Copyright Office, 1967 William Alwyn Ian Johnson, 2005 Ian Johnson s evaluation of Alwyn s film music places his achievement in the context of wider movements within the film industry William Alwyn was a leading composer of British film music in the 1940s and 50s a time when the British film industry was at its peak His scores ranged from documentaries to almost 80 full length feature films including classics such as Fires were Started Desert Victory Odd Man Out The Fallen Idol and The History of Mr Polly he was adept at any musical genre from classical to cartoon slapstick and in the process worked with legendary directors including Carol Reed David Lean Humphrey Jennings and Anthony Asquith Alone with Vaughan Williams he was granted the distinction of a separate title credit columnists mentioned him alongside Bliss Bax and Walton However as the reputation of the British film industry declined in the 1950s so musical snobbery against those who were its leading lights became unpleasantly raw In recent years however with sensitive performances of his film and concert music available on CD this most appealing of composers has enjoyed something of a renaissance In this long overdue reassessment Alwyn s films are analysed and put into the context of his biography the film industry and of society at large the author shows in particular this remarkably versatile composer developed a hitherto unrecognised grammar of film music which enhanced every film on which he worked He also examines his work for war propaganda radio and the concert hall The volume is enhanced by the most complete filmography discography and bibliography of the composer s works yet published as well as listings of his concert and radio music Catalogue of Music British Museum, 1884 Chicago Jazz William Howland Kenney, 1994-10-27 The setting is the Royal Gardens Cafe It s dark smoky The smell of gin permeates the room People are leaning over the balcony their drinks spilling on the customers below On stage King Oliver and Louis Armstrong roll on and on piling up choruses the rhythm section building the beat until tables chairs walls people move with the rhythm The time is the 1920s The place is South Side Chicago a town of dance halls and cabarets Prohibition and segregation a town where jazz would flourish into the musical statement of an era In Chicago Jazz William Howland Kenney offers a wide ranging look at jazz in the Windy City revealing how Chicago became the major center of jazz in the 1920s one of the most vital periods in the history of the music He describes how the migration of blacks from the South to Chicago during and after World War I set the stage for the development of jazz in Chicago and how the nightclubs and cabarets catering to both black and white customers provided the social setting for jazz performances Kenney discusses the arrival of King Oliver and other greats in Chicago in the late teens and the early 1920s especially Louis Armstrong who would become the most influential jazz player of the period And he travels beyond South Side Chicago to look at the evolution of white jazz focusing on the influence of the South Side school on such young white players as Mezz Mezzrow who adopted the mannerisms of black show business performers an urbanized southern black accent and black slang and Max Kaminsky deeply influenced by Armstrong's electrifying tone his superb technique his power and ease his hotness and intensity his complete mastery of the horn The personal recollections of many others including Milt Hinton Wild Bill Davison Bud Freeman and Jimmy McPartland bring alive this exciting period in jazz history Here is a new interpretation of Chicago jazz that reveals the role of race culture and politics in the development of this daring musical style From black and tan cabarets and the Savoy Ballroom to the Friars Inn and Austin High Chicago Jazz brings to life the hustle and bustle of the sounds and styles of musical entertainment in the famous toddlin town
