of the current English speaking literary world Coping with Difference Sabine Nünies, 2009 Has British literature finally surpassed Postmodernism and are we thus currently witnessing the emergence of a new era Choosing specific forms of engagement with difference as a starting point the present study traces recent developments in the field of the novel and illustrates in how far these new ways of dealing with difference may be characterised as non postmodern Moreover the analysis aims to demonstrate the renewed importance of modernist strategies and their employment in contemporary British fiction Case studies of six novels complement and illuminate these findings Zadie Smith Philip Tew, 2009-11-23 An introduction to the work of Zadie Smith placing her fiction in a clear historical and theoretical context and exploring her work in relation to contemporaneity and postcolonialism Including a timeline of key dates this guide offers an accessible reading of Smith's work and an overview of its critical reception The Promise of Beauty Mimi Thi Nguyen, 2024-09-20 In The Promise of Beauty Mimi Thi Nguyen explores the relationship between the concept of beauty and narratives of crisis and catastrophe Nguyen conceptualizes beauty which she observes we turn to in emergencies and times of destruction as a tool to identify and bridge the discrepancy between the world as it is and what it ought to be Drawing widely from aesthetic and critical theories Nguyen outlines how beauty or its lack points to the conditions that must exist for it to flourish She notes that an absence of beauty becomes both a political observation and a call to action to transform the conditions of the situation so as to replicate preserve or repair beauty The promise of beauty can then engender a critique of social arrangements and political structures that would set the foundations for its possibility and presence In this way Nguyen highlights the role of beauty in inspiring action toward a more just world Women's Fiction and Post-9/11 Contexts Peter Childs, Claire Colebrook, Sebastian Groes, 2014-10-21 9 11 is not simple a date on the calendar but marks a distinct historical threshold ushering in the war on terror various states of emergency a supposed clash of civilizations and the putative legitimization of counter democratic procedures ranging from extraordinary renditions to enhanced interrogation Perhaps no date since Virginia Woolf declared that on or about December 1910 human character changed has marked such a singular point in the perception of time identity and nature Women's writing has always been something of a counter canon offering modes of voice and point of view beyond that of the man of reason This collection of essays explores the two problems of what it means to write as a woman and what it means to write in the twenty first century The Crisis, 2005-11 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens British Fiction Today Rod Mengham, Philip Tew, 2006-11-07 British Fiction Today provides students and readers with a critical introduction to key authors and novels since 1990 and provides the latest critical perspectives on current British fiction It offers comprehensive and up to date coverage of a broad range of selected contemporary authors drawing together both established and emerging literary voices reflecting the scope of the new British writing The book is organised around common themes Modern Lives Contemporary Living Dreamtime States of Identity and Histories Each section begins with a short introductory essay and ends with a guide to further reading Introducing key works writers and major themes including post colonialism pluralism gender and history this book is the ideal guide to British fiction today Includes discussion of Martin Amis Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Alan Hollinghurst Peter Ackroyd Jenny Diski Ben Okri Salman Rushdie Toby Litt Ian McEwan Zadie Smith Jeanette Winterson Pat Barker A S Byatt Adam Thorpe and Sarah Waters

Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction Thom Dancer, 2021 From climate catastrophe to pandemics and economic crises the problems facing humanity are dizzyingly complex and increasingly planetary in scale Critical Modesty in Contemporary Fiction argues for contemporary fiction's capacity to help those who may feel despair at the enormity of such problems not as one might think through the ambitious search for grand solutions but rather by inculcating a temperament of modesty This new temperament of critical modesty locates the fight for freedom and human dignity within the limited and compromised conditions in which we find ourselves Through readings of Ian McEwan Zadie Smith J M Coetzee and David Mitchell this volume shows how contemporary works of literature model modesty as a critical temperament Exploring modest forms of entangled human agency that represent an alternative to the novel of the large scale that have been most closely associated with the Anthropocene it makes the surprising yet compelling case that precisely by adopting a modest stance the novel actually has the potential to play a more important socio cultural role In doing so the book offers an engaging response to the debate over critical and surface readings bringing novels into the conversation and arguing for a fictional mode that is both critical and modest reminding us how much we are already engaged with the world implicated and compromised before we start developing theories writing stories or acting within it transnationalism both as a focus of academic study and as an everyday experience Post diaspora like transnationalism emphasises the fluidity of the migration process post diasporic identities emerge from the shifting formations of intra and international communities The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal African and Black Diaspora

