context methods and approaches Buddhavacana and Dei Verbum Michael Fuss,2023-08-07 Challenged by the teaching of Vatican II about the seeds of the Word in non Christian religions this book investigates the sacred character of the Saddharmapua and its relation to the fundamental theological category of scriptural inspiration In applying the methods of modern exegesis the Sutra in its ingenious composition is disclosed as a religious drama about the inspirational experience of the Buddha The draft of a theology of inspiration along the guide lines of the Dogmatic Constitution Dei Verbum of Vatican II elaborates a christology of the Word as its core which allows an extension of inspiration in analogical manner to non Biblical scriptures The contrast of Christ the Word incarnate and Buddha the Inspired One offers a new contribution to an inter religious dialogue Theology of the New Testament Georg Strecker,2000-01-01 In this volume Georg Strecker profiles the New Testament with major treatments of Paul Jesus the Synoptics John and the General Letters Strecker argues for a rich mosaic of theologies rather than one single New Testament theology He adopts a redaction critical approach and thus highlights the background of and relationships among the New Testament writings Strecker's relentless pursuit of the distinctive views of each specific writing allows the complexity of the New Testament to emerge Scribal Habits in Early Greek New Testament Papyri James Ronald Royse,2008 This book investigates the scribal habits of P45 P46 P47 P66 P72 and P75 the six most extensive early New Testament manuscripts All the singular readings in these six papyri are studied along with all the corrections Studies on the Text of the New Testament and Early Christianity Daniel Gurtner,Juan Hernández, Jr.,Paul Foster,2015-09-29 The collection of essays focuses on the twin areas of research undertaken by Prof Michael W Holmes These are the sub disciplines of textual criticism and the study of the Apostolic Fathers The first part of the volume on textual criticism focuses on issues of method the praxis of editing and collating texts and discussions pertaining to individual variants The second part of the volume assembles essays on the Apostolic Fathers There is a particular focus on the person and writings of Polycarp since this is the area of research where Prof Holmes has worked most intensively The Making of Friedrich Nietzsche Daniel Blue,2016-07-14 How did Nietzsche the philosopher come into being The Nietzsche known today did not develop naturally through the gradual maturation of some inborn character Instead from an early age he engaged in a self conscious campaign to follow his own guidance thereby cultivating the critical capacities and personal vision which figure in his books As a result his published works are steeped in values that he discovered long before he mobilised their results Indeed one could argue that the first work which he authored was not a book at all but his own persona Based on scholarship previously available only in German this book examines Nietzsche's unstable childhood his determination to advance through self formation and the ways in which his environment notably the Prussian education system alternately influenced and impeded his efforts to find his own way It will be essential reading for all who are interested in Nietzsche Being and the Messiah Jose Porfirio Miranda,John Eagleson,2006-11-01 In Being and the Messiah Jose Miranda brings his incisive and controversial scholarship to the study of The Gospel of St John

Jesus James D. G. Dunn, Doris Donnelly, 2001-06-07 In June 2000 five internationally renowned biblical scholars and one equally well known systematic theologian traveled to Israel with 60 non academic pilgrims to share their insights on the Jesus of history and the meaning of the historical Jesus for Christian faith The result is a book that provides a succinct summary of what is currently known about Jesus and his times his setting in Galilee his relationship to the Qumran community his sense of mission as an eschatological prophet and miracle worker and finally the mechanics of how the memories of Jesus's words and deeds circulated among his followers and were passed on in oral performance to be enshrined eventually in the written Synoptic tradition The book concludes with reflections by Elizabeth Johnson on the relevance of such scholarship for contemporary Christian faith Rather than a challenge to faith she sees it as a gift The Disciples according to Mark C. Clifton Black, 2012-12-13 Redaction criticism attempts to identify biblical authors' theological interests by examining their adaptation of sources Focusing on representative studies of Jesus' disciples in the Gospel of Mark this pioneering book by C Clifton Black has become the standard evaluation of that method's exegetical reliability Comprehensively reviewing recent scholarship Black identifies three distinctive types of redaction criticism in Markan interpretation He demonstrates that diverse redaction critical interpretations of the disciples in Mark have bolstered rather than controlled scholarly presuppositions to a degree that impugns the method's reliability for interpreting Mark The book concludes by assessing redaction criticism's usefulness and offering a more balanced approach to Mark's interpretation This second edition includes a substantial detailed afterword that revisits the book's primary issues converses with its critics and provides an update of Markan scholarship over the past twenty five years An Exegetical Bibliography of the New Testament: Matthew and Mark Günter Wagner, 1983 Library has v 1 3 Criteria for Authenticity in Historical-Jesus Research Stanley E. Porter, 2004-10-19 Historical Jesus research continues to captivate the interests of scholars and recently there has been renewed discussion of the criteria for authenticity The first half of this volume reviews the state of play in historical Jesus research and examines the criteria in particular One chapter is devoted to the so called Quests and a second critically charts the development of the criteria in the light of form criticism One of the conclusions of this part of the volume is that several criteria especially those based on linguistics need re evaluation The second half of the volume proposes three new criteria based upon use of the Greek language These criteria are Greek language and its context textual variance and discourse features The criteria are proposed as a way forward in historical Jesus research Jesus and Jewish Covenant Thinking Tom Holmén, 2021-11-22 This book offers the first large scale investigation into the attitude of the historical Jesus towards covenant belief the dominant theme of the Judaism of Jesus' day The book intended as part one of a two volume investigation takes its point of departure in a simple question which nevertheless integrally reflects the covenant thinking of the time Was Jesus engaged in trying to find out how to remain faithful to the covenant Current scholarship underlines both the importance of the covenant belief for early Judaism and the need for considering Jesus as being within Judaism Studying
