On The Road The Original Scroll:

On the Road Jack Kerouac, 2007 A faithful reproduction of Kerouac s 1951 scroll draft of On the Road as originally composed offers insight into the writer s thematic vision and narrative voice as influenced by the American literary musical On the Road Jack Kerouac, 2007 Presents the previously unpublished and visual arts of the post World War II period original scroll edition of Jack Kerouac's novel On the Road which Kerouac wrote over a three week period in 1951 on eight sheets of tracing paper that he taped together to form a 120 foot scroll Includes the real names of the friends that inspired On the Road: the Original Scroll Jack Kerouac, 2008-08-26 The legendary 1951 scroll draft of On the book s storyline the Road published as Kerouac originally composed it IN THREE WEEKS in April of 1951 Jack Kerouac wrote his first full draft of On the Road typed as a single spaced paragraph on eight long sheets of tracing paper which he later taped together to form a 120 foot scroll A major literary event when it was published in Viking hardcover in 2007 this is the uncut version of an American classic rougher wilder and more provocative than the official work that appeared heavily edited in 1957 This version capturing a moment in creative history represents the first full expression of Kerouac's revolutionary aesthetic For more than seventy years Penguin has been the leading publisher of classic literature in the English speaking world With more than 1 700 titles Penguin Classics represents a global bookshelf of the best works throughout history and across genres and disciplines Readers trust the series to provide authoritative texts enhanced by introductions and notes by distinguished scholars and contemporary authors as well as up to date translations by award winning translators Kerouac's Crooked Road Tim Hunt, 2010-04-06 Now a classic Kerouac's Crooked Road was one of the first critical works on the legendary Beat writer to analyze his work as serious literary art placing it in the broader American literary tradition with canonical writers like Herman Melville and Mark Twain Author Tim Hunt explores Kerouac's creative process and puts his work in conversation with classic American literature and with critical theory This edition includes a new preface by the author which takes a discerning look at the implications of the 2007 publication of the original typewriter scroll version of On the Road for the understanding of Kerouac and his novel Although some critics see the scroll version of the novel as embodying Kerouac s true artistic vision and the 1957 Viking edition as a commercialized compromise of that vision Hunt argues that the two versions should not be viewed as antithetical but rather as discrete perspectives of a writer deeply immersed in writing as both performance and evolving process Hunt moves beyond the mythos surrounding the spontaneous creation of On the Road which upholds Kerouac s reputation as a cultural icon to look more closely at an innovative writer who wanted to bridge the gap between the luscious talk filled world of real life and the sterilized version of that world circumscribed by overly intellectualized literary texts through the use of written language driven by effusive passion rather than sober reflection With close erudite readings of Kerouac s major and minor works from On the Road to Visions of Cody Hunt draws on Kerouac s letters novels poetry and experimental drafts to position Kerouac in both historical and literary contexts emphasizing the

