On The Sociology Of Islam Lectures:

On the Sociology of Islam 'Alī Shari'atī, 2017 On the Sociology of Islam 'Alī Shari'atī, 1979 In preparing the way for the unparalleled surge of Islamic revival in Iran many factors have been at work One of the most important is the legacy of Dr Ali Shari'ati 1933 1977 A teacher scholar and writer Shari'ati and a dynamic influence on the young people of Iran with his classes discussions free lectures and articles during the 1960 s and 1970 s Shari'ati was a sociologist educated in Mashhad and Paris as well as a student of history and philosophy He subjected contemporary society to careful examination using the terms experiences and concepts found in Islamic philosophy and culture for his analysis He formulated and presented to his students and readers a coherent Islamic world view and an ideology of social political and economic change His views have contributed much to the Iranian Islamic revolution Shari'ati works are constantly reprinted and eagerly studied through out Iran This anthology is the first systematic presentation in English of some of his major ideas Back cover On the Sociology of Islam 'Alī Shari'atī, 1991 On the Sociology of Islam Ali Shariati, 1980-05-01 On the Sociology of Islam 'Alī Shari'atī, Mohamad Nasrin Nasir, 2018 On the Sociology of Islam Ali Shari'ati, 'Alī Shari'atī, 2017 Challenges to Religions and Islam Hamid Naseem Rafiabadi, 2007 Shi'i Sectarianism in the Middle East Elisheva Machlis, 2014-09-17 The eruption of violent sectarianism in Iraq following the US invasion in 2003 brought the question of Sunni Shi'i relations in the country to the forefront of the international public agenda It also strengthened the popular belief that contemporary Shi'ism is inherently sectarian Yet several decades earlier Ayatollah Khomeini had declared an Islamic revolution and downplayed its Shi'i origins and links So what is the true orientation of Shi'i Islam in the contemporary era and how did modernisation alter its sectarian affiliation This book contends that early Shi'i reformist thought set the foundations for a more universal oriented Shi'ism Prominent reformists in the first half of the twentieth century from the holy cities of Karbala and Najaf in Iraq and from the Shi'i centres in Southern Lebanon played a significant role in the renewal of Shi'ism and laid the groundwork for its reinvention in the modern era Exploring this shift towards a more ecumenical perception of Islam Elisheva Machlis here provides a fresh perspective on inter sectarian relations in contemporary Iraq and illuminates the intellectual roots of the Islamic revolution by examining networks of Shi'i scholars such as Mu'ammad usayn K shif al Ghi and Mu sin al Am n al mil operating within a more globalised Muslim world Drawing on the experiences of early Shi'i reformists such as Abd al usayn Sharaf al D n al M saw in Lebanon and Mu'ammad Jaw d Mughniyya in Damascus this book gives new insight on the future of inter Muslim relations at a time of growing inter sectarian contention from the Iran Iraq war to the post 2003 Sunni Shi'i conflict in Iraq and al Qa ida s anti Shi'i message taking into account questions of theology historiography jurisprudence and politics which all played a vital role in the transition to the contemporary era The author here analyses the broad scholarly connections between Iran Iraq and Lebanon in the twentieth century while debating paramount questions of leadership identity and group membership in the development of modern Shi'ism Examining the relationship between intellectual thought and socio political development in the region this book provides a new perspective concerning the future of an increasingly globalised Muslim world and will prove essential reading for students and specialists

A History of Islam in America Kambiz GhaneaBassiri, 2010-04-19 Muslims began arriving in the New World long before the rise of the Atlantic slave trade Kambiz GhaneaBassiri's fascinating book traces the history of Muslims in the United States and their different waves of immigration and conversion across five centuries through colonial and antebellum America through world wars and civil rights struggles to the contemporary era The book tells the often deeply moving stories of individual Muslims and their lives as immigrants and citizens within the broad context of the American religious experience showing how that experience has been integral to the evolution of American Muslim institutions and practices This is a unique and intelligent portrayal of a diverse religious community and its relationship with America It will serve as a strong antidote to the current politicized dichotomy between Islam and the West which has come to dominate the study of Muslims in America and further afield

A Modern History of the Islamic World Reinhard Schulze, 2002-03 Considering the Islamic world from Morocco to Indonesia Somalia and Bosnia Schulze Islamic studies U of Berne charts their histories during the 20th century Rather than taking each one in turn he narrates chronologically the political changes throughout the world where Islam is the dominant cultural force He begins with the impact of colonialism and ends with struggle between Islamic culture and civil society in the 1990s He includes several maps Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

The New Cambridge History of Islam: Volume 5, The Islamic World in the Age of Western Dominance Francis Robinson, 2010-11-04 Volume 5 of The New Cambridge History of Islam examines the history of Muslim societies from 1800 to the present Francis Robinson a leading historian of Islam has brought together a team of scholars with a broad range of expertise to explore how Muslims responded to the challenges of Western conquest and domination across the last two hundred years As their articles reveal the social economic political and historical circumstances which influenced these responses have in many different parts of the world empowered Muslim societies and encouraged transformation and religious revival The volume offers a fascinating glimpse into the local dimensions of that revival and how regional connections have been forged Synthesising the academic research of the past thirty years as well as offering substantial guidance for further study this book is the starting point for all those who wish to have a serious understanding of modern Muslim societies

