On The Cosmic Mystery Of Jesus Christ:

On the Cosmic Mystery of Jesus Christ Saint Maximus (Confessor), 2003 This volume provides translations from St Maximus two main collections of theological reflections his Ambigua or Difficulties and his Questions to Thalassius plus one of his Christological opuscula previously unavailable in English The translations are accompanied by notes from back cover

On the Cosmic Mystery of Jesus Christ Maximus Confessor (santo), 2003 The Philokalia Brock Bingaman, Bradley Nassif, 2012-08-23 The Philokalia literally love of the beautiful is after the Bible the most influential source of spiritual tradition within the Orthodox Church First published in Greek in 1782 by St Nicodemos of the Holy Mountain and St Macarios of Corinth the Philokalia includes works by thirty six influential Orthodox authors such as Maximus the Confessor Peter of Madascus Symeon the New Theologian and Gregory Palamas Surprisingly this important collection of theological and spiritual writings has received little scholarly attention With the growing interest in Orthodox theology the need for a substantive resource for Philokalic studies has become increasingly evident The purpose of the present volume is to remedy that lack by providing an ecumenical collection of scholarly essays on the Philokalia that will introduce readers to its background motifs authors and relevance for contemporary life and thought Popular Patristics Series: On the cosmic

mystery of Jesus Christ, 1977 Animals, Theology and the Incarnation Kris Hiuser, 2017-05-30 How does an understanding of the non human lead us to a greater understanding of the incarnation Are non human animals morally relevant within Christian theology and ethics Is there a human ethical responsibility towards non human animals In Animals Theology and the Incarnation Kris Hiuser argues that if we are called to represent both God to creation and creation to God then this has considerable bearing on understanding what it means to be human as well as informing human action towards non human creatures Whole-Earth Ethics for Holy Ground Stephen L. Hastings, 2016-10-19 Over the last fifty years

Western Christianity has been criticized as a cause and enabler of Earth's ecological crisis It has been said that Christianity promotes a spiritual material dualism where the material side of life has little sacred value Also noted in the critique is the hesitancy of many Christians to embrace modern scientific understandings of creation especially evolution Some Christian writers have responded by accepting modern cosmology and evolution and advocating for a sacramental creation spirituality oftentimes supported by fresh readings of earlier Christian writings In Whole Earth Ethics for Holy Ground Dr Stephen Hastings begins by offering a genre defining overview of late 20th century and early 21st century writings that he calls sacramental creation spirituality These writings are characterized by their acceptance of the scientific creation story of cosmogenesis and evolution and their recovery of authentic Christian nature mysticism Hastings then looks at Teilhard de Chardin 1881 1955 CE Maximus the Confessor c 580 662 CE and Nicholas of Cusa 1401 1464 CE Together the teachings of Maximus and Nicholas support Teilhard's call for a theology of a Creator God robust enough to encompass the most expansive and complicated propositions about creation made by science while remaining as close as the real presence of Christ in the Eucharist The integrated teachings of these three figures suggest the consecration of creation as its condition of being meaning that God is present in all things This consecration or presence inspires sacramental experiences that are revelations of God in and through creation These complement the sacramental experience of Christ in the Eucharist Together these sacramental encounters converge to support the conclusion that just as one receives and responds to Christ present in the elements of the communion table so one ought to receive and respond to oneself one's neighbors and all creation as the universal consecrated and sacramental neighborhood This is a whole Earth sacramental ethic that is what we need today centered on all life and ecosystems

An Ocean Vast of Blessing Steven D. Cone, 2014-07-09 Humans are made in the image of God and authentically coming to be human means to become like him This work pursues a robust and renewed theology of grace in conversation with the patristic traditions of Irenaeus the Cappadocian Fathers and Augustine the medieval theology of Maximus and Aquinas and such modern interlocutors as Søren Kierkegaard Bernard Lonergan John Milbank and John Behr It thereby regrounds our interpretation of Scripture in the wide tradition of the church By doing so it argues that Christ's incarnation crucifixion and resurrection form the only possible point of reference by which we can understand the universe as God creates it and works in it to bring us into union with himself

Pneumatology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium Kevin Wagner, Peter John McGregor, M. Isabell Naumann, 2023-12-01 The Holy Spirit who worked on the first Christian Pentecost continues to work in the church and the world today This being so the field of pneumatology the theology of the Holy Spirit should pique the interest of both the average Christian and the academic theologian perhaps more than it has in recent times This collection of chapters brings pneumatology into conversation with a wide variety of disciplines including scripture patristic and medieval theology and history The result is a scholarly monograph that enriches both pneumatology and the fields with which each contributor engages Furthermore with its attention on the work of the Spirit in the sacraments and the life of the church Pneumatology at the Beginning of the Third Millennium will help pastors and catechists in their ministries to understand more deeply the riches of the theology of the Third Person of the Trinity