Alworth, 2015-11-17 Site Reading offers a new method of literary and cultural interpretation and a new theory of narrative setting by examining five sites supermarkets dumps roads ruins and asylums that have been crucial to American literature and visual art since the mid twentieth century Against the traditional understanding of setting as a static background for narrative action and character development David Alworth argues that sites figure in novels as social agents Engaging a wide range of social and cultural theorists especially Bruno Latour and Erving Goffman Site Reading examines how the literary figuration of real material environments reorients our sense of social relations To read the sites of fiction Alworth demonstrates is to reveal literature as a profound sociological resource one that simultaneously models and theorizes collective life Each chapter identifies a particular site as a point of contact for writers and artists the supermarket for Don DeLillo and Andy Warhol the dump for William Burroughs and Mierle Laderman Ukeles the road for Jack Kerouac Joan Didion and John Chamberlain the ruin for Thomas Pynchon and Robert Smithson and the asylum for Ralph Ellison Gordon Parks and Jeff Wall and shows how this site mediates complex interactions among humans and nonhumans The result is an interdisciplinary study of American culture that brings together literature visual art and social theory to develop a new sociology of literature that emphasizes the sociology in literature Small Cinemas in Global Markets David Desser, Janina Falkowska, Lenuta Giukin, 2014-12-18 Small Cinemas in Global Markets addresses aspects such as identity revisiting the past internationalized genres new forms of experimental cinema markets and production as well as technological developments of alternative small screens that open new perspectives into small cinema possibilities Small and big markets for small industries reveal an unimagined diversification of the cultural product and consequently the need to analyze the impact at local regional and global levels Much needed to continue and expand the existing scholarship in the field this volume is based on research by authors who approach their subject from Western theoretical perspectives with a professional mostly native knowledge of the language cultural realities and film industry practices It covers aspects from fifteen different countries including Bolivia Brazil China Hong Kong Croatia East Africa Kenya Tanzania and Uganda Greece Indonesia Lithuania Bulgaria Poland Romania Morocco and the United States Since both film and documentary distribution from certain areas of the globe on international markets remains problematic it is important for the academic field to discuss and circulate them as much as possible and to create the basis for further exploration Documenting and reflecting on the role state and reception of the film industry provides scholarly understanding to the industry s wide range of seemingly chaotic technological transformations Ethics and Politics in Modern American Poetry John Wrighton, 2012-06-25 From the Objectivists to e poetry this thoughtful and innovative book explores the dynamic relationship between the ethical imperative and poetic practice revitalizing the study of the most prominent post war American poets in a fresh provocative way Contributing to the turn to ethics in literary studies the book begins with Emmanual Levinas philosophy proposing that his reorientation of ontology and ethics demands a social responsibility In poetic practice this responsibility for the other it is argued is both responsive to the traumatized semiotics of our shared language and directed towards an emancipatory social activism Individual chapters deal with Charles Olson's The Maximus Poems including reproductions of previously unpublished archive material Gary Snyder's environmental poetry Allen Ginsberg's Beat poetics Jerome Rothenberg's ethnopoetics and Bruce Andrew's Language poetry Following the book's chronological and contextual approach their work is situated within a constellation of poetic schools and movements and in relation to the shifting socio political conditions of post war America In its redefinition and extension of the key notion of poethics and as guide to the development of experimental work in modern American poetry this book will interest and appeal to a wide audience What's Your Road, Man? Hilary Holladay, Robert Holton, 2009 Combining essays from renowned Kerouac experts and emerging scholars What s Your Road Man draws on an enormous amount of research into the literary social cultural biographical and historical contexts of Kerouac's canonical novel Since its publication in 1957 On the Road has remained in print and has continued to be one of the most widely read twentieth century American novels Ambiguous Borderlands Erik Mortenson, 2016-02-03 The image of the shadow in mid twentieth century America appeared across a variety of genres and media including poetry pulp fiction photography and film Drawing on an extensive framework that ranges from Cold War cultural histories to theorizations of psychoanalysis and the Gothic Erik Mortenson argues that shadow imagery in 1950s and 1960s American culture not only reflected the anxiety and ambiguity of the times but also offered an imaginative space for artists to challenge the binary rhetoric associated with the Cold War After contextualizing the postwar use of shadow imagery in the wake of the atomic bomb Ambiguous Borderlands looks at shadows in print works detailing the reemergence of the pulp fiction crime fighter the Shadow in the late 1950s writings of Sylvia Plath Amiri Baraka and Jack Kerouac Using Freudian and Jungian conceptions of the unconscious Mortenson then discusses Kerouac s and Allen Ginsberg s shared dream of a shrouded stranger and how it shaped their Beat aesthetic Turning to the visual Mortenson examines the dehumanizing effect of shadow imagery in the Cold War photography of Robert Frank William Klein and Ralph Eugene Meatyard Mortenson concludes with an investigation of the use of chiaroscuro in 1950s film noir and the popular television series The Twilight Zone further detailing how the complexities of Cold War society were mirrored across these media in the ubiquitous imagery of light and dark From comics to movies Beats to bombs Ambiguous Borderlands provides a novel understanding of the Cold War cultural context through its analysis of the image of the shadow in midcentury media Its interdisciplinary approach ambitious subject matter and diverse theoretical framing make it essential reading for anyone interested in American literary and popular culture during the fifties and sixties Adapting the Beat Poets Michael J. Prince, 2016-09-09 In the post World War II era authors of the beat generation produced some of the most enduring literature of the day More than six decades since work of the Beat Poets conjures images of unconventionality defiance and a changing consciousness that permeated the 1950s and 60s In recent years the key texts of Beat authors such as Allen Ginsberg William S Burroughs and Jack Kerouac have been appropriated for a new generation in feature length films graphic novels and other media In Adapting the Beat Poets Burroughs Ginsberg and Kerouc on Screen Michael J Prince examines how works by these authors have been translated to film Looking primarily at three key works Burroughs Naked Lunch Ginsberg's Howl and Kerouac's On the Road

Prince considers how Beat literature has been significantly altered by the unintended intrusion of irony or other inflections Prince also explores how these screen adaptations offer evidence of a growing cultural thirst for authenticity even as mediated in postmodern works Additional works discussed in this volume include The Subterraneans Towers Open Fire The Junky s Christmas and Big Sur By examining the screen versions of the Beat triumvirate s creations this volume questions the ways in which their original works serve as artistic anchors and whether these films honor the authentic intent of the authors Adapting the Beat Poets is a valuable resource for anyone studying the beat generation including scholars of literature film Beatdom - Issue Four David Wills, 2009-07-24 The fourth issue of the hugely popular Beatdom magazine includes poetry by hiphop star Scroobius Pip essays by Kerouac expert Dave Moore interviews with Gary Snyder and Carolyn Cassady and the memoirs and unpublished photographs of Allen Ginsberg's assistant The Graphic Canon.