Reformist Voices of Islam Shireen Hunter, Shireen T Hunter, 2014-12-18 In recent years Islamic fundamentalist revolutionary and jihadist movements have overshadowed more moderate and reformist voices and trends within Islam This compelling volume introduces the current generation of reformist thinkers and activists the intellectual traditions they carry on and the reasons for the failure of reformist movements to sustain broad support in the Islamic world today Richly detailed regionally focused chapters cover Iran the Arab East the Maghreb South Asia Indonesia Malaysia Turkey Europe and North America The editor's introductory chapter traces the roots of reformist thinking both in Islamic tradition and as a response to the challenge of modernity for Muslims struggling to reconcile the requirements of modernization with their cultural and religious values The concluding chapter identifies commonalities comparisons and trends in the modernizing movements Islam and Global Dialogue Roger Boase,2016-05-06 At a time when the world is becoming increasingly interdependent multi cultural and multi religious the concept of religious pluralism is under assault as a result of hatred prejudice and misunderstanding from both religious exclusivists and dogmatic secularists In this important and timely book twenty internationally acclaimed scholars and leading religious thinkers respond to contemporary challenges in different ways Some discuss the idea of a dialogue of civilisations others explore the interfaith principles and ethical resources of their own spiritual traditions All of them reject the notion that any single religion can claim a monopoly of wisdom all are committed to the ideal of a just and peaceful society in which people of different religions and cultures can happily coexist More space is here given to Islam than to Judaism and Christianity because as a result of negative stereotypes it is the most misunderstood of the major world religions HRH Prince Hassan bin Talal of Jordan contributes the Foreword

American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences 8:1 Imaduddin Khalil,Mona Abul-Fadl,Ilyas Ba-Yunus,Victor Danner,Mazen Hashem,Saa'deka Arebi ,Zaidi Sattar, The American Journal of Islamic Social Sciences AJISS established in 1984 is a quarterly double blind peer reviewed and interdisciplinary journal published by the International Institute of Islamic Thought IIIT and distributed worldwide The journal showcases a wide variety of scholarly research on all facets of Islam and the Muslim world including subjects such as anthropology history philosophy and metaphysics politics psychology religious law and traditional Islam Sunni Chauvinism and the Roots of Muslim Modernism Teena Purohit,2023-05-16 Teena Purohit s new account of Muslim modernism is distinctive in that she seeks to highlight something that has gone unnoticed in previous accounts of the Muslim modernist story it has had a decided Sunni bias and has been linked to calls for suppression of minority Muslim communities Such communities including the Shi a Ismailis Ahmadis and Bahai s have often been disparaged in Muslim modernist thought as sectarian or deviant and thus as not fully or authentically Muslim In this book Purohit reveals how a succession of key Muslim modernist thinker activists from the colonial anti colonial nationalist and post colonial Islamist eras shared an obsession with Muslim unity that implicitly relied on a Sunni majoritarian perspective Not coincidentally this perspective was also held by European orientalist scholars of Islam who like the Muslim modernists were deeply influenced by notions of sect and heresy that had their origin in Christianity The Politics of Islamic

Reassertion (RLE Politics of Islam) Mohammed Ayoob,2014-03-26 The Iranian Revolution has catalysed the preconceptions holding sway in the Western World about the character of Islam and its politics based as they are on a mixture of imagined cultural superiority and a latent fear of a resurgence similar to the Arab conquests of the seventh and eighth centuries of the long Ottoman domination of Eastern Europe This book constitutes a counterweight to such monolithic perceptions of Islam It surveys the nature of opinion and of government in the larger Muslim regions of the world and the position of Muslims in states where they are not the dominant population Each contributor expresses his own assessment of the regional data and the editor's concluding chapter draws together the threads of a work which will form an important contribution to international understanding and a first breach in the Green Curtain dividing East and West First published in 1981

Islam as Power Bianka Speidl, 2020-12-03 Providing an in depth and extensive analysis of the concept of power as articulated by Muhammad Husayn Fadlallah 1935-2010 this case study analyses the systemic conceptualisation of power and his argumentation of sacralising Islamised power The volume also offers a quick overview of how the concept was understood and articulated by other Shi'ite jurists such as Ayatollah Khomeini Examining Fadlallah's oeuvre in particular his seminal book Islam and the Logic of Power al-Islam wa mantiq al-quwwa this book focuses on the narrative itself which played a central role in the radical transformation that occurred in the Shi'ite concept of empowerment and its recognition as a necessity The analysis of Fadlallah's conceptualisation and argumentation illustrates the mechanism of sacralising righteous power as well as the means of gaining it Fadlallah reinterpreted Shi'ism as a project of empowerment to initiate and sustain an impulse of power amongst the Lebanese Shi'ites in the most critical moment of modern Lebanese history Dealing with the concept of power in Shi'ite political thought from a theoretical perspective the study has an innovative approach that offers an insight into how the transformative narrative is constructed and what makes it convincing Shedding light on the content and logical structure of Fadlallah's argumentation this volume will be of interest to scholars and students researching contemporary politics Islam and the Middle East