The Great Divide and the Salvation Paradox David P. Griffith, 2022-04-07 The church in its first centuries split on whether Christ saved everyone or a few Universalism versus Exclusivism In the sixth century the church settled the issue seemingly and held that Universalism was heresy This book reviews this history as well as what provoked it Scripture on its face gives two contradictory accounts of salvation's extent everyone is ultimately saved and everyone is not In contrast to both Exclusivism and Universalism the book takes Scripture's two accounts of salvation's extent as true that is as a paradox This is the approach the church has taken with other scriptural paradoxes Saying one God is three or one Son is both God and man appeared to be contradictory too but to embrace Scripture entirely these were seen as paradoxical The Trinity modeled how one can be three and the hypostatic union modeled how one can be two For the paradox of salvation's extent the answer lies in the individual's divisibility in the afterlife one can be two That is in ultimate salvation each individual can be both saved and unsaved      Thinking Nature and the Nature of Thinking Willemien Otten, 2020-03-17 A fresh and more capacious reading of the Western religious tradition on nature and creation Thinking Nature and the Nature of Thinking puts medieval Irish theologian John Scottus Eriugena 810-877 into conversation with American philosopher Ralph Waldo Emerson 1803-1882 Challenging the biblical stewardship model of nature and histories of nature and religion that pit orthodoxy against the heresy of pantheism Willemien Otten reveals a line of thought that has long made room for nature's agency as the coworker of God Embracing in this more elusive idea of nature in a world beset by environmental crisis she suggests will allow us to see nature not as a victim but as an ally in a common quest for re-attunement to the divine Putting its protagonists into further dialogue with such classic authors as Augustine Maximus the Confessor Friedrich Schleiermacher and William James her study deconstructs the idea of pantheism and paves the way for a new natural theology      Desire, Faith, and the Darkness of God Eric Bugyis, David Newheiser, 2015-11-15 In the face of religious and cultural diversity some doubt whether Christian faith remains possible today Critics claim that religion is irrational and violent and the loudest defenders of Christianity are equally strident In response Desire, Faith, and the Darkness of God: Essays in Honor of Denys Turner explores the uncertainty essential to Christian commitment it suggests that faith is moved by a desire for that which cannot be known This approach is inspired by the tradition of Christian apophatic theology which argues that language cannot capture divine transcendence From this perspective contemporary debates over God's existence represent a dead end if God is not simply another object in the world then faith begins not in abstract certainty but in a love that exceeds the limits of knowledge The essays engage classic Christian thought alongside literary and philosophical sources ranging from Pseudo Dionysius and Dante to Karl Marx and Jacques Derrida Building on the work of Denys Turner they indicate that the boundary between atheism and Christian thought is productively blurry Instead of settling the stale dispute over whether religion is rationally justified their work suggests instead that Christian life is an ethical and political practice impassioned by a God who transcends understanding      Drama of the Divine Economy Paul M. Blowers, 2012-10-11 An introduction to the multiplex relation between Creator and creation as an object both of theological construction and religious devotion in the early church The book argues that patristic commentators were motivated less by cosmological concerns than the desire to depict creation as the enduring creative and redemptive strategy of the Trinity      The Scariest Word in the Bible Lance M. Bacon, 2018-08-14 In Jesus' view many are wrong about being right with God They anticipate a home in heaven but will receive an eternal eviction How can we be sure that we are not among the many This book will help you find that answer Presented from a pastor's heart this work combines exegetical analysis theological acumen and practical ministerial insight to help you obtain and maintain a saving relationship with God The Parable of the Sower serves as the roadmap on our journey as it provides remarkable insight on why many seeds fail to find good ground or bring forth good fruit Jesus also reveals how we can tap the unimaginable potential for personal and kingdom growth contained within The first section breaks up the hard ground to reveal the deep truths of sin and salvation The second section identifies ways to overcome the stones that prevent spiritual growth offense unforgiveness fear solitude and complacency The third section analyzes the postmodern worldviews deficient theologies materialism and the idolatry of self that suffocates many growing Christians Only the believer who rightly responds to God can begin to live for God and ultimately live from God This is God's salvation Is it yours