Authorship's Wake Philip Sayers,2020-12-10 Authorship s Wake examines the aftermath of the 1960s critique of the author epitomized by Roland Barthes s essay The Death of the Author This critique has given rise to a body of writing that confounds generic distinctions separating the literary and the theoretical Its archive consists of texts by writers who either directly participated in this critique as Barthes did or whose intellectual formation took place in its immediate aftermath These writers include some who are known primarily as theorists Judith Butler others known primarily as novelists Zadie Smith David Foster Wallace and yet others whose texts are difficult to categorize the autofiction of Chris Kraus Sheila Heti and Ben Lerner the autotheory of Maggie Nelson These writers share not only a central motivating question how to move beyond the critique of the author subject but also a way of answering it by writing texts that merge theoretical concerns with literary discourse Authorship s Wake traces the responses their work offers in relation to four themes communication intention agency and labor

The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction Huw Marsh,2020-07-09 The Comic Turn in Contemporary English Fiction explores the importance of comedy in contemporary literature and culture In an era largely defined by a mood of crisis bleakness cruelty melancholia environmental catastrophe and collapse Huw Marsh argues that contemporary fiction is as likely to treat these subjects comically as it is to treat them gravely and that the recognition and proper analysis of this humour opens up new ways to think about literature Structured around readings of authors including Martin Amis Nicola

Barker Julian Barnes Jonathan Coe Howard Jacobson Magnus Mills and Zadie Smith this book suggests not only that much of the most interesting contemporary writing is funny and that there is a comic tendency in contemporary fiction but also that this humour this comic licence allows writers of contemporary fiction to do peculiar and interesting things things that are funny in the sense of odd or strange and that may in turn inspire a funny turn in readers Marsh offers a series of original critical and theoretical frameworks for discussing questions of literary genre style affect and politics demonstrating that comedy is an often neglected mode that plays a generative role in much of the most interesting contemporary writing creating sites of rich political stylistic cognitive and ethical contestation whose analysis offers a new perspective on the present

The Novel and the New Ethics Dorothy J. Hale, 2020-11-24 For a generation of contemporary Anglo American novelists the question Why write has been answered with a renewed will to believe in the ethical value of literature Dissatisfied with postmodernist parody and pastiche a broad array of novelist critics including J M Coetzee Toni Morrison Zadie Smith Gish Jen Ian McEwan and Jonathan Franzen champion the novel as the literary genre most qualified to illuminate individual ethical action and decision making within complex and diverse social worlds Key to this contemporary vision of the novel's ethical power is the task of knowing and being responsible to people different from oneself and so thoroughly have contemporary novelists devoted themselves to the ethics of otherness that this ethics frequently sets the terms for plot characterization and theme In The Novel and the New Ethics literary critic Dorothy J Hale investigates how the contemporary emphasis on literature's social relevance sparks a new ethical description of the novel's social value that is in fact rooted in the modernist notion of narrative form This new ethics of the contemporary moment has its origin in the new idea of novelistic form that Henry James inaugurated and which was consolidated through the modernist narrative experiments and was developed over the course of the twentieth century In Hale's reading the art of the novel becomes defined with increasing explicitness as an aesthetics of alterity made visible as a formalist ethics In fact it is this commitment to otherness as a narrative act which has conferred on the genre an artistic intensity and richness that extends to the novel's every word
