators Mac and Maggie Mason having to come out of retirement to join in the search for some answers What happens to a couple accused of being illegal immigrants What can be done to restore a broken family relationship Where do you begin looking for a loved one who disappears Why would a little boy be abandoned by his loving parents How much tragedy can one heart endure When is the time for a victim to challenge an abuser Check out what Mac and Maggie find out as they find themselves surrounded with all of these questions Maybe youll have an answer too Primary Education

,1902 Memories: Journey into an Immigrant'S Mind Emanuel Paparella,2018-08-10 As its title powerfully suggests this bookwhile being a personal memoir a narration of ones life journey from sunrise to sunsettranscends the personal Its uniqueness lies in the fact that these memories are the memories of an immigrant who has lived in the country as a US citizen with an American born father for some sixty years It is much more than a list of events and anecdotes of an immigrant experience It is written in a Dantesque and Vichian spirit and as such it goes beyond the listing of historical events and people More than a physical journey it is an intellectual journey into the mind of an immigrant in search of ones self and ones ethnic identity As such it is a universal journey with which nonimmigrants even native born can easily empathize Our common humanity makes it universal As Dante well put it when he began the narration of his life's journey In the middle of the journey of our lives I found myself in a dark wood As Dante begins the journey guided by Virgil and Beatrice he finds out that indeed the journey is universal beyond the purely personal As Michelangelo said Ancor imparo I am still learning He uttered such a statement at the venerable age of eighty nine a few days before he died He was still sculpting and learning Likewise if we dare to begin the journey at whatever age we may find ourselves we may soon find out that we too are still learning and the journey may well have a common purpose and destination Scared Speechless Steve Rohr, Shirley Impellizzeri, 2016-03-21 Panic at the podium This guide by a clinical psychologist and a Hollywood publicist will help you understand and overcome your public speaking fears What you say and how you say it speaks volumes about your professional promise and leadership potential Whether it's giving an impromptu sales pitch or keynoting a major business conference public speaking can make you or break you Are you scared yet No surprise most people are In fact it's the 1 fear among Americans Even many Academy Award winners still get the jitters as talent rep and publicist Steve Rohr knows very well Scared Speechless takes a powerful unique approach that sets it apart from other public speaking guides Rohr's coauthor Dr Shirley Impellizzeri uses the psychology behind our fears to explain and tame our anxiety Combine this knowledge with humorous anecdotes real world examples and wisdom about the art of organizing and delivering a spectacular speech and you have the freshest most entertaining and most effective public speaking book available The Cross Roads Peggy Phillips King, 2004-08-03 This is a story about the memories of an only child growing up on a South Georgia cotton and peanut farm during the Depression and World War II years Cross Roads kinfolk and cousins were Peggy's playmates She speaks about the hardships of picking cotton stacking peanuts running a cucumber growing enterprise and making ends meet with the help of moonshining It was a long trip to town by horse or mule so many farmers had small stores for providing the necessary staples and a place for farmers kinfolk and farm hands to meet and socialize Peggy writes about the nature of the school systems marriage disappointments and successes raising four children and helping with eight grandchildren Rural living in hard times brought happy occasions with barbecues church socials picnics dances movies and constant changes in sweethearts as part of growing up She lets you in on her personal outlook on Southern living in the days of segregation and the changes to the new order of today Now she is a leader for family and high school reunions This book puts us back in focus on historical events that was a part of shaping our lives This book is so from the heart It helps us understand our past and how one fleeting moment can change our whole life There is no love to compare to a Mother's love so deeply expressed in this book It brings back a lot of memories out of the dark recesses of the mind Promoting All-Round Education for Girls Patricia P. K. Chiu, 2020-06-02 Promoting All Round Education for Girls presents the history of Heep Yunn School one of the oldest girls schools in Hong Kong Amalgamated from two British mission schools founded in the 1880s for destitute girls and daughters of Christian parents and renamed Heep Yunn School in 1936 the institution has witnessed and responded to the dramatic changes of Hong Kong over the years. By the time of the outbreak of the Second World War, Heep Yunn had expanded to offer a full Chinese middle school course for girls based upon Christian principles of all round education. The school expanded rapidly after the war and became a bilingual institution to meet the demand for English language education. Eventually English would become the primary medium of instruction soon after the introduction of nine year universal education in 1978. Heep Yunn strives to provide a full fledged all round education in the midst of political and education reforms. The school opted to switch its status from a government aided school to a direct subsidy scheme school in the early 2010s so as to retain a larger degree of autonomy. This history of Heep Yunn School documents the concerted efforts of the school council, staff, students, alumnae and parents to achieve the evolving visions of Christian education for girls as Hong Kong grew from a colonial trading port to a global financial centre in the twenty first century. Promoting All Round Education for Girls convincingly charts the shifting purposes and practices of girls education in Hong Kong. The text moves seamlessly between the history of the school and the wider context of Hong Kong's history. Patricia P K Chiu illustrates how the school's educational policy evolved according to the wider strategies and shifts that relate models of femininity and nation building. Joyce Goodman, University of Winchester. This solidly referenced work provides a balanced and detailed outlook on the unique evolving features of education in Hong Kong. It shows the effects on Heep Yunn School of major historical changes in education policy and how the school has contributed to the education of girls in Hong Kong in periods of dramatic challenge like the Sino Japanese War and the disturbances of the late 1960s. Ruth Hayhoe, University of Toronto.

Triumphs in Early Autism Treatment Ennio Cipani, 2008-07-17. Both parents and professionals who work with young children with autism should read this book. Temple Grandin, author Thinking in Pictures. From the Foreword to Miss Molly: before you started with an ABA program we couldn't sing to you, we couldn't talk too loud or even play music. Now you are in the drama club, dance classes and on stage singing at the school talent show. I'm so proud of you. Mother of Molly Martin featured in Chapter 4. Triumphs in Early Autism Treatment offers a wealth of insight and hope to both parents and clinicians. This book documents the latest research that shows that children who receive Applied Behavioral Analysis treatment consistently progress in skill development. This groundbreaking treatment has allowed numerous children to reach the best outcome status: a level of normal intellectual and educational functioning. In essence, they become indistinguishable from their peers in everyday life. A must read for parents and clinicians. This book is the first to document best outcome case studies using exclusively ABA treatment. Key Features: First hand accounts of the intellectual and behavioral progress of seven autistic children written in a narrative style by the ABA professionals who conducted the consultations. Contributors include Audrey Gifford, who is both a professional Behavioral Analyst and a parent of an autistic child who received ABA treatment. Overview of autism research prior to ABA and an introduction to the development of the method. Analysis of ABA treatment demonstrating why ABA is the most effective of all treatment methods. Children and Autism Ennio

Cipani,2010-10-18 Children and Autism presents seven heartwarming and compelling stories of children who have triumphed over the challenge of autism These are not stories of easy or simple remedies but in the end in each instance the child is indistinguishable from their same age peers Parents can draw hope and inspiration from these stories while also realizing that dedication hard work and perseverance are key elements to success While these seven stories are the heart and soul of the book Children and Autism is more than that The book opens with a section on what autism and applied behavior analysis are It closes with a comprehensive resource section that helps parent locate ABA resources provides definitions and offers advice on applying practices in the home Children and Autism is also a celebration of progress in treating autism using ABA The book provides parents with a model that they can identify with cheer on and draw hope and inspiration from ,