Karl Barth and the Incarnation Darren Sumner, 2014-09-25 This work demonstrates the significance of Karl Barth's Christology by examining it in the context of his orientation toward the classical tradition an orientation that was both critical and sympathetic To compare this Christology with the doctrine's history Sumner suggests first that the Chalcedonian portrait of the incarnation is conceptually vulnerable at a number of points By recasting the doctrine in actualist terms the history of Jesus lived existence as God's fulfillment of His covenant with creatures rather than a metaphysical uniting of natures Barth is able to move beyond problems inherent in the tradition Despite a number of formal and material differences however Barth's position coheres with the intent of the ancient councils and ought to be judged as orthodox Barth's great contribution to Christology is in the unapologetic affirmation of the humanity of God

The Singing-Masters Aidan Nichols, 2023-02-25 A study of the theological achievements of the patristic age via sixteen representative figures These Fathers were chosen especially for their influential and authoritative life in the Church

Systematic Theology Robert Letham, 2019-11-19 This comprehensive systematic theology by respected theologian Robert Letham covers the whole field of Reformed Christian doctrine from biblical historical and theological angles Letham begins with God's ultimate self-revelation as the Father the Son and the Holy Spirit in indivisible union continuing on with the works of God in creation providence and grace He draws deeply from Scripture and important voices from the church to provide a clear and concise articulation of the Reformed faith He also addresses current issues such as feminism charismatic gifts sexual ethics environmentalism other religions the nature of truth and civil liberties Each chapter is followed by discussion questions with a glossary of terms included at the end This work grounds theological understanding and practice in the life and ministry of the church accessible to pastors students scholars and anyone who desires to understand believe and live scriptural doctrine more fully

Truth Therapy Peter J. Bellini, 2014-12-09 Our world is inundated with war poverty disease economic crises terrorism unemployment fatherlessness addictions divorce abortion sex trafficking racism depression and anxiety information and stimulation overload and the list goes on and on Where do people find relief How do people find true peace and hope Do they find it Do they even find it in church or do they endlessly and hopelessly search Truth Therapy is a devotional strategy for spiritual formation and discipleship that employs scripture basic Christian truths the names of God and faith affirmations blended with cognitive behavioral theory It is an intentional approach that tackles many of the maladies of our day that impede believers from growing and overcoming in Christ such as stress worry fear depression and anxiety The fundamental premises of Truth Therapy are that lies bind us but the truth sets us free The lies we believe are the primary weapons used to defeat us while the truth we believe can be the key to setting us free Truth Therapy provides a framework for identifying and evaluating the lies we believe and replacing those lies with the truth found in the word of God for every area of our life Truth Therapy can be used in multiple settings such as personal devotions group devotions small group study discipleship counseling and in intercession

Divine Presence as Activity and the Incarnation Alexander S. Jensen, 2024-07-22 This book offers an original perspective on the doctrine of incarnation through a discussion of divine presence and action arguing for the plausibility of Chalcedonian Christology It draws on a range of theological and philosophical sources from St Athanasius of Alexandria's approach regarding the presence of the logos asarkos in the world to the relational understanding of personhood put forward by John Zizioulas Christos Yannaras and others The suggestion is that divine presence needs to be understood in consistently Trinitarian terms and the book sets out the possibility of a theology of presence which understands God as present and immanent in the world while at the same time remaining transcendent and ineffable Alexander Jensen maintains that the classical understanding of divine presence which sees God as being present according to God's activity is much more useful in Christology than today's predominant modern notion of presence as occupying space and combines this with an ontological understanding of personhood The book gives an account of the person and work of Christ that takes seriously the insights of historical research and critical biblical interpretation It takes seriously the full humanity of Jesus of Nazareth and asserts that in this man we encounter God It will be of particular interest to systematic theologians as well as those concerned with the history of Christian theology and philosophical theology

Varieties of Christian Universalism David W. Congdon, 2023-11-07 Christian universalism has become a subject of fierce debate in recent years Numerous works have been published on the topic and it can be difficult for readers to recognize the breadth of possible approaches While universal salvation is often boiled down to and dismissed as a single idea that God saves all people this oversimplification masks the variety of theologies that reach this conclusion in ways that are not always compatible Christian universalism is actually an umbrella of different theological interpretations of the idea that all people will be saved In this book leading experts on universal salvation David W Congdon Tom Greggs Morwenna Ludlow and Robin A Parry provide a concise guide to four distinct approaches patristic evangelical post Barthian and existential The contributors who have each written extensively on Christian universalism highlight distinct approaches that emphasize different theological values The book will be useful as a textbook for students of theology especially those training for ministry and as a resource for anyone seeking a more well rounded understanding of Christian universalism

Introducing Eastern Orthodox Theology Andrew Louth, 2013-10-11 With an estimated 250 million adherents the Orthodox Church is the second largest Christian body in the world This absorbing account of the essential elements of Eastern Orthodox thought deals with the Trinity Christ sin humanity and creation as well as praying icons the sacraments and liturgy
