On Being the Church in the World ,1960 Liturgical Theology Simon Chan,2006-07-12 Evangelicals Simon Chan argues are confused about the meaning and purpose of the church in part because they have an inadequate understanding of Christian worship He calls evangelicals to develop a theology of worship that is grounded in a theology of the church He guides the reader through worship practices and their significance for theology spirituality and the renewal of evangelicalism in the postmodern era Christ, Church, and World Theodore J. Hopkins,2021-10-11 As the North American church struggles to navigate the emerging post Christian context Theodore J Hopkins argues that the church is identified by three fundamental relationships Christ church world By attending to the Christological center of Dietrich Bonhoeffer's theology Hopkins establishes a framework for the church's mission in the world that flows from Christ's relationship to the church and his relationship to the world This Christological framework also illuminates the changing relationship between the church and the world in Bonhoeffer's works such that Discipleship seems to demarcate the church from the world while Ethics seems to unite church and world in one Christ reality Following Bonhoeffer Hopkins contends that the church is both distinct from the world and in solidarity with it in the dynamic of the crucified Lord Jesus who took the form of a servant and is present in Word Sacrament and community as the Risen One Hopkins envisions the church within the story of Jesus so that preaching and teaching the Gospel identifies the church and calls it to faithfulness in Christ's own mission The church is formed to see itself and the world in Jesus and enabled to follow Christ's mission of witness and service in the world
